Martin,2017-01-03 A collection of essays from today s most acclaimed authors from Cheryl Strayed to Roxane Gay to Jennifer Weiner Alexander Chee Nick Hornby and Jonathan Franzen on the realities of making a living in the writing world In the literary world the debate around writing and commerce often begs us to take sides either writers should be paid for everything they do or writers should just pay their dues and count themselves lucky to be published You should never quit your day job but your ultimate goal should be to quit your day job It s an endless confusing and often controversial conversation that despite our bare it all culture still remains taboo In Scratch Manjula Martin has gathered interviews and essays from established and rising authors to confront the age old question how do creative people make money As contributors including Jonathan Franzen Cheryl Strayed Roxane Gay Nick Hornby Susan Orlean Alexander Chee Daniel Jose Older Jennifer Weiner and Yiyun Li candidly and emotionally discuss money MFA programs teaching fellowships finally getting published and what success really means to them Scratch honestly addresses the tensions between writing and money work and life literature and commerce The result is an entertaining and inspiring book that helps readers and writers understand what it s really like to make art in a world that runs on money and why it matters Essential reading for aspiring and experienced writers and for anyone interested in the future of literature Scratch is the perfect bookshelf companion to On Writing Never Can Say Goodbye and MFA vs NYC

The Death of the Artist William Deresiewicz, 2020-07-28 A deeply researched warning about how the digital economy threatens artists lives and work the music writing and visual art that sustain our souls and societies from an award winning essayist and critic There are two stories you hear about earning a living as an artist in the digital age One comes from Silicon Valley There s never been a better time to be an artist it goes If you ve got a laptop you ve got a recording studio If you ve got an iPhone you ve got a movie camera And if production is cheap distribution is free it s called the Internet Everyone s an artist just tap your creativity and put your stuff out there The other comes from artists themselves Sure it goes you can put your stuff out there but who s going to pay you for it Everyone is not an artist Making art takes years of dedication and that requires a means of support If things don t change a lot of art will cease to be sustainable So which account is true Since people are still making a living as artists today how are they managing to do it William Deresiewicz a leading critic of the arts and of contemporary culture set out to answer those questions Based on interviews with artists of all kinds The Death of the Artist argues that we are in the midst of an epochal transformation If artists were artisans in the Renaissance bohemians in the nineteenth century and professionals in the twentieth a new paradigm is emerging in the digital age one that is changing our fundamental ideas about the nature of art and the role of the artist in society
