Mario Bava Leon Hunt, 2022-02-24 How do we approach a figure like Mario Bava a once obscure figure promoted to cult status This book takes a new look at Italy s maestro of horror but also uses his films to address a broader set of concerns What issues do his films raise for film authorship given that several of them were released in different versions and his contributions to others were not always credited How might he be understood in relation to genre one of which he is sometimes credited with having pioneered This volume addresses these questions through a thorough analysis of Bava s shifting reputation as a stylist and genre pioneer and also discusses the formal and narrative properties of a filmography marked by an emphasis on spectacle and atmosphere over narrative coherence and the ways in which his lauded cinematic style intersects with different production contexts Featuring new analysis of cult classics like Kill Baby Kill 1966 and Five Dolls for an August Moon 1970 Mario Bava The Artisan as Italian Horror Auteur sheds light on a body of films that were designed to be ephemeral but continue to fascinate us today

The Cinema of Francesco Rosi Gaetana Marrone, 2020-10-16 Francesco Rosi is one of the great realist artists of post war Italian indeed post war world cinema In this book author Gaetana Marrone explores the rich visual language in which the Neapolitan filmmaker expresses the cultural icons that constitute his style and images Over the years Rosi has offered us films that trace an intricate path between the real and the fictive the factual and the imagined His films show an extraordinarily consistent formal balance while representing historical events as social emblems that examine shape and reflect the national self They rely on a labyrinthine narrative structure in which the sense of an enigma replaces the unidirectional path leading ineluctably to a designated end and solution Rosi s logical investigations are conducted by an omniscient eye and translated into a cinematic approach that embraces the details of material reality with the panoramic perspective of a dispassionate observer This book offers intertextual analyses within such fields as history politics literature and photography along with production information gleaned from Rosi's personal archives and interviews It examines Rosi's creative use of film as document and as spectacle It is also a study of the specific cinematic techniques that characterize Rosi's work and that visually compositionally express his vision of history and the elusive truth of past and present social and political realities Focus On: 100 Most Popular Deaths
