community in the 21st century Eli Talmor Professor London Business School      Video Games as Art Frank G.

Bosman, Archibald L.H.M. van Wieringen, 2022-11-07 Video games are a relative late arrival on the cultural stage While the academic discipline of game studies has evolved quickly since the nineties of the last century the academia is only beginning to grasp the intellectual philosophical aesthetical and existential potency of the new medium The same applies to the question whether video games are or are not art in and on themselves Based on the Communication Oriented Analysis the authors assess the plausibility of games as art and define the domains associated with this question      Dealstorming Tim Sanders, 2016-02-23 Sales genius is a team sport As a B2B sales leader you know that by Murphy's Law despite your team's best efforts some deals will inevitably get stuck or key relationships will go sour And too often it's the most important ones the last thing you need when millions of dollars are on the line Dealstorming is Tim Sanders's term for a structured scalable repeatable process that can break through any sales deadlock He calls it a Swiss Army knife for today's toughest sales challenges It fixes the broken parts of the brainstorming process and reinvigorates account management for today's increasingly complicated sales environment Dealstorming drives sales innovation by combining the wisdom and creativity of everyone who has a stake in the sale You may think you are applying teamwork to your challenges but don't be so sure There's a good chance you're operating inside a sales silo not building a truly collaborative team across your whole company The more disciplines you bring into the process the more unlikely but effective solutions the team can come up with Sanders explains his seven step Dealstorming process and shows how it has helped drive results for companies as diverse as Yahoo CareerBuilder Regus and Cond Nast You'll learn how to get the right team on board for a new dealstorm relative to the size of the sales opportunity and its degree of difficulty The key is adding people from non sales areas of your company making them collaborators early in the process That will help them own the execution and delivery after the deal is done The book includes real world examples from major companies like Oracle and Skillsoft along with problem finding exercises innovation templates and implementation strategies you can apply to your unique situation It's based on Sanders many years as a sales executive and consultant personally leading dozens of sales collaboration projects It also features the results of interviews with nearly two hundred B2B sales leaders at companies such as LinkedIn Altera and Novell The strategies laid out in Dealstorming have led to a stunning 70% average closing ratio for teams across all major industries leading to game changing deals and long term B2B relationships Now you can learn how to make dealstorming work for you      Living in Digital Worlds Naomi Jacobs, Rachel Cooper, 2018-01-29 Living in Digital Worlds investigates the relationship between human society and technology as our private and particularly our public lives are increasingly undertaken in spaces that are inherently digital digital public spaces The book unpicks why digital technology is such an inextricable part of modern society first by examining the historical relationship between technological development and the early progression of human sociality This is then followed by an examination of the ways in which modern life is currently being impacted by the expansion of digital information and devices into multiple aspects of our lives including focuses on privacy bias and ownership in digital spaces Finally it explores potential future developments and their implications and proposes that it is crucial to consider the design of technology and systems in order to support a positive and beneficial direction of change Each chapter includes case studies primarily drawn from The Creative Exchange a fiveyear programme which ran from 2012 to 2016 to explore the notion of the digital public space through collaborative cross sector research

Human History on Drugs Sam Kelly, 2025-07-08 A lively hilarious and entirely truthful look at the druggie side of history s most famous figures including Shakespeare Queen Victoria and the Beatles from debut author and viral historical TikToker with nearly 100K followers Sam Kelly Did you know that Alexander the Great was a sloppy drunk William Shakespeare was a stoner and George Washington drank a spoonful of opium every night to staunch the pain from his fake teeth Or how about the fact that China s first emperor Qin Shi Huangdi ingested liquid mercury in an ironic attempt to live forever or that Alexander Shulgin inventor of no less than 230 new psychedelic drugs was an employee of the DEA In Human History on Drugs historian Sam Kelly introduces us to the history we weren t taught in school offering up irreverent and hysterical commentary as he sheds light on some truly shocking aspects of the historical characters we only thought we knew With chapters spanning from Ancient Greece The Oracle of Delphi Was Huffing Fumes and the Victorian Era Vincent van Gogh Ate Yellow Paint to Hollywood s Golden Age Judy Garland Was Drugged by Grown Ups and modern times Carl Sagan Got Astronomically High Kelly s research spans all manner of eras places and of course drugs History is rife with drug use and drug users and Human History on Drugs takes us through those highs pun intended and lows on a wittily entertaining ride that uncovers their seriously unexpected impact on our past
