

An impressionistic painting of a person lying down, wearing a dark blue coat. The person's head is resting on a light-colored surface, and their arm is extended across their body. The background is a mix of green and yellow tones, suggesting an outdoor setting. The overall style is soft and painterly, with visible brushstrokes.

How is a Man Supposed to be a Man? Robin A Hadley,2021-09-17 The global trend of declining fertility rates and an increasingly ageing population has serious implications for individuals and institutions alike Childless men are mostly excluded from ageing social science and reproduction scholarship and almost completely absent from most national statistics This unique book examines the lived experiences of a hidden and disenfranchised population men who wanted to be fathers It explores the complex intersections that influence childlessness over the life course Family Ties and Aging Ingrid Arnet Connidis,Amanda E. Barnett,2018-10-05 Providing an integrated and thorough representation from current research and contemporary society Family Ties and Aging shows how pressing issues of our time an aging population changing family structures and new patterns of work family balance are negotiated in the family lives of middle aged and older adults Focusing on key questions such as How do current trends and social arrangements affect family relationships and What are the implications of what we know for future research theory practice and policy authors Ingrid Arnet Connidis and Amanda E Barnett explore groups and relationships that are typically overlooked including the unique family situations of older single and childless persons sibling ties older lesbian and gay adults and new forms of intimate relationships The Third Edition is thoroughly updated to include the latest research and theoretical developments recent media coverage of related issues and new information on intimate relationships in later life and elder neglect abuse Social Isolation of Older Adults Lenard W. Kaye,Cliff Singer,2018-12-17 Critical strategies for confronting a dire yet under addressed societal epidemic the risky and potentially deadly consequences for older adults living a socially isolated life are the focus for this book By documenting our current understanding of the complex and multi dimensional nature of social isolation among elders the authors highlight innovative and alternative forms of community and later life relationships that can serve to forestall or prevent social isolation and loneliness With contributions from recognized scholars clinicians and elder policy activists as well as from multiple practice perspectives direct service providers administrators researchers and educators the book documents the interrelated issues of social relationships and health in late life It describes creative programs and intervention techniques that help maintain the integrity of an older adult s individual group and community relations communication pathways and a sense of belonging The book also illuminates multidisciplinary and integrated best practices for minimizing the risk of late life social isolation Case studies showcase the issues that arise in clinical practice and service delivery and demonstrate proven methods for effectively addressing them Key Features Delivers best practice strategies and interventions for bolstering older adult social health and community engagement Written by top scholars in the gerontology community Explores the life threatening risks and consequences of social isolation for older adults and their families Describes the wide range of social relationships that can determine the extent to which older adults will be at risk of becoming socially isolated Considers the role that older adult diversity and difference plays in determining quality of life and the integrity of relationships Highlights physical behavioral environmental social and economic forces that can influence the quality of late life relationships Essentials of Thinking Ethically in Qualitative Research Will C van den Hoonaard, Deborah K van den Hoonaard, 2016-06-16 Ethical dimensions of qualitative research are constantly emerging and shifting This volume identifies relevant ethical principles that can guide novice researchers through the research process with the necessary wisdom and insight to shape a project in sound meaningful and thoughtful ways Well known for their work in this area the van den Hoonaards outline the domains on which ethics most often impinge They address key ethical issues arising in different qualitative traditions and contexts The volume concludes with guidance on how to navigate formal ethics reviews Many key examples and other resources help the student engage the complicated literature on this topic Men, Masculinities, and Aging Edward H. Thompson, Jr., 2018-09-18 Men Masculinities and Aging introduces readers to the gendered nature of aging men s lives Edward H Thompson noted for his work on men and aging explores the intersections of ethnicities class geographies generations and masculinities The book offers a fresh perspective on men s experiences with bodily aging growing older in an ageist society and navigating the virtual absence of cultural guidelines for being an aging man The book also provides a sociological theory framework on how men navigate their social aging as they experience later life and very late life Turning points such as grandfathering the changeover from work to retirement and the onset of health problems or becoming a caregiver are discussed at length as Thompson frames these natural occurrences as now ordinary experiences as aging masculinities are no longer rarities The book will provide educators students researchers and practitioners a means to question standard assumptions about aging men and discuss what underlies most later life masculinities Dying and Death in Canada, Third Edition Herbert C. Northcott, Donna M. Wilson, 2016-07-07 Dying and Death in Canada offers a comprehensive up to date examination of dying death and bereavement from a Canadian perspective The third edition includes two new chapters that highlight trends and provide assessments of end of life care in Canada Several new topics are covered including assisted death emerging trends in funerary practices and memorialization and changing conceptualizations and interventions in the grieving process The book also offers individual perspectives on dying and death from funeral directors nurses police officers and others told in their own words An appendix lists recent and classic movies television programs documentary films and other visual media sources dealing with dying and death Researching Later Life and Ageing Miranda Leontowitsch, 2016-11-09 This collection on researching later life and ageing critically reflects upon the qualitative methods used in gaining knowledge of under researched groups of older people and sets out future research agendas Canadian Sociologists in the First Person Stephen Harold Riggins, Neil McLaughlin, 2021-08-15 Social scientists autobiographies can yield insight into personal commitments to research agendas and the very project of social science itself But despite the long history of life writing sociologists have tended to view the practice with skepticism Canadian Sociologists in the First Person is the first book to survey the Canadian sociological imagination through personal recollections Exploring the lives and experiences of twenty contributors from across the country this book connects the unique and shared features of their careers to broad social dynamics while providing a guide to their own research and administrative contributions to their universities their profession and their broader society and communities The contributors teach in different types of institutions are prominent in the discipline and in their specializations and represent significant and diverse intellectual currents political perspectives and life and career experiences Aiming to start a broad conversation about what social science and the academic profession look like in Canada from an insider s perspective Canadian Sociologists in the First Person offers invaluable lessons for younger scholars as they envision a diverse sociological imagination for the twenty first century
