Hidden Chicano Cinema A. Gabriel Meléndez, 2013-08-19 Hidden Chicano Cinema examines how New Mexico situated within the boundaries of the United States became a stand in for the exotic non western world that tourists artists scientists and others sought to possess at the dawn of early filmmaking a disposition stretching from the silent era to today as filmmakers screen their fantasies of what they wished the Southwest Borderlands to be The book highlights film moments in this region's history including the filmic turn ushered in by Chicano filmmakers who created new ways to represent their community and region A Gabriel Mel ndez narrates the drama intrigue and politics of these moments and accounts for the specific cinematic practices and the sociocultural detail that explains how the camera itself brought filmmakers and their subjects to unexpected encounters on and off the screen Such films as Adventures in Kit Carson Land The Rattlesnake and Red Sky at Morning among others provide examples of movies that have both educated and misinformed us about a place that remains a distant locale in the mind of most film audiences

Literary Adaptations in Spanish Cinema

Sally Faulkner,2004 In this survey of the history of Spanish cinema in the Spanish dictatorship and democratic periods the author argues that studies of adaptations must simultaneously address questions of text formal issues central to the study of film and literature and context crucial ideological concerns

Contemporary Spanish cinema and genre

Jay Beck,Vicente Rodríguez Ortega,2021-06-15 This volume is the first English language collection exclusively dedicated to the study of genre in relation to Spanish cinema Providing a variety of critical perspectives the collection gives the reader a thorough account of the relationship between Spanish cinema and genre drawing on case studies of several of the most remarkable Spanish films in recent years The book analyses the significant changes in the aesthetics production and reception of Spanish film from 1990 onwards It brings together European and North American scholars to establish a critical dialogue on the topics under discussion while providing multiple perspectives on the concepts of national cinemas and genre theory In recent years film scholarship has attempted to negotiate the tension between the nationally specific and the internationally ubiquitous discussing how globalisation has influenced film making and surrounding cultural practice These broader social concerns have prompted scholars to emphasise a redefinition of national cinemas beyond strict national boundaries and to pay attention to the transnational character of any national site of film production and reception This collection provides a thorough investigation of contemporary Spanish cinema within a transnational framework by positing cinematic genres as the meeting spaces between a variety of diverse forces that necessarily operate within but also across territorial spaces Paying close attention to the specifics of the Spanish cinematic and social panorama the essays investigate the transnational economic cultural and aesthetic forces at play in shaping Spanish film genres today
