

The background of the cover is a close-up photograph of a person's hand holding a large quantity of dark, roasted coffee beans. The lighting is warm, highlighting the texture of the beans and the skin of the hand. Overlaid on this image is a complex network of thin, light-colored lines and circles, resembling a technical drawing or a molecular structure. These lines connect various points across the frame, some forming closed loops and others extending outwards. The overall composition suggests a connection between the natural world (coffee) and the technical world (graphic design and printing).
