Cinematic Body Theory Out Of Bounds:

The Cinematic Body Steven Shaviro,1993 In The Cinematic Body Steven Shaviro proposes a radical new approach to film viewing Moving between Jerry Lewis and Andy Warhol between Fassbinder u2019 s gay sex icons and George Romero u2019 s flesh eating zombies The Cinematic Body cuts across disciplinary boundaries and seeks to engage new currents in critical thought

The Cinematic Body Steven Shaviro,1994 A radical approach to film viewing The Philosophical Baroque Erik S. Roraback,2017-04-18 In his pioneering study The Philosophical Baroque On Autopoietic Modernities Erik S Roraback argues that modern culture contemplated over its four century history resembles nothing so much as the pearl famously described by periodizers of old as irregular barroco Reframing modernity as a multi century baroque Roraback steeps texts by Shakespeare Henry James Joyce and Pynchon in systems theory and the ideas of philosophers of language and culture from Leibniz to such dynamic contemporaries as Luhmann Benjamin Blanchot Deleuze and Guattari Lacan and i ek The resulting brew high in intellectual caffeine will be of value to all who take an interest in cultural modernity indeed all who recognize that modernity was and remains a congeries of competing aesthetic economic historical ideological philosophical and political energies

Wells Meets Deleuze Michael Starr,2017-05-21 The writings of H G Wells have had a profound influence on literary and cinematic depictions of the present and the possible future and modern science fiction continues to be indebted to his scientific romances such as The Time Machine The War of the Worlds and The Island of Doctor Moreau Interpreted and adapted for more than a century Wells s texts have resisted easy categorization and are perennial subjects for emerging critical and theoretical perspectives The author examines Wells s works through the post structuralist philosophy of Gilles Deleuze Via this critical perspective concepts now synonymous with science fiction such as time travel alien invasion and transhumanism demonstrate the intrinsic relevance of Wells to the genre and contemporary thought

Vocal Apparitions Michal Grover-Friedlander,2005-02-27 Cinema and opera have become intertwined in a variety of powerful and unusual ways Vocal Apparitions tells the story of this fascinating intersection interprets how it occurred and explores what happens when opera is projected onto the medium of film Michal Grover Friedlander finds striking affinities between film and opera from Lon Chaney s classic silent film The Phantom of the Opera to the Marx Brothers A Night at the Opera to Fellini s E la nave va One of the guiding questions of this book is what occurs when what is aesthetically essential about one medium is transposed into the aesthetic field of the other For example Grover Friedlander s comparison of an opera by Poulenc and a Rossellini film both based on Cocteau s play The Human Voice shows the relation of the vocal and the visual to be surprisingly affected by the choice of the medium Her analysis of the Marx Brothers A Night at the Opera demonstrates how as a response to opera s infatuation with death cinema comically acts out a correction of opera s fate Grover Friedlander argues that filmed operas such as Zeffirelli s Otello and Friedrich s Falstaff show the impossibility of a direct transformation of the operatic into the cinematic Paradoxically cinema at times can be more operatic than opera itself

thus capturing something essential that escapes opera's self understanding A remarkable look at how cinema has been haunted and transformed by opera Vocal Apparitions reveals something original and important about each medium Art vs. TV Francesco Spampinato, 2021-12-02 While highlighting the prevailing role of television in Western societies Art vs TV maps and condenses a comprehensive history of the relationships of art and television With a particular focus on the link between reality and representation Francesco Spampinato analyzes video art works installations performances interventions and television programs made by contemporary artists as forms of resistance to and appropriation and parody of mainstream television The artists discussed belong to different generations those that emerged in the 1960s in association with art movements such as Pop Art Fluxus and Happening and those appearing on the scene in the 1980s whose work aimed at deconstructing media representation in line with postmodernist theories to those arriving in the 2000s an era in which through reality shows and the Internet anybody could potentially become a media personality and finally those active in the 2010s whose work reflects on how old media like television has definitively vaporized through the electronic highways of cyberspace These works and phenomena elicit a tension between art and television exposing an incongruence an impossibility not only to converge but at the very least to open up a dialogical exchange Willful Monstrosity Natalie Wilson, 2020-01-17 Taking in a wide range of film television and literature this volume explores 21st century horror and its monsters from an intersectional perspective with a marked emphasis on gender and race The analysis which covers over 70 narratives is organized around four primary monstrous figures zombies vampires witches and monstrous women Arguing that the current horror renaissance is populated with willful monsters that subvert prevailing cultural norms and systems of power the discussion reads horror in relation to topics of particular import in the contemporary moment rampant sexual violence unbridled capitalist greed brutality against people of color militarism and the patriarchy's refusal to die Examining ground breaking films and television shows such as Get Out Us The Babadook A Quiet Place Stranger Things Penny Dreadful and The Passage as well as works by key authors like Justin Cronin Carmen Maria Machado Helen Oyeyemi Margo Lanagan and Jeanette Winterson this monograph offers a thorough account of the horror landscape and what it says about the 21st century world The Monster Always Returns Christian Knöppler, 2017-02-15 The monsters of the horror genre never remain dead they invariably return in new and terrifying shapes for another installment In this study Christian Knöppler explores the phenomenon of horror film remakes He argues that even though these derivative films typically earn little praise from critics their constant refiguration of monsters and horror scenarios serves to access and update otherwise obscure cultural fears With an in depth examination of six sample sequences of films and remakes this book aims to shed new light on a much maligned and often neglected type of film and promises fresh insights to scholars and aficionados alike

Disciplining Germany Jaimey Fisher, 2007-06-20 A look at how the discussions debates and controversies in Germany about youth and reeducation after World War II helped Germans come to terms with their Nazi past negotiate Allied occupation and construct postwar German identity During Hitler's reign the Nazis deliberately developed and exploited a youthful image and used youth to define their political and social hierarchies After the war with Hitler gone but still requiring cultural exorcism many intellectuals authors and filmmakers turned to these images of youth to navigate and negotiate the most difficult questions of Germany's recent nefarious past Focusing on youth education and crime allowed postwar Germans to claim one last realm of sovereignty against the Allies' own emphatic project of reeducation Youth reeducation and reconstruction became important sites for the occupied to confront not only the recent past but to negotiate the present occupation and ultimately direct the future of the German nation Disciplining Germany analyzes a variety of media including literature news media intellectual history and films in order to argue that youth and education played a central role in Germany's coming to terms with the Nazi past Although there has been a recently renewed interest in Germany's coming to terms with the past this attention has largely ignored the role of youth and reeducation This lacuna is particularly perplexing given that the Allies' reeducation project became in many ways a cipher for the occupational project as a whole Disciplining Germany opens up the discussion and points toward more general conclusions not only about youth and education as sites for wider socio-political and cultural debates but also about the complexities of occupation and the intertwining of different national cultures In this investigation the study attends to both high and low cultural text to specialized versus popular texts to examine how youth was mobilized across the generic spectrum With these interdisciplinary approaches and timely interventions Disciplining Germany will find a diverse readership including upper division and graduate courses in German studies and German history as well as those general readers interested in Nazi Germany cultural history film and literary studies youth culture American studies and post-conflict and occupational situations

Signs of Danger Peter C. Van Wyck, A rising ocean A falling building A toxic river Species extinguished A nuclear landscape In a world so configured the state of contemporary ecological thought and practice is woefully and perilously inadequate Focusing on the government's nuclear waste burial program in Carlsbad New Mexico Signs of Danger begins the urgent work of finding a new way of thinking about ecological threat in our time The Waste Isolation Pilot Plant in Carlsbad began receiving shipments in 1999 With a proposed closing date of 2030 this repository for nuclear waste must be secured with a sign the purpose of which will be to keep people away for three hundred generations In the official documents uncovered by Peter van Wyck we encounter a government bureaucracy approaching the issue of nuclear waste as a technical problem only to find itself confronting a host of intractable philosophical issues concerning language culture and history Signs of Danger plumbs these depths as it shows us how the problem raised in the desert of New Mexico is actually the problem of a culture grappling with ecological threats and with questions of the limits of meaning and representation in the deep future The reflections at the center of this book on memory trauma disaster representation and the virtual are aimed at defining the uniquely modern status of environmental and nuclear threats They offer invaluable insights into the interface of where culture ends and nature begins and how such a juncture is closely linked with questions of risk concepts of history and the cultural experience of time

Ethics of Cinematic Experience Orna Raviv, 2019-10-16 Ethics of Cinematic Experience Screens of Alterity deals with the relationship between cinema and ethics from a philosophical perspective finding an intrinsic connection between film spectatorship and the possibility of being open to different modes of alterity The book s main thesis is that openness to otherness is already found in the basic structures of cinematic experience Through a close examination of the ethical relevance of the philosophy of Maurice Merleau Ponty Stanley Cavell Emmanuel Levinas and Gilles Deleuze to cinema studies Ethics of Cinematic Experience Screens of Alterity pursues the question of how film can open the viewer to what is not her and so bring her to encounter otherness in a way that is unique to cinematic experience The book sees ethics as not just the subject content or story of a film but part of its aesthetic structure Accompanied by readings of films mainly from mainstream cinema each chapter focuses on a different aspect of the encounter with alterity through cinema The book gives particular attention to how theoretical discussion of the cinematic close up can lead to ethical insights into the status of both the human and the non human in film and thus lead to an understanding of the relationships the viewer makes with them The book is a helpful resource for students and scholars interested in the relationship between philosophy film and ethics and is appropriate for students of philosophy and media and cultural studies
