Cinema In Turkey A New Critical History:

Cinema in Turkey Savaş Arslan, 2011 With over six thousand films Turkey has produced more films than any other country in the Middle East or the Balkans Despite its prolific and popular nature this national film industry has often been denigrated as imitative simplistic and underdeveloped Taking up precisely these critiques Cinema in Turkey provides a critical history of feature cinema in Turkey considering how this cinema developed modes of communication reflective of both existing traditions and region specific responses to modernization and nation building Focusing on both popular films and art cinema this study deals with the history of cinema in Turkey including not only its high point during the golden age of Yesilcam as Turkey's popular film industry of the 1960s and 1970s is known but also its early years and its current revival the New Cinema of Turkey This book not only provides the first comprehensive history of Turkish cinema in English but also attempts to introduce a contemporary film theoretical perspective to the examination of Turkish cinema viewing it in a broader framework that goes beyond the canonical concerns of existing film histories and their art and auteur cinema related perspectives

Kurdish Documentary Cinema in Turkey Suncem Kocer, Can Candan, 2016-12-14 Without a doubt this decade's most discussed and developed documentary productions in Turkey come from Kurdistan a name that provokes nationalist panic in Turkey yet delineates distinct cultural linguistic and political boundaries nonetheless Documentary film productions by Kurdish filmmakers from Turkey determine the major tendencies of this emergent genre with such productions offering a unique opportunity for a nuanced understanding of national cinema The larger body of films fiction and non fiction termed as Kurdish cinema complicates the category of national cinema a concept discussed heatedly within the field of cinema studies Documentary film is proving to be a particularly complex tool for the Kurdish social and political existence as Kurds lack the official tools of history writing and cultural preservation that are categorically associated with the capacities of a state By delving into Kurdish documentary films as products of complex societal political and historical processes the articles in the volume highlight the intersections of media production film text and audience reception and expand on vibrant debates in the field of film and media studies through situated case studies Bringing these chapters together this book will stimulate academic discussion around this emergent and lively genre of documentary film production and encourage further research and publication

The Routledge Handbook of Modern Turkey Metin Heper, Sabri Sayari, 2013-05-07 In recent years there has been growing interest in Turkey stemming from the country's developing role in regional and global politics its expanding economic strength and its identity as a predominantly Muslim country with secular political institutions and democratic processes This Handbook provides a comprehensive and wide ranging profile of modern Turkey Bringing together original contributions from leading scholars with a wide range of backgrounds this important reference work gives a unique in depth survey of Turkish affairs past and present Thematically organised sections cover Turkish history from the early Ottoman period to the present Turkish culture Politics and international relations Social issues

Geography The Turkish economy and economics Presenting diverse and often competing views on all aspects of Turkish history politics society culture geography and economics this handbook will be an essential reference tool for students and scholars of Middle East studies comparative politics and culture and society

The Europeanization of Cinema Randall Halle, 2014-06-15 In this innovative study German and film studies scholar Randall Halle advances the concept of interzones geographical and ideational spaces of transit interaction transformation and contested diversity as a mechanism for analyzing European cinema He focuses especially on films about borders borderlands and cultural zones as he traces the development of interzones from the inception of central European cinema to the avant garde films of today Throughout he shows how cinema both reflects and engenders interzones that explore the important questions of Europe's social order imperialism and nation building in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries first contact between former adversaries such as East and West Germany following World War II and the Cold War and migration neo colonialism and cultural imperialism in the twenty first century Ultimately Halle argues that today's cinema both produces and reflects imaginative communities He demonstrates how rather than simply erasing boundaries the European Union instead fosters a network of cultural interzones that encourage cinematic exploration of the new Europe's processes and limits of connectivity tolerance and cooperation

The I.B. Tauris Handbook of Iranian Cinema Michelle Langford, Maryam Ghorbankarimi, Zahra Khosroshahi, 2024-10-31 This volume brings together scholarship from both established scholars and early career academics to provide fresh insights and new research on the cinema of Iran The book is organised around eight broad themes including cinema before and after the revolution stylistic innovation documentary gender and genre Encompassing a diverse range of methodological approaches and disciplinary frameworks including film studies cultural studies and political economy each chapter is a self contained study on a specific topic engaging with the national and transnational history of Iranian cinema which combined provide readers with original new insights into Iranian film and filmmakers from fiction films to art house and popular cinema The

Handbook includes analysis of the works of established filmmakers such as Bahram Beyzaie Rakhshan Banetamad Abbas Kiarostami and Mohsen Makhmalbaf as well as the output of emerging voices such as Ida Panahandeh and Shahram Mokri Covering well known topics as well as cutting edge ones such the sonic and visual manifestations of the urban environment in Iranian films this book is a vital resource for understanding Iran and its unique cinematic culture Women and Turkish Cinema Eylem Atakav,2013 Since 2000 there has been a considerable effort in Turkish cinema to come to terms with the military's intervention in politics and subsequent national trauma It has resulted in an outpouring of cinematic texts This book focuses on women and Turkish cinema in the context of gender politics cultural identity and representation The central proposition of this book is that enforced depoliticisation introduced after the coup is responsible for uniting feminism and film in 1980s Turkey The feminist movement was able to flourish precisely because it was not perceived as political or politically significant In a parallel move in the films of the 1980s there was an increased tendency to focus on the individual on women's issues and lives in order to avoid the overtly political Women and Turkish Cinema provides a comprehensive view of cinema's approach to women in a country which straddles European and Middle Eastern cultural conceptions identities and religious values and will be an invaluable resource for students and scholars of Film Studies Gender Studies and Middle East Studies amongst others Ecomedia Stephen Rust,Salma Monani,Sean Cubitt,2015-09-07 Ecomedia Key Issues is a comprehensive textbook introducing the burgeoning field of ecomedia studies to provide an overview of the interface between environmental issues and the media globally Linking the world of media production distribution and consumption to environmental understandings the book addresses ecological meanings encoded in media texts the environmental impacts of media production and the relationships between media and cultural perceptions of the environment Each chapter introduces a distinct type of media addressing it in a theoretical overview before engaging with specific case studies In this way the book provides an accessible introduction to each form of media as well as a sophisticated analysis of relevant cases The book includes contributions from a combination of new voices and well established media scholars from across the globe who examine the basic concepts and key issues of ecomedia studies The concepts of frames flow and convergence structure a dynamic collection divided into three parts The first part addresses traditional visual texts such as comics photography and film The second part of the book addresses traditional broadcast media such as radio and television and the third part looks at new media such as advertising video games the internet and digital renderings of scientific data In its breadth and scope Ecomedia Key Issues presents a unique survey of rich scholarship at the confluence of Media Studies and Environmental Studies The book is written in an engaging and accessible style with each chapter including case studies discussion questions and suggestions for further reading The City on Screen: Modern Strangers of Cinematic Istanbul Sertaç Timur Demir,2024-01-02 The City on Screen Modern Strangers of Cinematic Istanbul attempts to analyze how Istanbul is captured through the projector in other words the ontological relationship between city and film and how it is elaborated within the context of Istanbul and the sense of strangerhood This book shifts the axis of Istanbul typically known as a touristic city to its underlying details through the strangers in the modern city Five different films set in this region are analyzed in the text that help to reveal and clarify the socio urban life of modern Istanbul The characters and stories in these films tell how Istanbul has socially and architecturally become a city of strangers The films analyzed include A Touch of Spice 2004 Men on the Bridge 2009 A Run for Money 1999 Distant 2002 and 10 to 11 2009 The theoretical framework of this book is based on the works of Georg Simmel Zygmunt Bauman and Richard Sennett These three thinkers have all attempted to look for answers to the sociological question of strangerhood in urban living This book accomplishes this connection by discussing the similarities and differences between each of their theories regarding the city cinema and strangerhood Social Trauma and Telecinematic Memory Pelin Başcı, 2017-10-24 This book explores responses to authoritarianism in Turkish society through popular culture by examining feature films and television serials produced between 1980 and 2010 about the 1980 coup Envisioned as an interdisciplinary study in cultural studies rather than a disciplinary work on cinema the book advocates for an understanding of popular culture in discerning emerging narratives of nationhood Through feature films and television serials directly dealing with the coup of 1980 the book exposes tropes and discursive continuities such as childhood and the child It argues that these conventional tropes enable popular debates on the modern nation's history and its myths of identity Precarity in European Film Elisa Cuter, Guido Kirsten, Hanna Prenzel, 2022-06-06 This volume brings together renowned scholars and early career researchers in mapping the ways in which European cinema whether arthouse or mainstream fictional or documentary working with traditional or new media engages with phenomena of precarity poverty and social exclusion It compares how the filmic traditions of different countries reflect the socioeconomic conditions associated with precarity and illuminates similarities in the iconography of precarious lives across cultures While some of the contributions deal with the representations of marginalized minorities others focus on work related precarity or the depictions of downward mobility Among other topics the volume looks at how films grapple with gender inequality intersectional struggle discriminatory housing policies and the specific problems of precarious youth With its comparative approach to filmic representations of European precarity this volume makes a major contribution to scholarship on precarity and the representation of social class in contemporary visual culture Watch our talk with the editors Elisa Cuter Guido Kirsten and Hanna Prenzel here <https://youtu.be/lKpD1NFAx2o> The Dubious Case of a Failed Coup Feride Çiçekoğlu, Ömer Turan, 2018-09-18 This volume is an attempt to contextualise the coup attempt of 15 July 2016 in Turkey within the framework of militarism and masculinities The immediate aftermath of the 15 July in Turkey witnessed confusion contestation and negotiation among different narratives until a hegemonic version was superimposed on the collective memory as part of official history building This project is an attempt to bring a fresh and critical perspective by compiling together analyses from various disciplines of political science media and film studies literature sociology and cultural studies

Several chapters of this volume delineate the paradox of victorious militarism meaning that despite the failure of the coup its aftermath has been shaped by a new wave of state sponsored gendered militarism with the establishment of a regime of state of emergency

Poetics of Slow Cinema Emre Çağlayan, 2018-10-12 This book discusses slow cinema a contemporary global production trend that has recently gained momentum in film theory and criticism Slow films dispense with narrative progression in favour of a contemplative mood which is stretched out to the extreme in order to impel viewers to confront cinematic temporality in all its undivided glory Despite its critical reputation as an oblique mode of film practice slow cinema continues to attract challenge and provoke audiences Focusing on filmmakers B la Tarr Tsai Ming liang and Nuri Bilge Ceylan this book identifies nostalgia absurd humour and boredom as intrinsic dimensions of slow cinema and explores the ways in which these directors negotiate local filmmaking conventions with the demands of a global cinephile niche As the first study to treat slow cinema both as an aesthetic style and as an institutional discourse Poetics of Slow Cinema offers an illuminating perspective on the tradition s historical genealogy and envisions it with a Janus faced disposition in the age of digital technologies lamenting at once the passing of difficult ambiguous modernist film and capitalizing on the yearning for its absence

B-Movie Gothic Justin Edwards, 2018-05-15 Leading philosophers reconsider the philosophical destiny of education

Transnational Film Remakes Iain Robert Smith, 2017-03-08 What happens when a film is remade in another national context How do notions of translation adaptation and localisation help us understand the cultural dynamics of these shifts and in what ways does a transnational perspective offer us a deeper understanding of film remaking Bringing together a range of international scholars Transnational Film Remakes is the first edited collection to specifically focus on the phenomenon of cross cultural remakes Using a variety of case studies from Hong Kong remakes of Japanese cinema to Bollywood remakes of Australian television this book provides an analysis of cinematic remaking that moves beyond Hollywood to address the truly global nature of this phenomenon Looking at iconic contemporary titles such as The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo and Oldboy as well as classics like La Bete Humaine and La Chienne this book interrogates the fluid and dynamic ways in which texts are adapted and reworked across national borders to provide a distinctive new model for understanding these global cultural borrowings

Film Music Kathryn Marie Kalinak, 2023 Film music is as old as cinema The first projected moving images were accompanied by music through a variety of performers from single piano players to small orchestras that brought images to life Film music has since become its own industry an aesthetic platform for expression creative visions and a commercial vehicle for growing musical stars of all varieties This Very Short Introduction takes the reader behind the scenes to understand both the practical aspects of film music and the theories behind why it works The updated second edition includes the music from film industries in Africa Asia and South Asia and Latin America and the stories of musicians from previously under represented groups

The Politics of Culture in Turkey, Greece & Cyprus Leonidas Karakatsanis, Nikolaos Papadogiannis, 2017-03-27 Performing a political identity usually involves more than just casting a vote For Left wingers in Turkey Greece and Cyprus countries that emerged as the only non socialist constituents of South eastern Europe after WWII political preference meant immersion to distinct ways of life to cultures in times of dictatorship or persecution the desire to find alternative ways to express themselves gave content to these cultures In times of political normality it was the echoes of such memories of precarity and loss that took the lead This book explores the intersection between the politics and cultures of the Left since the sixties in Turkey Greece and Cyprus With the use of 12 case studies the contributors expose the moments in which the Left has been claimed and performed not only through political manifestos and traditional political boundaries but also through corporeal acts discursive practices and affective encounters These are all transformed into distinct modalities of everyday life and conduct which are commemorated narrated or sung versed painted or captured in photographic images and on reels of tape By focusing on culture and performance this book highlights the complex link between nationalism and internationalism in left wing cultures and illuminates the entanglements between the ways in which left wingers experienced transitions from dictatorship to democracy and vice versa As the first book to analyse cultures and performances of the Left in the three countries The Politics of Culture in Turkey Greece and Cyprus causes a rethinking of the boundaries of political practice and fosters new understandings of the formation of diverse expressions of the Left As such it will be a valuable resource for students and scholars of cultural and social anthropology modern European history and political science

The Oxford Handbook of New Audiovisual Aesthetics John Richardson, Claudia Gorbman, Carol Vernallis, 2013-08-20 This handbook provides powerful ways to understand changes in the current media landscape Media forms and genres are proliferating as never before from movies computer games and iPods to video games and wireless phones This essay collection by recognized scholars practitioners and non academic writers opens discussion in exciting new directions

Sensational Religion Sally Promey, 2014-06-24 The result of a collaborative multiyear project this groundbreaking book explores the interpretive worlds that inform religious practice and derive from sensory phenomena Under the rubric of making sense the studies assembled here ask How have people used and valued sensory data How have they shaped their material and immaterial worlds to encourage or discourage certain kinds or patterns of sensory experience How have they framed the sensual capacities of images and objects to license a range of behaviors including iconoclasm censorship and accusations of blasphemy or sacrilege Exposing the dematerialization of religion embedded in secularization theory editor Sally Promey proposes a fundamental reorientation in understanding the personal social political and cultural work accomplished in religion s sensory and material practice Sensational Religion refocuses scholarly attention on the robust material entanglements often discounted by modernity s metaphysic and on their inextricable connections to human bodies behaviors affects and beliefs

How the World Remade Hollywood Ed Glaser, 2022-03-07 For decades filmmakers worldwide have been remaking Hollywood movies in colorful ways They ve chronicled a singing and dancing Hannibal Lecter in India star crossed lovers aboard the doomed Nigerian ship Titanic a

Japanese expedition to the planet of the apes and an uncivil war in Turkey between Captain America and a mobbed up Spider Man Most of these films were low budget and many were unauthorized but all of them were fantastic and lately have begun to resurface thanks to cherry picked YouTube clips But why and how were they made in the first place This book tells the little known stories of the wily filmmakers who made an Italian 007 flick by casting Sean Connery s tradesman brother produced a Turkish space opera by stealing a print of Star Wars for its effects footage and transported a full fledged Terminator to the present day not from a post apocalyptic future but from the vibrant mythology of Indonesia Their stories reveal more than mere imitations they demonstrate the fascinating ways ideas evolve as they cross borders
