European society's cultural life Tragedy which had dominated the European stage at the beginning of this period gradually saw itself replaced by new literary forms culminating in the gradual decline of theatrical tragedy from the heights it had reached in the 1660s The dominance of France's military and cultural prestige during this period is reflected in the important almost exclusive space dedicated in this volume to the French stage This book covers the tragedies of France's two greatest playwrights Pierre Corneille 1606-84 and Jean Racine 1639-99 which would dominate not only the French stage but through translations and adaptations became the model of tragic theater across Europe finding imitators in England Dryden Italy Alfieri and as far afield as Russia This dominance continued well into the 18th century with the triumph of Voltaire's tragedies This volume also examines how the writings of Diderot and Lessing changed the direction of theatre and how after the Revolution in the writings of Goethe Schiller Hegel tragedy and the tragic were reimagined and became the sign of European modernity Each chapter takes a different theme as its focus forms and media sites of performance and circulation communities of production and consumption philosophy and social theory religion ritual and myth politics of city and nation society and family and gender and sexuality

Transnational Politics in the Post-9/11 Novel Joseph Conte, 2019-11-22 Transnational Politics in the Post 9 11 Novel suggests that literature after September 11 2001 reflects the shift from bilateral nation state politics to the multilateralism of transnational politics While much of the criticism regarding novels of 9 11 tends to approach these works through theories of personal and collective trauma this book argues for the evolution of a post 9 11 novel that pursues a transversal approach to global conflicts that are unlikely to be resolved without diverse peoples willing to set aside sectarian interests These novels embrace not only American writers such as Don DeLillo Dave Eggers Ken Kalfus Thomas Pynchon and Amy Waldman but also the countervailing perspectives of global novelists such as J M Coetzee Orhan Pamuk Mohsin Hamid and Laila Halaby These are not novels about terrorism nor do they seek comfort in the respectful cloak of national mourning Rather they are instances of the novel in terror which recognizes that everything having been changed after 9 11 only the formally inventive presentation will suffice to acknowledge the event's unrepresentability and its shock to the political order
