The Pastor's Note John L. Spurgeon, 2017-03-06 Throughout the gospel we find how Christ used parables to describe our personal relationship with God He took the tangible things of life as example to illustrate a spiritual life in Christ The devotional before you has one hundred devotions many based on parables of my life and stories I recall Why one hundred One hundred represents fullness and a completion as well as principle of return My first hope is that your reading this will not only help you to recognize that everything is spiritual but also give you an opportunity to know and experience more of Gods presence Second my hope is that completing this devotion wont mark an end or accomplishment but that you will be spiritually primed to pursue greater depths in an intimate relationship with our Savior And last with the principle of return I pray that you will continue to grow and be further profitable to Gods kingdom and purpose taking what God gives in abundance and pouring it over into the lives of others Do One Thing Geraint Evans, 2021-01-19 This text is designed to get you started so you can begin to feel you are getting closer to being the person you want to be and living the life you want to live We all feel stuck sometimes This can be a combination of many factors that at best are delaying you or at worst are blocking you from getting to your desired destination We ll work together to figure out practical strategies for addressing ruts in your daily routine stress a lack of communication or not knowing where to turn for inspiration
