Composition as Conversation Heather M. Hoover,2023-06-27 Teaching writing is not for the faint of heart but it can be a tremendous gift to teachers and students Students often approach writing courses with trepidation because they think of writing as a mystical and opaque process Teachers often approach these same courses with dread because of the enormous workload and the often unpolished skills of new writers This approachable composition textbook for beginning writers contends that writing can be a better experience for everyone when taught as an empathetic and respectful conversation In a time in which discourse is not always civil and language is not always tended carefully a conversation based writing approach emphasizes intention and care Written by a teacher with more than fifteen years of experience in the college writing classroom Composition as Conversation explores what happens when the art of conversation meets the art of writing Heather Hoover shows how seven virtues including curiosity attentiveness relatability open mindedness and generosity inform the writing process and can help students become more effective writers She invites writers of all skill levels to make meaningful contributions with their writing This short accessible and instructive book offers a reflective method for college level writing and will also work well in classical school high school and homeschool contexts It demystifies the writing process and helps students understand why their writing matters It will energize teachers of writing as they encourage their students to become careful readers and observers intentional listeners and empathetic arguers The book also provides helpful sample assignments

Creative Writing Pedagogies for the Twenty-First Century Alexandria Peary,Tom C Hunley,2015-06-25 The creative writing workshop beloved by some dreaded by others and ubiquitous in writing programs across the nation For decades the workshop has been entrenched as the primary pedagogy of creative writing While the field of creative writing studies has sometimes myopically focused on this single method the related discipline of composition studies has made use of numerous pedagogical models In Creative Writing Pedagogies for the Twenty First Century editors Alexandria Peary and Tom C Hunley gather experts from both creative writing and composition studies to offer innovative alternatives to the traditional creative writing workshop Drawing primarily from the field of composition studies a discipline rich with a wide range of established pedagogies the contributors in this volume build on previous models to present fresh and inventive methods for the teaching of creative writing Each chapter offers both a theoretical and a historical background for its respective pedagogical ideas as well as practical applications for use in the classroom This myriad of methods can be used either as a supplement to the customary workshop model or as stand alone roadmaps to engage and reinvigorate the creative process for both students and teachers alike A fresh and inspiring collection of teaching methods Creative Writing Pedagogies for the Twenty First Century combines both conventional and cutting edge techniques to expand the pedagogical possibilities in creative writing studies Writing Ecofiction Kevan Manwaring, 2024-07-19 This creative writing textbook introduces students to ecofiction narrative writing that focuses on the environment Also known as climate fiction or cli fi an increasing number of short story writers novelists and pioneers of emerging forms such as interactive fiction are taking up the call to develop their own creative responses to the climate crisis This guide explores a cross section of genres and ways of writing about our world as well as the ethical and technical challenges involved It offers a discussion of classic and contemporary texts literary criticism and creative writing exercises The book covers a broad range of themes and styles of writing from works that engage with nature and landscape writing to those that take a more activist approach to climate change With an awareness of the Global South and the subaltern the framing of the Anthropocene wilderness and nature writing is challenged Each chapter offers a new perspective on ecofiction for the creative writer with reading suggestions and connections to other writers and texts and writing activities Designed for upper level undergraduate and postgraduate writing modules on the environment the book is also suitable for independent writers looking to expand their skillset Featuring 20 interviews with ecofiction authors Ana Filomena Amaral Austin Aslan Denise Baden David Barker TC Boyle Lynn Buckle Adam Connor Michelle Cook Julie Carrick Dalton April Doyle Anna Holmes Somto Ihezue RB Kelly Gill Lewis Anne Mordell Anthony Nanson Midge Raymond Manda Scott Mary Woodbury John Yunker An extensive and enthusiastic guide into the wild and varied worlds of eco fiction James Canton Director of Wild Writing MA University of Essex UK The Routledge Handbook of Magazine Research David Abrahamson, Marcia R. Prior-Miller, 2015-06-05 Scholarly engagement with the magazine form has in the last two decades produced a substantial amount of valuable research Authored by leading academic authorities in the study of magazines the chapters in The Routledge Handbook of Magazine Research not only create an architecture to organize and archive the developing field of magazine research but also suggest new avenues of future investigation Each of 33 chapters surveys the last 20 years of scholarship in its subject area identifying the major research themes theoretical developments and interpretive breakthroughs Exploration of the digital challenges and opportunities which currently face the magazine world are woven throughout offering readers a deeper understanding of the magazine form as well as of the sociocultural realities it both mirrors and influences The book includes six sections Methodologies and structures presents theories and models for magazine research in an evolving global context Magazine publishing the people and the work introduces the roles and practices of those involved in the editorial and business sides of magazine publishing Magazines as textual communication surveys the field of contemporary magazines across a range of theoretical perspectives subjects genre and format questions Magazines as visual communication explores cover design photography illustrations and interactivity Pedagogical and curricular perspectives offers insights on undergraduate and graduate teaching topics in magazine research The future of the magazine form speculates on the changing nature of magazine research via its environmental effects audience and transforming platforms Handbook of Research on Acquiring 21st Century Literacy Skills Through Game-Based Learning Lane, Carol-Ann,2022-01-07 Emerging technologies are becoming more prevalent in global classrooms Traditional literacy pedagogies are shifting toward game based pedagogy addressing 21st century learners Therefore within this context there remains a need to study strategies to engage learners in meaning making with some element of virtual design Technology supports the universal design learning framework because it can increase the access to meaningful engagement in learning and reduce barriers The Handbook of Research on Acquiring 21st Century Literacy Skills Through Game Based Learning provides theoretical frameworks and empirical research findings in digital technology and multimodal ways of acquiring literacy skills in the 21st century This book gains a better understanding of how technology can support learner frameworks and highlights research on discovering new pedagogical boundaries by focusing on ways that the youth learn from digital sources such as video games Covering topics such as elementary literacy learning indigenous games and student worker training this book is an essential resource for educators in K 12 and higher education school administrators academicians pre service teachers game developers researchers and libraries Reading and Writing Instruction in the Twenty-First Century Ellen C. Carillo,2021-08-02 Robert Scholes passed away on December 9 2016 leaving behind an intellectual legacy focused broadly on textuality Scholes s work had a significant impact on a range of fields including literary studies composition and rhetoric education media studies and the digital humanities among others In Reading and Writing Instruction in the Twenty First Century contemporary scholars explore and extend the continued relevance of Scholes s work for those in English and writing studies In this volume Scholes s scholarship is included alongside original essays providing a resource for those considering everything from the place of the English major in the twenty first century to best practices for helping students navigate misinformation and disinformation Reading and Writing Instruction in the Twenty First Century not only keeps Scholes s legacy alive but carries it on through a commitment in Scholes s 1998 own words to offer our students the cultural equipment they are going to need when they leave us Contributors Angela Christie Paul T Corrigan Lyn e Lewis Gaillet Doug Hesse Alice S Horning Emily J Isaacs Christopher La Casse Robert Lest n Kelsey McNiff Thomas P Miller Jessica Rivera Mueller Christian Smith Kenny Smith Teaching in the 21st Century Joanne Pauley,1995 Among the issues facing teachers as the 21st century approaches are the prevalence of violence growing racial and socioeconomic divisions in society and lack of parental involvement Activities gathered from articles in educational journals are suggested to help children voice their experiences thoughts and concerns about violence Some of these activities are inviting a police representative to visit the classroom having children become aware of violence on a favorite television program and then rewriting the show without violence and helping children feel safe by assisting them in writing the names of people and places to which they can go when feeling scared Teachers must be aware of not passing on cultural stereotypes while elementary school children are not able to conceptualize socioeconomic differences in terms of profession and status in the current consumer oriented world the advantages of wealth and disadvantages of poverty soon become evident to them Also teachers should learn as much as possible about the dynamics of their communities and recognize the messages that children are absorbing in their daily experience Suggestions for promoting parental involvement include recruiting a volunteer to become a liaison between teacher and parents showing respect for parents by treating them as co workers rather than as free help asking for parents input and thanking them for their participation ND
