Composition Non Composition Essays In Architecture:

Composition, Non-composition ,2012      Elements of Architecture Pierre von Meiss,2013-11-13 Modernity has opened the way to a greater pluralism of forms But even if architecture is a cultural phenomenon that does not mean it is a product of fashion Its principles are enduring and its foundations less tangible than the novice who tried to shake them would realize To start that stretch towards the foundations one must first acquire the basics to know the permanence of the architectural field and appreciate the certainties tested by time This book will act as a guide for the reaching hand The first part explores the mediums of compositional architecture and the relationships between space light and place Four or five thousand years of history demonstrate the persistence of certain fundamental principles intrinsic to a discipline that organizes in three dimensions the vital space of man In the second part the author provides certain keys to manage the relationship between shape materials and construction recalling that the need to build by itself has never been enough to design the form of the house or the city Neither encyclopedia nor dictionary this book seeks to fill a gap in light of our time it serves as a contemporary introduction to architectural design and criticism Following the praise of critics the first edition has been adopted as a reference text in numerous schools and translated into several languages This new translation from the 3rd French edition offers revised and reworked content with an additional three chapters dedicated to tectonics      The Mathematics of the Ideal Villa and Other Essays Colin Rowe,1982-09-14 This collection of an important architectural theorist s essays considers and compares designs by Palladio and Le Corbusier discusses mannerism and modern architecture architectural vocabulary in the 19th century the architecture of Chicago neoclassicism and modern architecture and the architecture of utopia      Chinese Architecture and the Beaux-Arts Jeffrey W. Cody,Nancy Shatzman Steinhardt,Tony Atkin,2011-01-31 In the early twentieth century Chinese traditional architecture and the French derived methods of the cole des Beaux Arts converged in the United States when Chinese students were given scholarships to train as architects at American universities whose design curricula were dominated by Beaux Arts methods Upon their return home in the 1920s and 1930s these graduates began to practice architecture and create China s first architectural schools often transferring a version of what they had learned in the U S to Chinese situations The resulting complex series of design related transplantations had major implications for China between 1911 and 1949 as it simultaneously underwent cataclysmic social economic and political changes After 1949 and the founding of the People s Republic China experienced a radically different wave of influence from the Beaux Arts through advisors from the Soviet Union who first under Stalin and later Khrushchev brought Beaux Arts ideals in the guise of socialist progress In the early twenty first century China is still feeling the effects of these events Chinese Architecture and the Beaux Arts examines the coalescing of the two major architectural systems placing significant shifts in architectural theory and practice in China within relevant contemporary cultural and educational contexts Fifteen major scholars from around the world analyze and synthesize these crucial events to shed light on the dramatic architectural and urban changes occurring in China today many of which have global ramifications This stimulating and generously illustrated work is divided into three sections framed by an introduction and a postscript The first focuses on the convergence of Chinese architecture and the cole des Beaux Arts outlining the salient aspects of each and suggesting how and why the two met in the U S The second section centers on the question of how Chinese architects were influenced by the Beaux Arts and how Chinese architecture was changed as a result The third takes an even closer look at the Beaux Arts influence addressing how innovative practices new schools of architecture and buildings whose designs were linked to Beaux Arts assumptions led to distinctive new paradigms that were rooted in a changing China By virtue of its scope scale and scholarship this volume promises to become a classic in the fields of Chinese and Western architectural history Contributors Tony Atkin Peter J Carroll Yung Ho Chang Jeffrey W Cody Kerry Sizheng Fan Fu Chao Ching Gu Daqing Seng Kuan Delin Lai Xing Ruan Joseph Rykwert Nancy S Steinhardt David VanZanten Rudolf Wagner Zhang Jie Zhao Chen

Architectures of Bureaucracy Jens van de Maele, 2025-01-27 This monograph examines the interrelationship between politics and modernist architecture in interwar Belgium focusing on political architectural and administrative elites as propagators of new ideas of governance While Belgium was strongly influenced by neighbouring France and Germany it also developed its own avant garde approaches to socio political problems In the second half of the 1930s the country was the scene of a remarkable political and architectural experiment involving an ambitious plan for the large scale construction of modernist government office buildings These buildings were seen as essential to the development of a technocratic model of governance aimed at strengthening the role of the executive and minimising the influence of parliament More specifically the efficient new office architecture was supposed to create a new type of perfect civil servant whose loyalties would no longer lie with political parties but with scientists and management experts Such experts and scientists constituted a rising elite of homines novi with strong though often veiled political ambitions As such this book contributes to our understanding of political culture in the age of extremes

Reality Modeled After Images Michael Young, 2021-08-30 Reality Modeled After Images Architecture and Aesthetics after the Digital Image explores architecture's entanglement with contemporary image culture It looks closely at how changes produced through technologies of mediation alter disciplinary concepts and produce political effects Through both historical and contemporary examples it focuses on how conventions of representation are established maintained challenged and transformed Critical investigations are conjoined with inquiries into aesthetics and technology in the hope that the tensions between them can aid an exploration into how architectural images are produced disseminated and valued how images alter assumptions regarding the appearances of architecture and the environment For students and academics in architecture design and media studies architectural and art history and related fields this book shows how design is impacted and changed by shifts in image culture representational conventions and technologies

is one of the few nineteenth century architects consistently lionized as a precursor of modern architecture throughout the twentieth century and into our own time The two magisterial glass and iron reading rooms he built in Paris gave form to the idea of the modern library as a collective civic space His influence was both immediate and long lasting not only on the development of the modern library but also on the exploration of new paradigms of space materials and luminosity in places of great public assembly Published to accompany the first exhibition devoted to Labrouste in the United States and the first anywhere in the world in nearly 40 years this publication presents nearly 225 works in all media including drawings watercolors vintage and modern photographs film stills and architectural models Essays by a range of international architecture scholars explore Labrouste s work and legacy through a variety of approaches Le Corbusier, History and Tradition Armando Rabaça,2017-05-01 The view of modernism as representing an epistemological break between technology and history and tradition has long been challenged Le Corbusier s work has proved to be an inexhaustible reference point in this debate This is due on the one hand to the legacy of nineteenth century historicism and on the other to his creative process of creation through destruction which as John Summerson has noted is comparable to the processes of avant garde poets and painters The contributions to this book explore particular episodes which bring to light both the operative role of the past in the creation of a new abstract synthesis and Le Corbusier s modernist historical consciousness They illustrate how the past participated in the modernist creative process of abstract art from the 1920s machine aesthetics to the late infatuation with myth They also shed light on the extent to which the operative quality of the history was framed by a comprehensive historical vision that took the form of metanarrative which neither the analytical studies on his architecture nor the synthetic approaches to his philosophical thinking should dismiss Intersections of Space and Ethos Kyriaki Tsoukala,Nikolaos-Ion Terzoglou,Charikleia Pantelidou,2014-12-05 The pressing economic environmental and social crises emanate the need for a redefinition of the dominant views perspectives and values in the field of architecture The intellectual production of the last two decades has witnessed an impressive number of new design techniques and conceptual displacements reflecting the dynamic and fluid relation between man and his dwelling space However the contemporary market forces are favouring the growth of a star system in architectural production based on technological innovation spectacular imagery and formal acrobatics and are neglecting the social environmental and moral implications of spatial design Perhaps the time has come to think anew the possible critical intersections between space and ethos not only as an answer to the negative consequences of Modernity but also as a remedy to the negative aspects of globalisation The aim of the present collective volume is to enliven the ethical dimensions and dilemmas of architecture as they are shaped within the complexity of our times on two levels the level of critical and reflective discourse and the level of social and cultural reality occasioned by post industrial modes of production and new technologies Thirteen distinguished academics and researchers investigate the complex relations between architecture space and ethics from divergent and inter disciplinary perspectives philosophy sociology the humanities the arts landscape design environmental design urban design and architectural history and theory     Vaughan Williams Essays Robin Wells, 2017-07-05 Serious scholarship on the music of Ralph Vaughan Williams is currently enjoying a lively revival after a period of relative quiescence and is only beginning to address the enduring affection of concert audiences for his music The essays that comprise this volume extend the study of Vaughan Williams's music in new directions that will be of interest to scholars performers and listeners alike This volume contains the work of eleven North American scholars who have been recipients of the Ralph Vaughan Williams Fellowship based at the composer's own school Charterhouse which was created and has been supported by the Carthusian Trust since 1985 This wide ranging and detailed collection of essays covers the spectrum of genres in which Vaughan Williams wrote including dance symphony opera song hymnody and film music The contributors also employ a range of analytical and historical methods of investigation to illuminate aspects of Vaughan Williams's compositional techniques and influences musical literary and visual     The British Architect, 1886     Multimodal Composition Shyam B. Pandey, Santosh Khadka, 2021-09-30 This collection explores the role of individual faculty initiatives and institutional faculty development programs in supporting programmatic adoption of multimodal composition across diverse institutional contexts The volume speaks to the growing interest in multimodal composition in university classrooms as the digital media and technology landscape has evolved to showcase the power and value of employing multiple modes in educational contexts Drawing on case studies from a range of institutions the book is divided into four parts each addressing the needs of different stakeholders including scholars instructors department chairs curriculum designers administrators and program directors faculty initiatives curricular design and pedagogies faculty development programs and writing across disciplines Taken together the 16 chapters make the case for an integrated approach bringing together insights from unique faculty initiatives with institutional faculty development programs in order to effectively execute support and expand programmatic adoption of multimodal composition This book will be of interest to scholars in multimodal composition rhetoric communication studies education technology media studies and instructional design as well as administrators supporting program design and faculty development     Report on the Education of the Architect in the United States of America Robert Atkinson, 1922     Piranesi and the Modern Age Victor Plahte Tschudi, 2022-11-01 The complex appropriation of Piranesi by modern literature photography art film and architecture The etchings of the Italian printmaker architect and antiquarian Giovanni Battista Piranesi 1720-78 have long mesmerized viewers But as Victor Plahte Tschudi shows artists and writers of the modern era found in these works Piranesi's visions of contradictory space endless vistas and self-perpetuating architecture a formulation of the modern In Piranesi and the Modern Age Tschudi explores the complex appropriation and continual rediscoveries of Piranesi by modern literature photography art film and architecture Tracing the ways that the modern age constructed itself and its origin through Piranesi across genres he shows for example how Piranesi's work formulates the ideas of contrast in photography abstraction in painting and montage in cinema Piranesi's modern day comeback Tschudi argues relied on new dimensions found within his work that inspired attempts to inscribe within them a world that was very modern For more than a century these interpretations have helped legitimize new forms theories technologies and movements Tschudi examines among other things how Piranesi's disturbing prison interiors the Carceri became modern metaphors for the mind how Alfred H Barr and the Museum of Modern Art made the case for Piranesi's alleged abstraction in the 1930s and how Sergei Eisenstein reinvented Piranesi as a progenitor of his own innovative filmmaking techniques Tschudi's exploration of Piranesi's influence on modern architectural discourse includes interviews with such distinguished architects as Peter Eisenman Bernard Tschumi Steven Holl and Rem Koolhaas Generously illustrated Piranesi and the Modern Age offers an entirely new reading of Piranesi's work

Architectural Theory of Modernism Ute Poerschke, 2016-04-20 Architectural Theory of Modernism presents an overview of the discourse on function form concepts from the beginnings in the eighteenth century to its peak in High Modernism Functionalist thinking and its postmodern criticism during the second half of the twentieth century is explored as well as today's functionalism in the context of systems theory sustainability digital design and the information society The book covers among others the theories of Carlo Lodoli Gottfried Semper Eugène Emmanuel Viollet le Duc Louis Sullivan Frank Lloyd Wright Hannes Meyer Adolf Behne CIAM Jane Jacobs Robert Venturi and Denise Scott Brown Charles Jencks William Mitchell and Manuel Castells

Social Practices and City Spaces Kyriaki Tsoukala, 2023-11-07 This book examines the relationship between social practices and built space focusing on current cooperative participative and posthuman approaches to its production and management From a social cultural and ecological perspective it explores the modes of engagement of all factors in the constitutional processes of inhabited space Throughout this interdisciplinary collection built space is reconsidered in the light of other schools of thought such as philosophy anthropology social sciences and political theories and practices It covers new ground at conceptual epistemic and methodological levels focusing on inhabited space from within the framework of globalisation biopolitics cultural changes environmental crisis and new technologies Organised into three parts Parts 1 and 2 focus on the role of architects in the emergence of a new ethos for habitation as well as the modalities of the inclusion of differences in design discussing the importance of participation and narrative at a theoretical and practical level in architecture In the third part the chapters delve into questions regarding the intersection of design ecology and technoscience in a posthuman approach which might support the inclusion of differences in design and the emergence of a new environmental ethos Providing a stimulating landscape of arguments and challenges to new readings of architecture society and the environment this book will be of interest to researchers students and professionals of architecture urban planning anthropology and philosophy

provides a history of the AAR's Rome Prize in Composition      The Architect and Contract Reporter, 1916      The Architect Spiro Kostof, 1977 The Architect traces the role of the profession across the centuries and in different cultures showing the architect both as designer and as mediator between the client and the builder      Building Practice in the Dutch East Indies David Hutama Setiadi, 2022-12-30 This book reveals the epistemic imposition of architectural ideas and practices by colonists from the Netherlands in the Dutch East Indies from the late 19th century onwards exploring the ways in which this came to shape the profession up to the present day in what is now known as Indonesia The author investigates the scope of these interventions by Dutch colonial agents in relation to existing Javanese building practices pursuing two main lines of enquiry
The first is to examine the methods of dissemination of Dutch taught technical knowledge and skills across the Dutch East Indies The second is to scrutinise the effects of this dissemination upon the formation of architectural knowledge and practice within the colony Throughout this book the argument is made that what took place in architecture in the Dutch East Indies involved a process of disseminating building knowledge as a form of epistemic imposition upon the indigenous citizens of the colony in other words as an effective instrument of Dutch colonial power This book will be of interest to architecture academics and students interested in developing a broader global understanding of architecture especially those interested in decolonising the teaching of architectural history and theory
