La forja de un rebelde ,2011      La forja de un rebelde. La forja. Tomo I. ,1951      Memory and Trauma in the Postwar Spanish Novel Sarah Leggott,Ross Woods,2013-12-11 In recent years much Spanish literary criticism has been characterized by debates about collective and historical memory stemming from a national obsession with the past that has seen an explosion of novels and films about the Spanish Civil War and Franco dictatorship This growth of so called memory studies in literary scholarship has focused on the representation of memory and trauma in contemporary narratives dealing with the Civil War and ensuing dictatorship In contrast the novel of the postwar period has received relatively little critical attention of late despite the fact that memory and trauma also feature in different ways and to varying degrees in many works written during the Franco years The essays in this study argue that such novels merit a fresh critical approach and that contemporary scholarship relating to the representation of memory and trauma in literature can enhance our understanding of the postwar Spanish novel The volume opens with essays that engage with aspects of contemporary theoretical approaches to memory in order to reveal the ways in which these are pertinent to Spanish novels written in the first postwar decades with studies on novels by Camilo Jos Cela Carmen Laforet Arturo Barea and Ana Mar a Matute Its second section focuses on the representation of trauma in specific postwar novels drawing on elements from trauma studies scholarship to discuss neglected works by Mercedes Salisachs Dolores Medio and Ignacio Aldecoa The final essays continue the focus on the theme of trauma and revisit works by women writers namely Carmen Laforet Rosa Chacel Ana Mar a Matute and Mar a Zambrano that foreground the experiences of female protagonists who are seeking to deal with a traumatic past The essays in this volume thus propose a new direction for the study of Spanish literature of 1940s 1950s and early 1960s enhancing existing approaches to the postwar Spanish novel through an engagement with contemporary scholarship on memory and trauma in literature      La forja de un rebelde Arturo Barea,1953      La forja de un rebelde. La ruta. Tomo II. ,1951      The Faith and the Fury Maria Thomas,2013 In Spain the five year period following the proclamation of the Republic in April 1931 was marked by physical assaults upon the property and public ritual of the Spanish Catholic Church These attacks were generally carried out by rural and urban anticlerical workers who were frustrated by the Republic s practical inability to tackle the Church s vast power On July 17 18 1936 a right wing military rebellion divided Spain geographically provoking the radical fragmentation of power in the territory which remained under Republican authority The coup marked the beginning of a conflict which developed into a full scale civil war Anticlerical protagonists with the reconfigured structure of political opportunities working in their favor participated in an unprecedented wave of iconoclasm and violence against the clergy During the first six months of the conflict innumerable religious buildings were destroyed and almost 7 000 religious personnel were killed To date scholarly interpretations of these violent acts were linked to irrationality criminality and primitiveness However the reasons for these outbursts are more complex and deep rooted Spanish popular anticlericalism was undergoing a radical process of reconfiguration during the first three decades of the 20th century During a period of rapid social cultural and political change anticlerical acts took on new explicitly political meanings becoming both a catalyst and a symptom of social change After July 17 18 1936 anticlerical violence became a constructive force for many of its protagonists an instrument with which to build a new society This book explores the motives mentalities and collective identities of the groups involved in anticlericalism during the pre war Spanish Second Republic and the Spanish Civil War It will be is essential reading for all those interested in 20th century Spanish history

Memories of the Maghreb Adolfo Campoy-Cubillo,2012-10-22 Using a cultural studies approach this book explores how the Spanish colonization of North Africa continues to haunt Spain s efforts to articulate a national identity that can accommodate both the country s diversity brought about by immigration from its old colonies and the postnational demands of its integration in the European Union La novela de autoformación María de los Angeles Rodríguez Fontela,1996

Alameda, 2012-07-23 A partir de los años cuarenta los críticos comenzaron a referirse a las obras de algunos jóvenes autores europeos y norteamericanos como nuevas novelas picarescas Este fenómeno estimuló el auge de estudios comparatistas en los años 50 en un intento de relacionar estas novelas del siglo XX con el antiguo género Al amparo de las nuevas tendencias en la teoría literaria se empezó a hablar de un paradigma picaresco por encima de fronteras internacionales y se esbozó la idea de un mito picaresco recurrente y de formas cambiantes según las circunstancias de cada ciclo histórico No obstante aún quedan muchas preguntas que responder por una parte los indicios apuntan a una especie de renacimiento espontáneo independiente de la picaresca durante las posguerras también en el siglo XX y especialmente en Alemania y España por otra se constata que es un fenómeno a la vez eterno The Dialectics of Exile Sophia A. McClennen, 2004 The history of exile literature is as old as the history of writing itself Despite this vast and varied literary tradition criticism of exile writing has tended to analyze these works according to a binary logic where exile either produces creative freedom or it traps the writer in restrictive nostalgia The Dialectics of Exile Nation Time Language and Space in Hispanic Literatures offers a theory of exile writing that accounts for the persistence of these dual impulses and for the ways that they often co exist within the same literary works Focusing on writers working in the latter part of the twentieth century who were exiled during a historical moment of increasing globalization transnational economics and the theoretical shifts of postmodernism Sophia A

McClennen proposes that exile literature is best understood as a series of dialectic tensions about cultural identity Through comparative analysis of Juan Goytisolo Spain Ariel Dorfman Chile and Cristina Peri Rossi Uruguay this book explores how these writers represent exile identity Each chapter addresses dilemmas central to debates over cultural identity such as nationalism versus globalization time as historical or cyclical language as representationally accurate or disconnected from reality and social space as utopic or dystopic McClennen demonstrates how the complex writing of these three authors functions as an alternative discourse of cultural identity that not only challenges official versions imposed by authoritarian regimes but also tests the limits of much cultural criticism

Spanish National Identity, Colonial Power, and the Portrayal of Muslims and Jews During the Rif War (1909-27) Elisabeth Bolorinos Allard, 2021 Runner up for the 2017 18 AHGBI Spanish Embassy Publication Prize This book examines how anxieties about colonial power and national identity are reflected in Spanish literature journalism and photography of Moroccan Muslim and Jewish cultures during the Spanish colonisation of Northern Morocco from 1909 to 1927 This understudied period known as the Rif War is highly significant because of its role in shaping the identities that came into conflict in the Spanish Civil War 1936 39 Furthermore the book makes a key contribution to Spanish colonial studies by offering a comparative analysis of Spanish representations of the Iberian Peninsula's cultural and historical relationship with Moroccan Muslims and Jews in this context showing how conflicting visions of Spanish identity are portrayed through and in relation to them ELISABETH BOLORINOS ALLARD is a Fellow by Examination in Modern Languages at Magdalen College Oxford

Spanish Women Writers and Spain's Civil War Maryellen Bieder, Roberta Johnson, 2016-12-01 The Spanish Civil War 1936 1939 pitted conservative forces including the army the Church the Falange fascist party landowners and industrial capitalists against the Republic installed in 1931 and supported by intellectuals the petite bourgeoisie many campesinos farm laborers and the urban proletariat Provoking heated passions on both sides the Civil War soon became an international phenomenon that inspired a number of literary works reflecting the impact of the war on foreign and national writers While the literature of the period has been the subject of scholarship women's literary production has not been studied as a body of work in the same way that literature by men has been and its unique features have not been examined Addressing this lacuna in literary studies this volume provides fresh perspectives on well known women writers as well as less studied ones whose works take the Spanish Civil War as a theme The authors represented in this collection reflect a wide range of political positions Writers such as Maria Zambrano Merc Rodoreda and Josefina Aldecoa were clearly aligned with the Republic whereas others including Mercedes Salisachs and Liberata Masoliver sympathized with the Nationalists Most however are situated in a more ambiguous political space although the ethics and character portraits that emerge in their works might suggest Republican sympathies Taken together the essays are an important contribution to scholarship on literature inspired by this pivotal point in Spanish history
