The Life She Wished to Live: A Biography of Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings, author of *The Yearling Ann McCutchan, 2021-05-11 A comprehensive and engaging biography of Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings Pulitzer Prize winning author of the beloved classic The Yearling. Washington DC born and Wisconsin educated Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings was an unlikely author of a coming of age novel about a poor central Florida child and his pet fawn much less one that has become synonymous with Florida literature. Rawlings was a tough ambitious and independent woman who refused the conventions of her early twentieth century upbringing. Determined to forge a literary career beyond those limitations she found her voice in the remote hardscrabble life of Cross Creek Florida. There Rawlings purchased a commercial orange grove and discovered a fascinating world out of which to write and a dialect of the poor swampland community that the literary world had yet to hear. She employed her sensitive eye sharp ear for dialogue and philosophical spirit to bring to life this unknown corner of America in vivid tender detail a feat that earned her the Pulitzer Prize in 1938. Her accomplishments came at a price a failed first marriage financial instability a contentious libel suit alcoholism and physical and emotional upheaval. With intimate access to Rawlings's correspondence and revealing early writings Ann McCutchan uncovers a larger than life woman who writes passionately and with verve whose emotions change on a dime and who drinks to excess smokes swears and even occasionally joins in on an alligator hunt. The Life She Wished to Live paints a lively portrait of Rawlings her contemporaries including her legendary editor Maxwell Perkins and friends Zora Neale Hurston Ernest Hemingway and F Scott Fitzgerald and the Florida landscape and people that inspired her.

You Haven't Asked About My Wedding Or What I Wore Jana Harris, 2014-10-15 During more than thirty years of reading reminiscences diaries and letters of forgotten North American pioneer women poet Jana Harris noticed one narrative recurring time and again the most powerful memory these women had was often either their courtship and wedding or the courtship and wedding of a family member. While these young women who most likely hauled water in a wooden bucket from creek to house and then wore her knees raw scrubbing splintery floors if she was lucky enough to live in a home that had a floor dreamed of a fine wedding it was sometimes with a man they hardly knew. Harris captures the hope anxiety anger and despair of these women through a variety of voices and poetic strategies. Based on interviews of 19th century frontier women conducted during the 1920s and 30s the voices and images of these powerful women speak. Nowhere on these parchment leaves do I find myself my likeness my name not a whisper Cynthia not one breath of me. Sculpted out of years of research and accompanied by archival photographs these poems imagine the memoirs of forgotten frontier women and children.
