Cities And Cinema Routledge Critical Introductions To Urbanism And The City:

Cities and Cinema Barbara Mennel, 2008-03-19 Films about cities abound They provide fantasies for those who recognize their city and those for whom the city is a faraway dream or nightmare How does cinema rework city planners hopes and city dwellers fears of modern urbanism Can an analysis of city films answer some of the questions posed in urban studies What kinds of vision for the future and images of the past do city films offer What are the changes that city films have undergone Cities and Cinema puts urban theory and cinema studies in dialogue The book s first section analyzes three important genres of city films that follow in historical sequence each associated with a particular city moving from the city film of the Weimar Republic to the film noir associated with Los Angeles and the image of Paris in the cinema of the French New Wave The second section discusses socio historical themes of urban studies beginning with the relationship of film industries and individual cities continuing with the portrayal of war torn and divided cities and ending with the cinematic expression of utopia and dystopia in urban science fiction The last section negotiates the question of identity and place in a global world moving from the portrayal of ghettos and barrios to the city as a setting for gay and lesbian desire to end with the representation of the global city in transnational cinematic practices The book suggests that modernity links urbanism and cinema It accounts for the significant changes that city film has undergone through processes of globalization during which the city has developed from an icon in national cinema to a privileged site for transnational cinematic practices It is a key text for students and researchers of film studies urban studies and cultural studies

Cities and Cinema Barbara Mennel, 2019 The second edition of Cities and Cinema provides an updated survey of films about cities from their significance for modernity at the beginning of the twentieth century to the contemporary relationship between virtual reality and urban space The book demonstrates the importance of the filmic depiction of capitals for national cinemas in the twentieth century and analyzes the transnational transfer of cinematic images surrounding global cities in the twenty first century Cities and Cinema covers the different facets of the cinematic depiction of cities It rehearses distinct methodologies and offers a survey of the history of the cinematic city The book also deepens our understanding of tropes and narrative conventions that shape films about urban settings and that reflect the transformation of cities throughout the twentieth and twenty first centuries Beginning with a discussion of the Weimar street film it analyzes how the city film defined modernity The book outlines the sociological context and the aesthetic features of so called film noir made in 1940s Hollywood and depicting Los Angeles Paris became the site for the development of auteur cinema which repeatedly depicts characters moving through the city Tokyo took up noir to signal modern crime The volume delineates how filmic genres such as science fiction comment on the present by imagining future forms of urban living After analyzing how cinema captures the relationship between sexual identity and urban anonymity migration and urban space and marginalized ethnic and sexual identity in ghetto films the book emphasizes transnational dynamics and global cities in the twenty first century Its conclusion points to the increasing virtual mediation of cities with new media Cities and Cinema offers a historical overview of the development of films about cities and a theoretical approach to the intersection of urban studies and film studies This title is designed as a textbook primarily for second year undergraduate students in Film Media studies Urban studies as well as Geography and Planning yzes how the city film defined modernity The book outlines the sociological context and the aesthetic features of so called film noir made in 1940s Hollywood and depicting Los Angeles Paris became the site for the development of auteur cinema which repeatedly depicts characters moving through the city Tokyo took up noir to signal modern crime The volume delineates how filmic genres such as science fiction comment on the present by imagining future forms of urban living After analyzing how cinema captures the relationship between sexual identity and urban anonymity migration and urban space and marginalized ethnic and sexual identity in ghetto films the book emphasizes transnational dynamics and global cities in the twenty first century Its conclusion points to the increasing virtual mediation of cities with new media Cities and Cinema offers a historical overview of the development of films about cities and a theoretical approach to the intersection of urban studies and film studies This title is designed as a textbook primarily for second year undergraduate students in Film Media studies Urban studies as well as Geography and Planning an studies and film studies This title is designed as a textbook primarily for second year undergraduate students in Film Media studies Urban studies as well as Geography and Planning Leadership in Architectural Research Hazem Rashed-Ali, Shelley Roff, 2009 Queer Film Festivals and Urban Space Theresa Heath, 2025-03-10 This timely and innovative book argues that queer film festivals reclaim urban space for queer women and other marginalised queer subjects through the mobilisation of both material and diegetic space It is a response to the loss of queer urban venues and community spaces across across many parts of the Global North and a claim for the political potential of queer film festivals in the context of late stage capitalism Drawing from critical events studies film and film festival scholarship archival research cultural geography and research in the creative industries the book deploys an interdisciplinary arsenal of tools in order to understand the complexity of festival space Covering the period from 1980 to the present the volume posits original case studies of two long running festivals as well as analysis of ephemeral grassroots events This thorough and critical exploration offers significant insight into the strategies deployed by queer film festivals to carve out queer geographies in the city and the potential of event driven place making to construct alternative morphologies and more equitable approaches to urban space This volume will be of pivotal interest to students scholars and academics of critical event and festival studies film and film festival studies cultural creative and media industries cultural geography sociology and urban studies as well as those with an interest in these areas more generally Urban Utopias Malcolm Miles, 2007-11-21 Utopia tends to generate a bad press regarded as impracticable perhaps nostalgic or contradictory when visions of a perfect world cannot accommodate the change that is necessary to a free and self organizing society But people from diverse backgrounds are currently building a new society within the old balancing literal and metaphorical utopianism and demonstrating plural possibilities for alternative futures and types of settlement Thousands of such places exist around the world including intentional communities eco villages permaculture plots religious and secular retreats co housing projects self build schemes projects for low impact housing and activist squats in urban and rural sites This experience suggests however that when planning and design are not integral to alternative social formations the modern dream to engineer a new society cannot be realized The book is structured in four parts In part one literary and theoretical utopias from the early modern period to the nineteenth century are reconsidered Part two investigates twentieth century urban utopianism and contemporary alternative settlements focusing on social and environmental issues activism and eco village living Part three looks to wider horizons in recent practices in the non affluent world and Part four reviews a range of cases from the author s visits to specific sites This is followed by a short conclusion in which a discussion of key issues is resumed This book brings together insights from literary theoretical and practical utopias drawing out the characteristics of groups and places that are part of a new society It links today s utopian experiments to historical and literary utopias and to theoretical problems in utopian thought

Urban Landscapes and National Visions in Post-Millennial South Korean Cinema

Gemma Ballard,2023-05-11 This book explores South Korean cinema s inimitable relationship with the urban landscape and identifies the ways in which Seoul is utilised as a celluloid canvas national artefact and above all else a distinctive cultural backdrop Using five different approaches to urban space from five distinctive and contrasting theoretical perspectives Urban Landscapes in Post Millennial South Korean Cinema investigates and seeks to understand why the cinematic representation identity and presence of Seoul have been central to the preservation and recognition of the South Korean film industry as an independent autonomous and nationally unique institution

The Child in British Cinema Matthew Smith,2022-07-22

This book argues that over the twentieth and twenty first centuries the cinema in Britain became the site on which childhood was projected examined and understood Through an analysis of these projections via case studies that encompass early cinema pre and post war film and contemporary cinema this book interprets the child in British cinema as a device through which to reflect upon issues of national culture race empire class and gender Beginning with a discussion of early cinematic depictions of the child in Britain this book examines cultural expressions of nationhood produced via non commercial cinemas for children It considers the way cinema encroaches on the moral edification of the child and the ostensible vibrancy and vitality of the British boy in post war cinema The author explores the representational and instrumental differences between depictions of boys and girls before extending this discussion to investigate the treatment of migrant refugee and immigrant children in British cinema It ends by recapitulating these arguments through a discussion of internationally successful British blockbuster cinema The child in this study is a mobile figure deployed across generic boundaries throughout the history of British cinema and embodying a range of discourses regarding the health and wellbeing of the nation

Cities and Design

Paul L. Knox,2010-07-12 Cities initially a product of the manufacturing era have been thoroughly remade in the image of

consumer society Competitive spending among affluent households has intensified the importance of style and design at every scale and design professions have grown in size and importance reflecting distinctive geographies and locating disproportionately in cities most intimately connected with global systems of key business services Meanwhile many observers still believe good design can make positive contributions to people's lives Cities and Design explores the complex relationships between design and urban environments It traces the intellectual roots of urban design presents a critical appraisal of the imprint and effectiveness of design professions in shaping urban environments examines the role of design in the material culture of contemporary cities and explores the complex linkages among designers producers and distributors in contemporary cities for example fashion and graphic design in New York architecture fashion and publishing in London furniture industrial design interior design and fashion in Milan haute couture in Paris and so on This book offers a distinctive social science perspective on the economic and cultural context of design in contemporary cities presenting cities themselves as settings for design design services and the affect associated with design On Video Games Soraya Murray, 2017-10-30 Today over half of all American households own a dedicated game console and gaming industry profits trump those of the film industry worldwide In this book Soraya Murray moves past the technical discussions of games and offers a fresh and incisive look at their cultural dimensions She critically explores blockbusters like The Last of Us Metal Gear Solid Spec Ops The Line Tomb Raider and Assassin's Creed to show how they are deeply entangled with American ideological positions and contemporary political cultural and economic conflicts As quintessential forms of visual material in the twenty first century mainstream games both mirror and spur larger societal fears hopes and dreams and even address complex struggles for recognition This book examines both their elaborately constructed characters and densely layered worlds whose social and environmental landscapes reflect ideas about gender race globalisation and urban life In this emerging field of study Murray provides novel theoretical approaches to discussing games and playable media as culture Demonstrating that games are at the frontline of power relations she reimagines how we see them and more importantly how we understand them

Children, Youth and the City Kathrin Horschelmann, Lorraine van Blerk, 2013-06-17 Contrasts experiences of growing up in the city Cities and Sexualities Phil Hubbard, 2013-03 Detailing the relationships between sexed bodies sexual subjectivities and forms of intimacy Cities and Sexualities explores the role of the city in shaping our sexual lives At the same time it describes how the actions of urban governors city planners the police and judiciary combine to produce cities in which some sexual proclivities and tastes are normalized and others excluded In so doing it maps out the diverse sexual landscapes of the city from spaces of courtship coupling and cohabitation through to sites of adult entertainment prostitution and pornography Considering both the normative geographies of heterosexuality and monogamy as well as urban geographies of radical queer sex this book provides a unique perspective on the relationship between sex and the city Cities and Gender Helen Jarvis, Jonathan Cloke, Paula Kantor, 2009-06-02 Men and women experience the city differently in a myriad of ways An analysis of urban and gender studies as co constitutive subjects is long overdue This book is a systematic treatment of urban and gender studies combined It presents both a feminist critique of mainstream urban policy and planning plus a gendered reorientation of key urban social environmental and city regional debates      Cities and Economies Yeong-Hyun Kim, John Rennie Short, 2007-12-12 Cities and Economies explores the complex and subtle connections between cities and economies The rise of the merchant city the development of the industrial city and the creation of the service dominated urban economy are all explored along with economic globalization and its effects on cities in both developed and developing economies This book provides a thorough examination of the role of the city in shaping economic processes and explains the different effects that economies have on cities It provides an invaluable and unrivaled guide to the relationship between urban structure and economic processes as they compare and contrast across the world The authors examine the complex relationships between the city and the economy in historical and global contexts as well as evaluating the role of world cities the economic impacts of megacities and the role of the state in shaping urban economic policies They focus on the ways in which cities have led and at the same time adapted to economic shifts Large cities are viewed as the centres of regional and national economies while a small number are defined by their centrality in the global economy The book examines key ideas and concepts on the economic aspects of urban change explores the changing nature of urban economies and their relationships with changes at the national and global levels compares current economic issues and policies of large cities around the world explores the links between globalization and economic changes in cities and the growing competitions between them Cities and Economies uses case studies photographs and maps expanding across the US Western Europe and Asia Written in a clear and accessible style the book answers some fundamental questions about the economic role of cities It is an essential text for students of geography economics sociology urban studies and urban planning      Cities, Politics & Power Simon Parker, 2010-11-02 Traditionally the study of power in the city was confined to the institutions of urban government and the actors involved in contesting and making political decisions in and for metropolitan societies Increasingly however attention has turned to the function of the city not only as a centre of urban governance but as a major economic social cultural and strategic force in its own right Cities Politics and Power combines this traditional concern with how the cities in which we live are organized and run with a broader focus on cities and urban regions as multiple sites and agents of power This book is divided into five sections with a short introduction outlining the argument and organisation of the text Part two charts the development of the urban polity and considers the ways in which coercion and force continue to be used to segregate oppress and annihilate urban populations Part three critically examines the key collective actors and processes that compete for and organise political power within cities and how urban governance operates and interacts with lesser and greater scales of government and networks of power Part four then explores the ways in which the political is constituted by urban inhabitants and how social identity information and communication networks and the natural and built environment all comprise intersecting fields of urban power The conclusion calls for a broader theoretical and thematic approach to the study of urban politics This book makes extensive use of comparative and historical case studies providing broad coverage of politics and urban movements in both the Global North and the Global South with a particular focus on the UK USA Canada Latin America and China It is written in an accessible and lucid style and provides suggestions for further reading at the end each chapter

Cities and Cultures Malcolm Miles, 2007-04-26 Cities and Cultures is a critical account of the relations between contemporary cities and the cultures they produce and which in turn shape them The book questions received ideas of what constitutes a city's culture through case studies in which different kinds of culture the arts cultural institutions and heritage distinctive ways of life are seen to be differently used in or affected by the development of particular cities The book does not mask the complexity of this but explains it in ways accessible for undergraduates The book begins with introductory chapters on the concepts of a city and a culture the latter in the anthropological sense as well as denoting the arts citing cases from modern literature The book then moves from a critical account of cultural production in a metropolitan setting to the idea that a city too is produced through the characteristic ways of life of its inhabitants The cultural industries are scrutinised for their relation to such cultures as well as to city marketing and attention is given to the European Cities of Culture initiative and to the hybridity of contemporary urban cultures in a period of globalisation and migration In its penultimate chapter the book looks at incidental cultural forms and cultural means to identify formation and in its final chapter examines the permeability of urban cultures and cultural forms Sources are introduced positions clarified and contrasted and notes given for selective further reading Playing on the two meanings of culture Miles takes a unique approach by relating arguments around these meanings to specific cases of urban development today The book includes both critical comment on a range of literatures being a truly interdisciplinary study and the outcome of the author's field research into urban cultures

Cities and Nature Lisa Benton-Short, John Rennie Short, 2013-05-29 Cities and Nature connects environmental processes with social and political actions The book reconnects science and social science to demonstrate how the city is part of the environment and how it is subject to environmental constraints and opportunities This second edition has been extensively revised and updated with in depth examination of theory and critical themes Greater discussion is given to urbanization trends and megacities the post industrial city and global economic changes developing cities and slums urban political ecology the role of the city in climate change and sustainability The book explores the historical relationship between cities and nature contemporary challenges to this relationship and attempts taken to create more sustainable cities The historical context situates urban development and its impact on the environment and in turn the environmental impact on people in cities This provides a foundation from which to understand contemporary issues such as urban political ecology hazards and disasters water quality and supply air pollution and climate change The book then considers sustainability and how it has been informed by different theoretical approaches Issues of environmental justice and the role of gender and race are explored The final chapter examines the ways in which cities are practicing sustainability from light greening efforts such as planting trees to more comprehensive sustainability plans that integrate the multiple dimensions of sustainability The text contains case studies from around the globe with many drawn from cities in the developing world as well as reviews of recent research updated and expanded further reading to highlight relevant films websites and journal articles This book is an asset to students and researchers in geography environmental studies urban studies and planning and sustainability

Cities and the Cultural Economy Thomas A. Hutton, 2015-08-27 The cultural economy forms a leading trajectory of urban development and has emerged as a key facet of globalizing cities Cultural industries include new media digital arts music and film and the design industries and professions as well as allied consumption and spectacle in the city The cultural economy now represents the third largest sector in many metropolitan cities of the West including London Berlin New York San Francisco and Melbourne and is increasingly influential in the development of East Asian cities Tokyo Shanghai Hong Kong and Singapore as well as the mega cities of the Global South e g Mumbai Capetown and S o Paulo Cities and the Cultural Economy provides a critical integration of the burgeoning research and policy literatures in one of the most prominent sub fields of contemporary urban studies Policies for cultural economy are increasingly evident within planning development and place marketing programs requiring large resource commitments but producing on the evidence highly uneven results Accordingly the volume includes a critical review of how the new cultural economy is reshaping urban labour housing and property markets contributing to gentrification and to precarious employment formation as well as to broadly favorable outcomes such as community regeneration and urban vitality The volume acknowledges the important growth dynamics and sustainability of key creative industries Written primarily as a text for upper level undergraduate and Masters students in urban economic and social geography sociology cultural studies and planning this provocative and compelling text will also be of interest to those studying urban land economics architecture landscape architecture and the built environment

Cities and Literature Malcolm Miles, 2018-10-03 This book offers a critical introduction to the relation between cities and literature fiction poetry and literary criticism from the late eighteenth to twenty first centuries It examines examples of writing from Europe North America and post colonial countries juxtaposed with key ideas from urban cultural and critical theories Cities and Literature shows how literature frames real and imagined constructs and experiences of cities Arranged thematically each chapter offers a narrative which introduces a number of key thinkers and writers whose vision illuminates the prevailing idea of the city at the time The themes are extended or challenged by boxed cases of specific texts or images accompanied by short critical commentaries the structure provides readers with a map of the terrain enabling connections across time and place within manageable limits and offers elements of critical discussion to serve a growing number of university courses which involve the intersections of cities and literature This volume offers access to literature from an urban perspective for the social sciences and access to urbanism from a literary viewpoint It is an excellent resource for both undergraduate and postgraduate students in the fields of urban studies and English literature planning cultural and human geographies architecture cultural studies and cultural policy

Cities, Disaster Risk and Adaptation Christine Wamsler, 2014-01-23 Worldwide disasters and climate change pose a serious risk to sustainable urban development resulting in escalating human and economic costs Consequently city authorities and other urban actors face the challenge of integrating risk reduction and adaptation strategies into their work However related knowledge and expertise are still scarce and fragmented Cities Disaster Risk and Adaptation explores ways in which resilient cities can be built and sustainable urban transformations achieved The book provides a comprehensive understanding of urban risk reduction and adaptation planning exploring key theoretical concepts and analysing the complex interrelations between cities disasters and climate change Furthermore it provides an overview of current risk reduction and adaptation approaches taken by both city authorities and city dwellers from diverse contexts in low middle and high income nations Finally the book offers a planning framework for reducing and adapting to risk in urban areas by expanding on pre existing positive actions and addressing current shortfalls in theory and practice The importance of a distributed urban governance system in which institutions and citizens adaptive capacities can support and complement each other is highlighted This book takes a holistic approach it integrates perspectives and practice from risk reduction and climate change adaptation based on a specific urban viewpoint The text is richly supplemented with boxed case studies written by renowned academics and practitioners in the field and test yourself scenarios that integrate theory into practice Each chapter contains learning objectives end of chapter questions suggested further reading and web resources as well as a wealth of tables and figures This book is essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students of geography urban studies and planning architecture environmental studies international development sociology and sustainability studies

Dreams + Disillusions CJ Lim, Luke Angers, 2024-04-25 Dreams Disillusions explores the plethora of ideas and ideologies that have shaped and reshaped cities in profound ways However unlike a conventional title on the history of urbanism and architecture its research fluctuates between the world of concrete reality and the multiple universes that exist in lucid prose poetic visions and the outrageous imaginations of history s greatest and most in famous minds In their thoughts are the foundations for political trends and new civilisations alternative mappings and unlikely phenomena The six chapters reveal dreams that were fundamental to the origin of great cities underpinning the stories of the many lives within and how through circumstance or manipulation fortunate coincidence or planned perfection desires are sometimes left defeated and disillusioned Myth and belief Tradition and logic Revolution and marginalisation Ignorance and hubris Sins and excess Seasons and climate Continuously interacting shifting to enlighten and to enrage these themes combine critical thinking with deep rooted influences and new agencies that are a true sign of the times The 18 illustrated speculations provide an abundance of curious imaginings diverse provocations and satirical criticism While there are distinctions between dreams and disillusions could virtues be made of sins or sensitivity be borne from hubris

Could progress advocate tradition or should we re attempt revolutions formerly experienced as disillusionments Whether by bold gestures or by subtle attrition cities are continually re written crucibles for the human condition In this book we develop a better understanding of the discourse of cities tailored to the determining factors of climate resources and humanity s idiosyncrasies to address a world in crisis
