Greenhill, 2010-03-18 Greenhill offers the first systematic examination of forced migration as an important but largely unrecognized instrument of state influence She shows both how often this unorthodox brand of coercion has been attempted and how successful it has been The Burning Blue Kevin Cook, 2021-06-08 Winner of the American Astronautical Society's 2021 Eugene M Emme Award The untold story of a national trauma NASA's Challenger explosion and what really happened to America's Teacher in Space illuminating the tragic cost of humanity setting its sight on the stars You've seen the pictures You know what happened Or do you On January 28 1986 NASA's space shuttle Challenger exploded after blasting off from Cape Canaveral Christa McAuliffe America's Teacher in Space was instantly killed along with the other six members of the mission At least that's what most of us remember Kevin Cook tells us what really happened on that ill fated unforgettable day He traces the pressures leading from NASA to the White House that triggered the fatal order to launch on an ice cold Florida morning Cook takes readers inside the shuttle for the agonizing minutes after the explosion which the astronauts did indeed survive He uncovers the errors and corner cutting that led an overconfident space agency to launch a crew that had no chance to escape But this is more than a corrective to a now dimming memory Centering on McAuliffe a charmingly down to earth civilian on the cusp of history The Burning Blue animates a colorful cast of characters a pair of red hot flyers at the shuttle s controls the second female and first Jewish astronaut the second Black astronaut and the first Asian American and Buddhist in space Drawing vivid portraits of Christa and the astronauts Cook makes readers forget the fate they re hurtling toward With drama immediacy and shocking surprises he reveals the human price the Challenger crew and America paid for politics capital P Progress and the national dream of reaching for the stars Canadian Warbirds - Jets and Helicopters Harold Skaarup,2001-05-29 This aviation handbook is intended to provide the reader with a quick reference to the major types of military jet aircraft and helicopters flown by the Royal Canadian Air Force the Royal Canadian Navy the Canadian Army and the Canadian Forces in the post war jet age The handbooks in this series include a general description and a photograph from the Canadian Forces Archives of at least one of the key variants or marks of each aircraft that has been in Canadian military service Each aircraft is listed alphabetically by manufacturer number and type General details describing the aircrafts engines service ceiling speed armament or weapons load are included along with a brief description of the Canadian squadron which flew the aircraft This is the sixth volume in this series It describes the jet fighters bombers trainers and transports as well as the helicopters flown by Canadians in the post WWII jet age A list of museums private aircraft collections and other locations where a number of the survivors might be found is also included The handbook is not a definitive list of all Canadian manufactured or operated aircraft but should serve as a quick reminder for anyone with an interest in Canadian military aviation Classified Index of Dispositions of ULP Charges by the General Counsel of the National Labor Relations Board United States. Skaarup,2001-11-29 The purpose of this handbook is to provide aviation enthusiasts with a simple checklist on where to find the surviving retired military aircraft that are preserved in Canada The majority of the Canadian Warbird Survivors are on display within a great number of well maintained aviation museums many others are displayed as gate guards near or in a number of Canadian Forces Bases and a good number are in the hands of private collectors Many are not listed in any catalogue but have been found by word of mouth or personal observation The museum staffs and volunteer organizations throughout Canada have done a particularly good job of preserving the great variety of Canadian military aircraft illustrated here Hopefully as more aircraft are recovered from their crash sites in the bush and restored traded or brought back from private owners they too will be added to the record The book lists the aircraft alphabetically by manufacturer number and type This list is also appended with a brief summary of the aircraft presently on display within the nation and a bit of its history within the Canadian Forces Canadian Warbirds books are available through the iUniverse com or the Amazon com online bookstores
