Forgiving Your Family Kathleen Fischer, 2005-04-01 Why is it that the people closest to us often cause the deepest most wrenching pain Family can either provide restful refuge or prompt you to find it elsewhere A quick channel surf through daytime television illustrates that From the petty irritation to the grievous wrong forgiving is one of the hardest tasks families face The gospel calls us to love and forgive others Ironically the closer we are to people the harder it is to forgive them After all we count on these people to love and accept us unconditionally But family behavior is far from flawless Spouses quarrel siblings pout grandparents criticize cousins judge When the last nerve frays look out A house of love quickly turns into a house of pain Family experiences are a mixture of beauty and tragedy writes Fischer When we grasp this truth we understand why forgiveness is such an essential part of family life and Jesus message The gospel reminds us that redemption happens right here in the give and take of ordinary family life Each chapter of Forgiven Your Family contains real life stories practical strategies and encouragement to help you move toward forgiveness Better communication while critical isn't enough according to Fischer Forgiveness takes faith and prayer Combining psychological practical and theological insight Fischer will lead you to discover the true meaning of forgiveness rather than the myths why you need to forgive ways to deal with anger and avoid revenge how to protect yourself while easing into forgiveness the difference between forgiveness and reconciliation how to let go of hurts and live Whether you need to forgive someone in your family or you counsel families as a part of your work Forgiven Your Family is an indispensable tool

Natural Law and Religious Freedom J. Daryl Charles, 2017-07-20 Every successive generation finds fresh reasons for the study of natural law Current interest in the natural law may well be due to a pervasive moral pessimism in the Western cultural context and wider contemporary geopolitical challenges Those geopolitical challenges result from two significant and worrisome global developments unprecedented violent persecution of religious minorities on several continents and a growing climate of secular hostility toward religious faith in Western societies Natural Law and Religious Freedom aims to address what is relatively absent from the literature by demonstrating the importance of natural law ethics in both establishing and preserving basic human rights of which religious freedom has pride of place Probing contemporary challenges to natural law thinking that are both internal and external to religious faith and examining the character and constitution of natural law ethics Natural Law and Religious Freedom will be of interest to theologians ethicists and philosophers as well as policy analysts politicians and activists who are concerned to anchor religious freedom and human rights policy considerations in an enduring way

Wisdom Commentary: Luke 17:9 Barbara E. Reid, OP, Shelly Matthews, 2021-01-15 Because there are more women in the Gospel of Luke than in any other gospel feminists have given it much attention In this commentary Shelly

Matthews and Barbara Reid show that feminist analysis demands much more than counting the number of female characters. Feminist biblical interpretation examines how the female characters function in the narrative and also scrutinizes the workings of power with respect to empire, to anti Judaism and to other forms of othering. Matthews and Reid draw attention to the ambiguities of the text both the liberative possibilities and the ways that Luke upholds the patriarchal status quo and guide readers to empowering reading strategies. The Unformed Conscience of Evangelicalism J. Daryl Charles, 2002-01-01

J Daryl Charles urges the evangelical church to better equip in character and moral vision its pastors, leaders and members to constructively and effectively engage the ethical debates of the twenty first century. The art of letting go: releasing attachments and finding freedom George Wilton, 2024-04-24

Luke 1:9 Barbara E. Reid, Shelly Matthews, 2021-01-15

Because there are more women in the Gospel of Luke than in any other gospel, feminists have given it much attention. In this commentary, Shelly Matthews and Barbara Reid show that feminist analysis demands much more than counting the number of female characters. Feminist biblical interpretation examines how the female characters function in the narrative and also scrutinizes the workings of power with respect to empire, to anti Judaism and to other forms of othering. In this work, the author moves away from youth centered catechesis toward a catechetical method that gets at the heart of faith formation for ALL generations. In the African American storytelling tradition, both the storyteller and listener are important; they embody the story. What happens in the story exchange process is the discovery of connections. The author's method of African American storytelling, My Story Your Story, brings to life the Christian story through our shared experiences. Intergenerational catechesis invites us to see ourselves and one another across time through eyes that are young, middle aged and elderly. Based on an understanding of family intergenerational catechesis, the author moves away from the domestic church as a starting point for growing in faith to the community as a starting point. Where the domestic church focuses on those who live in the household, intergenerational catechesis focuses on everyone in the Church community: single persons, divorced persons, widows, widowers, teens, young adults, pre school and elementary children, parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles. In highlighting our connections, we are better able to see ourselves and one another differently. When we see ourselves and others transformed, faith is revitalized. The Blackwell Companion to The New Testament David E. Aune, 2010-01-22

Picking Up the Pieces Samuel Cyuma, 2012-05-22 In the last ten years of the 20th century the world was twice confronted with unbelievable news from Africa First there was the end of Apartheid in South Africa Who would have thought that such a change would be possible without bloodshed But the miracle happened due to responsible political and Church leaders and as a result of the unique processes organized through the Truth and Reconciliation Commission under the leadership of Archbishop Desmond Tutu The second unbelievable experience from Africa was of a rather different and awfully shocking nature the mass killings in Rwanda This event soon developed into a real genocide and created a wave of horror around the world There political and Church leaders had been unable to prevent this crime against humanity
