Clinical Textbook of Addictive Disorders, Third Edition Richard J. Frances, Sheldon I. Miller, Avram H. Mack, 2005-05-18 This authoritative work comprehensively examines all aspects of addictive disorders and their treatment. Leading researchers and practitioners identify best practices in assessment and diagnosis and provide tools for working with users of specific substances. Issues in working with particular populations including polysubstance abusers, culturally diverse patients, women, and older adults are addressed, and widely used psychosocial and pharmacological treatment approaches are reviewed. An indispensable text for anyone studying or treating these prevalent, challenging disorders, the book describes ways to tailor interventions to each patient's needs while delivering compassionate, evidence-based care. Clinical Textbook of Addictive Disorders, Fourth Edition Avram H. Mack, Kathleen T. Brady, Richard J. Frances, Sheldon I. Miller, 2016-05-12 This state-of-the-science reference and text has given thousands of practitioners and students a strong foundation in understanding and treating addictive disorders. Leading experts address the neurobiology of addictions and review best practices in assessment and diagnosis. Specific substances of abuse are examined in detail with attention to real-world clinical considerations. Issues in working with particular populations including polysubstance abusers, culturally diverse patients, older adults, chronic pain sufferers, and others are explored. Chapters summarize the theoretical and empirical underpinnings of widely used psychosocial and pharmacological treatments and clearly describe clinical techniques. New to This Edition: Incorporates a decade's worth of major advances in research and clinical practice. Updated for DSM-5. Many new authors extensively revised with the latest information on specific biological mechanisms, substances, populations, and treatments. Chapter on motivational interviewing.
