The Changing Face of Motherhood in Spain Catherine Bourland Ross, 2015-12-24 This book investigates the perceptions of motherhood in Spanish author Lucía Etxebarria's fiction and offers views of the importance of motherhood in society. Traditional expectations for women as mothers persist despite the fact that they no longer match Spain's cultural and economic reality. These issues of gender equality and societal perceptions stand out in the novels and screenplays of Etxebarria. Her work at times resists and at times affirms patriarchal constructs associated with traditional Spanish motherhood and ultimately I argue enacts the very complexity of contemporary Spanish motherhood ideals. By showing the tension between the past constructs of the mother and the possible future outcomes of gender equality Etxebarria's works navigate the complexity between past and future illuminating the current and future uncertainties and the ambivalent nature of change. Each chapter views motherhood from a different perspective and focuses on particular works of Etxebarria. Through the depiction of a variety of mother characters these different perspectives as showcased in Etxebarria's narratives together compose an understanding of Spanish maternal identity.

Refiguring Motherhood Beyond Biology Valerie Renegar, Kirsti Cole, 2023-01-31 This book unpacks and interrogates dominant constructions of mothering making use of interdisciplinary ideological and theoretical perspectives to investigate how new rhetorics of mothering can expand the realm of maternal care givers beyond the biological definitions of motherhood. This diverse collection is at the cutting edge of rhetoric feminism and motherhood studies and the chapters challenge the confines of biological parenting as heteronormative within the neo liberal nuclear family. The contributors examine how despite the diversity of parental relationships many are excluded by the understanding of mothers biologically tied to their children. The volume seeks to expose the underpinnings of biological primacy and argues that 21st century families and familial circumstances are ill served by biological ideology. Topics include Re Imagining Queer Black Motherhood Chicana Feminist approaches to reproductive justice the commercialization and medicalization of infertility and ableism and motherhood. This is a unique and fascinating book suitable for students and scholars in gender studies sexuality studies communication studies sociology and cultural studies.

Performing Parenthood Heather Jerónimo, 2024-07-05 Performing Parenthood reveals different enactments of motherhood and fatherhood in twentieth and twenty first century Spain showing how the family has adapted or at times failed to do so within the context of Spain's changing socioeconomic reality. Through an examination of examples of non normative parenthood in contemporary Spanish literature and film including gay literary father figures subversive physical touch between mother and child fathers who cross dress lesbian maternal community building non biological parenting and disabled bodies the book argues that current conceptualizations of parenthood should be amplified to reflect the various existing identities and performances of motherhoods and fatherhoods. Connecting canonical works to recent works the book establishes a unique dialogue that will expand the conversation about the Spanish family beyond the traditional view bringing visibility to alternative family models It argues that parental identities exist on a spectrum enabling many parental figures to disregard heteronormative standards imposed upon the role and allowing them to experience parenthood in meaningful ways Bringing visibility to literary and cinematic examples of alternative Spanish families Performing Parenthood provides a glimpse into an evolving society influenced by national and global changes
