Complete Short Stories Penguin Classics:

Complete Short Fiction Oscar Wilde, 2003-04-29 The complete short stories of the masterful Irish writer Fairy tales ghost stories detective fiction and comedies of manners the stories collected in this volume made Oscar Wilde's name as a writer of fiction showing breathtaking dexterity in a wide range of literary styles Victorian moral justice is comically inverted in Lord Arthur Savile's Crime and The Canterville Ghost and society's materialism comes under sharp humorous criticism in The Model Millionaire while The Happy Prince and The Nightingale and the Rose are hauntingly melancholic in their magical evocations of selfless love These small masterpieces convey the brilliance of Wilde's vision exploring complex moral issues through an elegant juxtaposition of wit and sentiment For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators

The Short Story Andrew Kahn, 2021 Drawing on examples from across the globe and throughout history Andrew Kahn explores the key characteristics of the short story He shows how its rise was intertwined with international print culture and discusses the essential techniques within this thriving literary genre as well as the ways in which it is constantly innovated even today

Selected Short Stories David Herbert Lawrence, 2000 This selection of short stories not only offers a representative and wide ranging selection of Lawrence's work but also traces a pattern of development in the author's career

Collected Short Stories Graham Greene, 1986 Affairs obsessions ardours fantasy myth legend and dream fear pity and violence this magnificent collection of stories illuminates all corners of the human experience Previously published in three volumes May We Borrow Your Husband A Sense of Reality and Twenty One Stories these thirty seven stories reveal Graham Greene in a range of contrasting moods sometimes cynical and witty sometimes searching and philosophical Each one confirms V S Pritchett's statement that Greene is a master of storytelling

Penguin Classics Penguin (Firm), 2005

Overnight Dan Richards, 2025-03-27 There is something special about the night

For many just the idea of it conjures thoughts of starlit skies romance of being tucked up in bed For others the night means fear vulnerability and sleeplessness At night things go bump owls take wing and foxes prowl Overnight is a celebration of all things nocturnal a hymn to nighttime wildlife travel dreams and art Along the way Dan Richards meets a fascinating array of people who labour while the rest of us sleep and brings their work into the light From night terrors to the glow of watching the dawn break on the summer solstice Overnight will change the way you think about the hours after dark The Complete Short Stories David Herbert Lawrence,1982

Dynamic Form Cara L. Lewis,2020-07-15 Dynamic Form traces how intermedial experiments shape modernist texts from 1900 to 1950 Considering literature alongside painting sculpture photography and film Cara Lewis examines how these arts inflect narrative movement contribute to plot events and configure poetry and memoir As forms and formal theories cross from one artistic realm to another and back again modernism shows its obsession with form and even at times becomes a formalism itself but as Lewis writes that form is far more dynamic than we have given it credit for Form fulfills such various functions that we cannot characterize it as a mere container for content or matter nor can we consign it to ignominy opposite historicism or political commitment As a structure or scheme that enables action form in modernism can be plastic protean or even fragile and works by Henry James Virginia Woolf Mina Loy Evelyn Waugh and Gertrude Stein demonstrate the range of form s operations Revising three major formal paradigms spatial form pure form and formlessness and recasting the history of modernist form this book proposes an understanding of form as a verbal category as a kind of doing Dynamic Form thus opens new possibilities for conversation between modernist studies and formalist studies and simultaneously promotes a capacious rethinking of the convergence between literary modernism and creative work in other media

Conservative Belief and the Imagination in Kipling's Fiction Mark Paffard,2023-10-09 This book explores the tension between the conservatism and the imaginative process across the entirety of Rudyard Kipling s fiction It shows how Kipling the conservative thinker explores problematic aspects of Empire and the English class system both because it is unavoidable and because his art requires it This tension is evident in the Indian and Imperial Kipling and in his later English stories Situating Kipling s fiction within changing social and political contexts Mark Paffard shows the anxieties Kipling as a conservative responds to in the early Indian stories to be very different from those caused by the economic and technological upheaval of the Belle Epoque and those arising from the First World War Paffard reveals how Kipling s development as a writer is shaped by his need to respond differently to a changing world imperialist ideology and conservatism dictate the stories that he sets out to write and his imagination and sympathy

shape the stories that are finally written A Secret Sisterhood Emily Midorikawa, Emma Claire Sweeney, 2017-10-17 Two female writers and best friends bring to light the literary friendships of four iconic female authors Male literary friendships are the stuff of legend think Byron and Shelley Fitzgerald and Hemingway But the world's best loved female authors are usually mythologized as solitary eccentrics or isolated geniuses Coauthors and real life friends Emily Midorikawa and Emma Claire Sweeney prove this wrong thanks to their discovery of a wealth of surprising collaborations the friendship between Jane Austen and one of the family servants playwright Anne Sharp the daring feminist author Mary Taylor who shaped the work of Charlotte Brontë the transatlantic friendship of the seemingly aloof George Eliot and Harriet Beecher Stowe and Virginia Woolf and Katherine Mansfield most often portrayed as bitter foes but who in fact enjoyed a complex friendship fired by an underlying erotic charge Through letters and diaries that have never been published before A Secret Sisterhood resurrects these forgotten stories of female friendships They were sometimes scandalous and volatile sometimes supportive and inspiring but always until now tantalizingly consigned to the shadows With a foreword by Margaret Atwood A thought provoking meditation on literary friendship as well as engagingly intimate glimpses of four of the world's finest writers San Francisco Chronicle A medley of vivid narratives The Atlantic Midorikawa and Sweeney have committed an exceptional act of literary espionage English literature owes them a great debt Financial Times A vital and necessary contribution to women's history literary history and the literature of friendship Kate Bolick author of Spinster Making a Life of One's Own Death Representations in Literature Adriana Teodorescu, 2015-01-12 If the academic field of death studies is a prosperous one there still seems to be a level of mistrust concerning the capacity of literature to provide socially relevant information about death and to help improve the anthropological understanding of how culture is shaped by the human condition of mortality Furthermore the relationship between literature and death tends to be trivialized in the sense that death representations are interpreted in an over aestheticized manner As such this approach has a propensity to consider death in literature to be significant only for literary studies and gives rise to certain persistent clichés such as the power of literature to annihilate death This volume overcomes such stereotypes and reveals the great potential of literary studies to provide fresh and accurate ways of interrogating death as a steady and unavoidable human reality and as an ever continuing socio cultural construction The volume brings together researchers from various countries the USA the UK France Poland New Zealand Canada India Germany Greece and Romania with different academic backgrounds in fields as diverse as literature art history social studies criminology musicology and cultural studies and provides answers to questions such as What are the features of death representations in certain literary genres Is it possible to speak of an homogeneous vision of death in the case of some literary movements How do writers perceive imagine and describe their death through their personal diaries or how do they metabolize the death of the significant others through their writings To what extent does the literary representation of death refer to the extra fictional socio historically constructed Death Is it moral to represent death in children's literature

What are the differences and similarities between representing death in literature and death representations in other connected fields Are metaphors and literary representations of death forms of death denial or on the contrary a more insightful way of capturing the meaning of death

Desire for Love Marina Ragachewskaya, 2012-11-15 Desire for Love The Secret Longings of the Human Heart in D H Lawrence's Works is a collection of essays dedicated to several novels novellas short stories and non fiction by D H Lawrence one of the great 20th century English writers With the help of the psychoanalytic textual approach Marina Ragachewskaya analyses subtle expressions of the emotional sphere in Lawrence's characters and their desire for love which is realised linguistically stylistically and symbolically The discussion of the writer's textual subtleties suggests emotional education and intellectual delight The book offers an outline of Lawrence's own psychoanalytic theory and how it is implemented in his fiction Specific issues such as love discourse the unnamed eros a Jungian quest in search of love Doppelgangers love of power and the power of love sublimation and the language of dance as well as love in the time of war pertain to the discovery of unconscious desires and a culture of feeling in Lawrence Comparisons with other authors are surprisingly rare in Lawrence studies To fill this gap the volume also contains an essay on Lawrence's war stories analysed alongside Virginia Woolf's Mrs Dalloway and Pat Barker's Regeneration This inquiry into genuine human feeling will be equally attractive to literature scholars students and general readers

Trollope and the Magazines M. Turner, 1999-10-28 Trollope and the Magazines examines the serial publication of several of Trollope's novels in the context of the gendered discourses in a range of Victorian magazines including Cornhill Good Words Saint Pauls and the Fortnightly Review It highlights the importance of the periodical press in the literary culture of Victorian Britain and argues that readers today need to engage with the lively cultural debates in the magazines in order better to appreciate the complexity of Trollope's popular fiction

Sahara Ahmed Elbeshlawy, 2023-06-29 Based in Hong Kong and Egypt Sahara is a collection of poems about writing poetry love sexuality woman religion and identity Though deeply personal and passionate the collection cuts across different registers and disciplines mixing the personal with the social reality with fantasy art and literature with life philosophy with psychoanalysis and the sophisticated urbanism of cities with the inexplicable beauty of the desert

The Textual Condition of Nineteenth-Century Literature Josephine Guy, Ian Small, 2012-03-12 In this important new book Guy and Small develop a new account of literary creativity in the late nineteenth century one that combines concepts generated by text theorists concerning the embodied nature of textuality with the empirical insights of text editors and book historians Through these developments which the authors term the textual turn this study examines the textual condition of nineteenth century literature The authors explore works by Dickens Wilde Hardy Yeats Swinburne FitzGerald Pater Arnold Pinero and Shaw connecting questions about what a work textually is with questions about why we read it and how we value it The study asks whether the textual turn places us in a stronger position to analyze the value of a nineteenth century text not for readers of the nineteenth century but of the twenty first The authors argue that this issue of value is central to their

discipline The Environment and Literature of Moral Dilemmas David Aberbach, 2021-08-18 Exploring the literature of environmental moral dilemmas from the Hebrew Bible to modern times this book argues the necessity of cross disciplinary approaches to environmental studies as a subject affecting everyone in every aspect of life Moral dilemmas are central in the literary genre of protest against the effects of industry particularly in Romantic literature and Condition of England novels Writers from the time of the Industrial Revolution to the present including William Blake Elizabeth Gaskell Charles Dickens mile Zola Henrik Ibsen Anton Chekhov T S Eliot John Steinbeck George Orwell and J M Coetzee follow the Bible in seeing environmental problems in moral terms as a consequence of human agency The issues raised by these and other writers including damage to the environment and its effects on health and quality of life particularly on the poor economic conflicts of interest water and air pollution deforestation and the environmental effects of war are fundamentally the same today making their works a continual source of interest and insight Sketching a brief literary history on the impact of human behavior on the environment this volume will be of interest to readers researching environmental studies literary studies religious studies and international development as well as a useful resource to scientists and readers of the Arts The Work of Literature in an Age of Post-Truth Christopher Schaberg, 2018-07-26 A 2019 Prose Award Finalist What is the role of literary studies in an age of Twitter threads and viral news If the study of literature today is not just about turning to classic texts with age old questions neither is it a rejection of close reading or critical inquiry Through the lived experience of a humanities professor in a rapidly changing world this book explores how the careful study of literature and culture may be precisely what we need to navigate our dizzying epoch of post truth politics and ecological urgency Evelyn Waugh's Satire Naomi Milthorpe, 2016-06-23 Evelyn Waugh 1903 1966 is one of the twentieth century's great prose stylists and the author of a suite of devastating satires on modern English life from his first unforgettably funny novel Decline and Fall to his last work of fiction Basil Seal Rides Again Evelyn Waugh's Satire Texts and Contexts renews scholarly debates central to Waugh's work the forms of his satire his attitudes towards modernity and modernism his place in the literary culture of the interwar period and his pugnacious misreading of literary and other texts This study offers new exegetical accounts of the forms and figures of Waugh's satire linking original readings of Waugh's texts to the literary historical contexts that informed them Posing fresh readings of familiar works and affording attention to more neglected texts Evelyn Waugh's Satire Texts and Contexts offers readers and scholars a timely opportunity to return to the rich dark art of this master of prose satire
