postmodernist writers this essay collection adopts a more diachronic approach. It offers fairy tale scholars and students a series of theoretical and literary historical expositions as well as case studies on English French German Swedish Danish and Romanian texts from the seventeenth to the twenty-first century by authors as diverse as Marie Catherine d'Aulnoy Rikki Ducornet Hans Christian Andersen and Robert Coover.

Fairy-Tale Revivals in the Long Nineteenth Century Abigail Heiniger, 2023-09-12 This collection opens with marginalized responses to the highly politicized Cinderella traditions in the Anglophone world. In the United States Cinderella was incorporated into the gendered narrative of the American Dream and narratives of empire in the colonial world particularly in the mid 1800s. Marginalized writers have responded to these nationalistic colonial traditions in two distinctive ways: clever Cinderellas who negotiate a broken system or passive Cinderellas who die as anti-heroes in disenchanting fairy tales. This dual tradition of marginalized Cinderellas is also apparent across the Anglophone world. Potential texts include the out-of-print works of Sin ad de Valera excerpts from the novels of Hannah Crafts Jessie Fauset and Julia Kavanagh along with dramas by Ann Devlin and collected oral tales.
