Dream a Little Dream Joan Jonker, 2012-02-02 An ambitious family learns that the grass isn't always greener on the other side Joan Jonker leaves behind Liverpool's terraces for a wealthy family home in Dream a Little Dream a charming saga of new beginnings and old ties Perfect for fans of Katie Flynn and Cathy Sharp Edie Dennison was a sweet young girl when she first met her husband Robert living in the same street of two up two down houses in Seaforth Now thanks to the success of Robert's business they've gone up in the world When Robert realises that his wife has forgotten her roots and is encouraging their children to have ideas above their station he decides to take his two youngest children Nigel and Abbie back to Seaforth to meet their old friends and the grandparents they never knew they had Soon they discover a whole new world of happiness is waiting for them What readers are saying about Dream a Little Dream The observation of social niceties is absolutely spot on with all the humour and warmth coming from a clash between class pretension and the realities of life Bob and Edie are brilliantly drawn and this one will acquire new readers for the talented Jonker Once again another superb saga by the best author in the world I have read all Joan's books This book is the best yet

Earth Dream Awakening DAVID W. LETTS, 2012-08-15 All that has happened in the past all of Earth's history man has created in his dream And the end of time will come when man wakes up and realizes he has been dreaming Suddenly a young family wrests themselves from life in a North American city to seek a rustic existence close to nature and a circle of new friends in mountain valleys of British Columbia But that is only one of the levels to this story For David and Kelly Siofra are a mystic and a psychic on an out of the ordinary quest inspired by higher energy presences Moita and Amar How will their experiment in communication between worlds illuminate the process of planetary rebirth that will accelerate years later in the awakening of 2012 and beyond This time period is a crossroads Paths before you lead into the future some not pleasant some extremely promising We are here to help you choose the road that leads not to destruction but that leads to life and to this change of man and his awareness to the reuniting of our worlds Among facets of this visionary yet down to earth adventure helping persons in crisis to unlock their hearts find their new balance deepening our sense of community as a core group risks old selves in order to truly meet confronting dark energies across lifetimes undoing man's obsession with power seeing that the planet's upheavals now mirror our own as a vast evolution in consciousness comes full circle aided by higher dimensional beings and the Earth Mother voicing her plea for man to awaken as a willing partner We are entering a New Age of humanity Instead of man creating only on his own set apart from the rest of the universe this time he is involved in a co creation and we are the co creators Those who are here have arrived to help found a new world

Anything but Frank Kenneth Kerns, 2025-08-14 Kenneth Kerns shares the story of a life altering stroke that led him on a journey to a quieter more intentional way of living in this heartfelt memoir Before his hemorrhagic stroke in April 2020 the author was a high achieving university administrator juggling demanding responsibilities with a deeply rooted devotion to his wife and two daughters His career was meaningful but his family was everything Then came ten days in a coma When he awoke he was paralyzed on his right side and struggling with aphasia The life he knew was gone and rebuilding a new one would take everything he had Years later the physical signs of his stroke are still evident but the changes inside have been even more profound Through therapy and sheer determination he s discovered an inner peace and a deeper appreciation for life s small victories This book explores the hard lessons unexpected joys and the transformative power of gratitude that have shaped the author's new reality. It's a story of embracing a slower, more present way of living where each day is celebrated as a gift.

Yodel in Hi-Fi Bart Plantenga, 2013-02-08 Yodel in Hi-Fi explores the vibrant and varied traditions of yodelers around the world. Far from being a quaint and dying art, yodel is a thriving vocal technique that has been perennially renewed by singers from Switzerland to Korea, from Colorado to Iran. Bart Plantenga offers a lively and surprising tour of yodeling in genres from opera to hip hop and in venues from cowboy campfires and Oktoberfests to film soundtracks and yogurt commercials. Displaying an extraordinary versatility, yodeling crosses all borders and circumvents all language barriers to assume its rightful place in the world of music. If Wisconsin wasn't on the yodel music map before, this book puts it there.

A Doctor in the House Candy Carson, 2016-01-05 The life of a neurosurgeon isn't an easy one, and Ben has been required to go above and beyond the call of duty almost constantly. The life of a neurosurgeon's wife isn't much easier. But it's all been worth it. Together, we've been through poverty, tragedy, wealth, and joy, and we've had each other's backs. I love that guy.

CANDY CARSON Like most Americans, you might think of Ben Carson as a trailblazing brain surgeon and in the last few years as an outspoken commentator on national issues. But his wife of more than forty years knows him as so much more: a loving husband, a devoted father, a devout Christian, a committed philanthropist, and a fierce patriot. Now Candy Carson introduces us to the private side of a very public figure as she shares the inspiring story of their marriage and their family. Like her husband, Candy grew up in Detroit, one of five children of a teacher and a factory worker. Also like Ben, she overcame her humble background through determination, hard work, and perseverance, earning a scholarship to attend Yale University. In that strange new world, she focused on her studies, her music, and her deepening spiritual life. She attended church with a handsome older student who liked to tease her but never assumed he would be anything more than a friend to her. But Ben and Candy quickly became inseparable, and they married soon after she graduated, with Ben still in medical school preparing for his career as a soon-to-be world-famous pediatric neurosurgeon. In A Doctor in the House, Candy reveals many stories that have never been told before, despite the media spotlight on Dr. Carson in recent years. She shows us what it was like when they moved to Baltimore to join the community centered around Johns Hopkins Hospital. She describes how their family evolved with the births of their three sons and the tragic miscarriage of their twins. She talks about the challenges of Ben's twelve-to-twenty-hour workdays, saving thousands of lives every year while Candy ran the household. She also addresses the prejudice they sometimes faced as African Americans and how Ben's calm, levelheaded approach made him a great problem solver at home and in their travels, just as he was in the operating room. Above all, she reveals her husband's consistency as a believer in God, in family, and in America. Having lived the American Dream, Ben believes every child from every background is capable of achieving it. That's why he and Candy have been committed to educating and inspiring young people, and over the past twenty years have awarded more than 6,700 students with scholarships through their Carson Scholars Fund. A Doctor in the House is a classic American love story, and that story is far from over. As Candy writes We don't know what God has for us next but we're ready to follow As we head forward into the unknown once more I thank God for putting us together

In Awe John O'Leary, 2020-05-05 NATIONAL BESTSELLER The 1 bestselling author of On Fire shows us how to recapture and harness our childlike sense of wonder in order to become more engaged, successful and fulfilled Engaging O'Leary encourages us to see the world through a child's eyes Mitch Albom author of Tuesdays with Morrie There once was a time when we joyfully raised our hands to answer questions, connected easily with others, believed that anything was possible and fearlessly jumped into new experiences A time when we viewed each day not as something to endure but as a marvelous gift to explore and savor when we danced through our lives in awe of the ordinary moments and eager for the promise of tomorrow Unfortunately that's far from our experience today Instead we feel disconnected and jaded Social media reminds us that we don't measure up and the mainstream media barrages us with constant negativity Many of us find ourselves caught in a life of dogged responsibility and mind-numbing repetition The daily struggle to earn a living has caused us to lose the sense of wonder with which we once greeted every day In his new book bestselling author John O'Leary invites us to consider that it is possible to once again navigate the world as a child does Identifying five senses children innately possess and that we've lost touch with as we age O'Leary shares emotional, humorous and inspirational stories intertwined with fascinating new research showing how each of us can reclaim our childlike joy and why doing so will change how we interact with the world In Awe reveals how we can regain that ability to see fresh insights, reach for new solutions and live our best lives

Lean Out Tara Henley, 2020-03-24 INSTANT NATIONAL BESTSELLER Travel to the land of Couldn't Be More Timely Margaret Atwood on Lean Out in the West End Phoenix What begins as one woman's critique of our culture of overwork and productivity ultimately becomes an investigation into our most urgent problems: vast inequality, loneliness, economic precarity and isolation from the natural world Henley punctures the myths of the meritocracy in a way few writers have This is an essential book for our time Mandy Len Catron author of How to Fall in Love with Anyone A deeply personal and informed reflection on the modern world and why so many feel disillusioned by it In 2016 journalist Tara Henley was at the top of her game working in Canadian media She had traveled the world from Soweto to Bangkok and Borneo to Brooklyn interviewing authors and community leaders, politicians and Hollywood celebrities But when she started getting chest pains at her desk in the newsroom, none of that seemed to matter The health crisis, not cardiac, it turned out, but anxiety forced her to step off the media treadmill and examine her life and the stressful twenty-first century world around her Henley was not alone North America was facing an epidemic of lifestyle-related health problems And yet the culture was continually celebrating the elite few who thrived in the always-on work world those who perpetually leaned in Henley realized that if we wanted innovative solutions to the wave of burnout and stress-related illness, it was time to talk to those who had leaned out Part memoir, part travelogue and part investigation Lean Out tracks Henley's journey from the heart of the connected city to the fringe communities that surround it From early retirement enthusiasts in urban British Columbia to moneyless men in rural Ireland Henley uncovers a parallel track in which everyday citizens are quietly dropping out of the mainstream and reclaiming their lives from overwork Underlying these disparate movements is a rejection of consumerism a growing appetite for social contribution and a quest for meaningful connection in this era of extreme isolation and loneliness As she connects the dots between anxiety and overwork Henley confronts the biggest issues of our time Home by the Harbor Barbara Mitchell, Hannah's return to Seabrook the quaint fishing town of her childhood is more than just a homecoming it's a plunge into a sea of memories both bittersweet and joyful Years have passed since she left carrying with her a heart burdened by past disappointments But the familiar scent of salt air and the rhythmic crashing of waves against the shore awaken something deep within her stirring long dormant feelings she thought buried forever Liam her high school sweetheart remains a steadfast presence in this harbor town his life inextricably linked to the sea and the community he calls home Their reunion is a delicate dance between the familiar comfort of old affections and the apprehension of navigating a present shaped by years apart This is not simply a tale of rekindled romance it's a story about facing past insecurities confronting unspoken emotions and learning to forgive oneself and others The idyllic setting of Seabrook with its picturesque harbors and the vast ever changing ocean serves as a poignant backdrop to Hannah and Liam's journey It's a place where second chances bloom where old wounds heal and where the possibility of a love deeper and more profound than they ever imagined waits to be discovered Through the shared experiences quiet moments of reflection and the inevitable challenges that life throws their way Hannah and Liam will rediscover the enduring strength of their connection learning that the truest loves are often the ones that find their way back to us unexpectedly and close to home Prepare to be captivated by this heartwarming tale of forgiveness self discovery and the extraordinary power of love to mend even the most fractured of hearts Dirt Bike Ike Roy Jenkins, 2008-10 What do you tell a teenager that is failing 9th grade has learning disabilities no social life no direction friends money or hope Ike Hebert is being raised by a single Mom who is holding down two jobs to keep their home together All Ike has is a bicycle and a dream to become a champion motocross racer Through circumstances and a friendship with an outcast junkyard dealer Ike is able to fan the flame of his dream into life while learning a secret about growing up success and happiness He gets the faith in himself he needs to form his dream and begin to pursue it against all odds Suddenly his world and his dream is side tracked when Ike is lured into a 25 year old crime Join Ike as he solves the mystery negotiates the twists and turns of life's circumstances and overcomes the enemies that try to stop him as he solves this case in south Louisiana A Crescent Kept: Nurturing without Exhausting Aanchal Kakkar, 2025-05-09 A Crescent Kept Nurturing Without Exhausting is a gentle yet powerful exploration of modern parenthood Blending personal reflections real conversations with parents and heartfelt insights it speaks to those who give endlessly yet often forget to pause for themselves Through poetic prose and relatable moments Aanchal captures the quiet sacrifices emotional weight and subtle joys of raising a child while reminding parents that their identity matters too This book is not just about parenting

it s about reclaiming balance finding light in the shadows and understanding that it s okay to be a crescent not always whole but still beautifully enough Written with warmth and honesty it offers comfort and clarity to anyone seeking to nurture their child without losing themselves in the process Knocking on the Moonlit Door Gillian Coleby,2010-12-08
