DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. (LO 1) You should ask questions that will enable you to assess both tax and nontax factors that will affect the entity choice. Some relevant questions are addressed in the following table, although there are many additional possibilities.

Question	Reason for the Question
What type of business are you going to operate?	This question will provide information that may affect the need for limited liability, ability to raise capital, ease of transferring interests in the business, how long the business will continue, and how the business will be managed.
What amount and type of income (loss) do you expect from the business?	Income from a business will eventually be reported on the tax returns of the owners.
