Formation In Faith The Congregational Ministry Of Making Disciples:

Formation in Faith Sondra Higgins Matthaei,2008-01-01 The ministry of congregations is to make disciples of Jesus Christ Behind that simple and seemingly self evident statement lies a problematic reality however While congregations know that disciple making is at the heart of their identity they often have trouble understanding how to go about it Apart from such traditional Christian education ministries as Sunday school too little formal thinking or planning goes into the task of forming Christians in the faith In this book Sondra Matthaei casts a vision in which congregations open up their life of faith to others as an invitation to connect the universal longing for authentic relationships and deeper meaning with the church s practice of faithful discipleship As folks enter the church s communion of grace Matthaei challenges church leaders to utilize the gifts of every member and lays out a plan to help congregations grow in faith and communion with God and creation including the context and goal of such ministry deciding what to teach and who shall teach and attendant relationships structures and practices Understanding Faith Formation Mark A. Maddix,Jonathan H. Kim,James Riley Jr. Estep,2020-10-27 Three leading Christian educators offer a survey of faith formation from various perspectives biblical theological pastoral practical and global They present a biblical theology of faith formation for individual and congregational life and show how faith can be formed through the life and mission of the local church through practices such as communal worship Bible study and mission They also explore the faces of faith formation in multicultural and global contexts The book includes practical exercises for those beginning in ministry and reflection questions Proleptic Pedagogy Sondra H. Matthaei,Nancy R. Howell,2014-06-17 Could we have imagined how much theological education would change in the new millennium Shifting needs of students classrooms and churches have demanded constant revisions of the curriculum course design classroom technology and pedagogical strategies Saint Paul School of Theology felt the tide of change within our own walls and designed a project called Proleptic Pedagogy to address three distinct pedagogical challenges for the future of theological education First instead of fitting new technologies into old pedagogies how are teaching and learning transformed by shifting needs of students who are digital natives digital immigrants or distance learners Second instead of reactive strategies what pedagogy proactively eliminates accommodations because courses are designed with flexibility and openness to diverse learning styles disabilities and needs Third instead of engaging student diversity with the tools of the 1960s what new teaching and learning strategies anticipate future student racial and ethnic demographics and interracial educational experiences This volume of essays narrates our classroom stories teases out pedagogical issues examines pedagogical literature reflects on theology of pedagogy and constructs pedagogical proposals with an open invitation for other theological educators to join our conversation about the future of theological education Loving God, Loving Neighbor Peggy Kendall; Claire Smith; Tim Ke,2008-04-01 In almost every congregation there is a searching youth who is somehow different from the rest one who thinks more deeply asks more questions and wants to make a difference in the world This young person may be seen as a loner an upstart or someone who does not fi t Youth workers may not know what to do with these inquisitive youth and a youth program that meets the congregation s expectations probably won t connect with the needs and interests of searching youth Eventually searching youth turn into searching adults who continue to stir things up and enrich the life of our congregations with their questions insights witness and service These young people have the capacity and ability to provide signifi cant leadership in our congregations now and in the future Because of their unique gifts we are offering this book as a resource for pastors teachers and youth leaders who work with them In this book faculty members students and recent graduates of Saint Paul School of Theology look through the eyes of their academic disciplines and ministry experience to explore the foundations for ministry with searching youth and to offer designs for your ministry
