Ensuring Inclusion for People with Intellectual Disability

INCLUSION IN EMPLOYMENT

People with intellectual disability have the right to work but struggle to find jobs because of stigma and discrimination. Training Workshops Unlimited is a specialized training programme that trains people with different abilities in life skills and work skills.

People with intellectual disability deserve fair treatment and a chance to live happy and purposeful lives. Cape Mental Health calls for the inclusion of persons with intellectual disability and a fundamental mind shift so that they can enjoy equitable access to community life and resources, education, employment, and mental health services."

Access to information in an Easy-to-Read format is also vital to people who struggle to read and facilitates the right to understand information that is important to them.

'Once you remove the 'dis' in disability,
'ability' becomes the focus.'
