impact on EAP research and practice but would enable practitioners and researchers to understand educational contexts texts structures culture s knowledge production and producers and social agents with greater sociological clarity and sophistication Topics covered include social realism legitimation code theory critical realism ethnography feminism and Bourdieusian concepts for EAP The overarching aim of this volume is to position social theory much more centrally to frameworks and conceptions of the unstable and contested knowledge base for EAP practitioners and to promote a sociological imagination among and for EAP practitioners Theory and Method in Higher Education Research Malcolm Tight, Jeroen Huisman, 2013-10-15 Theory and Method in Higher Education Research contains contemporary contributions to international debates regarding the application and development of theory and methodology in researching higher education Contemporary Language Motivation Theory Ali H. Al-Hoorie, Peter D. MacIntyre, 2019-11-18 This book brings together contributions from the leaders of the language learning motivation field The varied chapters demonstrate how Gardner's work remains integral to a diverse range of contemporary theoretical issues underlying the psychology of language even today 60 years after the publication of Gardner and Lambert's seminal 1959 paper The chapters cover a wide selection of topics related to applied linguistics second language acquisition social psychology sociology methodology and historical issues The book advances thinking on cutting edge topics in these diverse areas providing a wealth of information for both students and established scholars that show the continuing and future importance of Gardner and Lambert's ideas

Expanding Curriculum Theory William M. Reynolds, Julie A. Webber, 2016-04-28 Expanding Curriculum Theory Second Edition carries through the major focus of the original volume to reflect on the influence of Deleuze and Guattari's concept of lines of flight and its application to curriculum theorizing What is different is that the lines of flight have since shifted and produced expanded understandings of this concept for curriculum theory and for education in general This edition reflects the impact of events that have contributed to this shift in particular the il logic of school policy changes and reforms in the past decade and the continued explosion of social media and its effect on the collective understanding of how both knowledge and education work as forms of repression The introduction updates the text and puts it into current debates in the field and in the larger socio economic milieu New dis positions are presented that explore central questions circulating within and outside curriculum studies Exciting scholarship on a range of topics includes notions of desire and commodities youth culture and violence new directions in curriculum theory Eco Ethical consciousness new Deleuzian views of normality the diffusion of technology and lines of flight in transnational curriculum inquiry Language Teacher Motivation, Autonomy and Development in East Asia Yuzo Kimura, Luxin Yang, Tae-Young Kim, Yoshiyuki Nakata, 2022-05-16 This volume highlights unique features of L2 teachers motivation autonomy and career development in Far East counties including Japan South Korea and China using diverse methodological research approaches incorporating both quantitative and qualitative paradigms While much of current research focuses on students psychology this volume looks into EFL teachers motivation and autonomy Both discussions of theoretical issues of teacher motivation and autonomy and practical classroom based investigations are included and written to appeal to researchers as well as applied teacher audiences. The theoretical chapters give readers a solid grounding in the issues of interest to the field. The practical chapters offer cutting edge insights and can also serve as templates on which postgraduate and postdoctoral researchers can base future studies. This helps the book to offer a dual service to the research community addressing both issues of theorization of research and the practice of conducting research investigations.
