Priest of the Church or Priest of a Church? Noel Cox, 2021-03-25 The development of new forms of ministry lay and ordained has included worker priests now found in the Anglican Communion in a related form variously called Self Supporting Ministry SSM or Non Stipendiary Ministry NSM This book focuses on one of the most recent developments the creation of Ordained Local Ministry After chapters that consider preliminary questions of the nature of ministry such as authority in the church and Holy Orders Noel Cox argues that the crucial distinction between these and other forms of ministry is that the Ordained Local Minister OLM is overtly ordained specifically for a given locality variously defined they are a deacon or priest for a specific church parish benefice or deanery rather than of the universal church Their introduction inevitably raises difficult ecclesiological questions which Cox examines

Ward-Turner, 2008-05 Indifference toward deacon development places the church in a precarious state By and large congregations stand to be weakened by deacons who have not discovered the exciting possibilities of the office When pastor and congregation disregard the need to have trained deacons the office is allowed to recede into one of mere honor rather than service established in Christ On the other hand trained deacons or those in training discover exciting opportunities with which the office of deacons is filled They come to perceive the office as one of service rather than honor The church is strengthened exceedingly by their effective and efficient leadership under the sight of the pastor Unquestionable God is looking for a special breed of deacons a New Testament breed who are Spirit filled and qualified To say that deacons are qualified is to say also that they are trained for the work of deacons Now That You're a Deacon Howard B.
