Visualizing the Past Kathrin Maurer, 2013-03-22 Visual media had a decisive impact on how the past was perceived in historicist culture in nineteenth century Germany The panorama photography and book illustrations can portray the past under the auspices of spatiality Research on historicist culture often neglects this dimension of space and concentrates on traditional historicist paradigms such as temporality narrative and teleology By investigating the visual vocabulary of different historicist genres academic historiography illustrated history books historical maps this volume expands an understanding of German historicist culture as a multi medial phenomenon and shows that past is conveyed in spatial forms such as travel locations national and colonial spaces as well as geographical areas Tracing these concepts of historical space this volume demonstrates that the image works as a powerful tool to propagate the ideology of German imperialism in the nineteenth century but also can critically reflect the political agendas of national historicism

Mountain Man James Forrest, 2019-05-02 Nicknamed Mountain Man by the Sunday Telegraph James Forrest is the record breaking adventurer who climbed every mountain in England and Wales in just six months the fastest ever time Solo and unsupported he walked over 1 000 miles and ascended five times the height of Everest during his 446 peak challenge And he did it all on his days off from work proving it is possible to integrate an epic adventure into your everyday life From collapsing tents and horrific storms to near fatal mountaineering mishaps James endured his fair share of hardship out in the hills But the good times far outweighed the bad He slept wild under the stars met eccentric locals and exchanged the 21st century social media bubble for a simpler more peaceful existence What did he learn along the way That life is more fulfilling when you switch off your phone and climb a mountain Readers will be inspired and motivated by James s amazing adventure and so the book concludes with a section on how YOU can achieve your next adventure whether it s something to get the kids involved in at half term a fun challenge to tackle solo or with friends or like James s a record breaking attempt of epic proportions James will guide you through everything you need to do to plan and execute your adventure as well as give you some great ideas too
