Engaging Deconstructive Theology Ronald T. Michener, 2007 Engaging Deconstructive Theology presents an evangelical approach for theological conversation with postmodern thinkers Themes are considered from Derrida Foucault Mark C Taylor Rorty and Cupitt developing dialogue from an open minded evangelical perspective Ron Michener draws upon insights from radical postmodern thought and seeks to advance an apologetic approach to the Christian faith that acknowledges a mosaic of human sources including experience literature and the imagination

Messianic 'I' and Rastafari in New Testament Dialogue Delano Vincent Palmer, 2010-04-13 Anyone familiar with the Rastafari movement and its connection with the Bible is struck by the prevalence of messianic I locution found in both As the phenomenon is important in the canonical Testaments more so within the New Testament this study seeks to investigate its significance in certain epistolary pieces Romans 7 14 25 15 14 33 the bio Narratives and the Apocalypse in their historical and cultural milieu The next stage of the investigation then compares the findings of the aforementioned New Testament books with corresponding statements of the Rasta community in order to determine their relevance for the ongoing Anglophone theological enterprise In sum this study seeks to bring into critical dialogue the permutative messianic I of the New Testament with the self understanding of Rastafari

Sacred Texts and Paradigmatic Revolutions J. David Stark, 2014-01-16 This volume applies a rhetorical discourse method to the Yahadic manuscripts and Romans to show how community leaders uniquely determined specific hermeneutical rules axioms and paradigms for their communities Stark examines the Yahadic texts using Thomas Kuhn s arguments about scientific paradigms and their shifts as a framework for considering the patterns through which Paul and the Yahad interpret their scriptures Stark outlines the three ways in which the Teacher determined the perspective from which the Yahad approached its scriptures Following this he analyses the Romans and the three thematic ways that Jesus determined the perspective from which Paul approached his scriptures Despite strong similarities between them the paradigms under which the Yahad and Paul operated moved them to fundamentally different understanding of the kinds of faithfulness they should exhibit towards those whom they received as Yahweh s appointed agents The Yahad understood faithfulness to the Teacher within the context of Torah but Paul understood the Torah within the context of Abraham style faithfulness to Jesus

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2002-02 Christ and Culture Revisited D. A. Carson, 2012-01-31 Called to live in the world but not to be of it Christians must maintain a balancing act that becomes more precarious the further our culture departs from its Judeo Christian roots How should members of the church interact with such a culture especially as deeply enmeshed as most of us have become In this award winning book now in paperback and with a new preface D A Carson applies his masterful touch to that problem After exploring the classic typology of H Richard Niebuhr with its five Christ culture options Carson offers an even more comprehensive paradigm for informing the Christian worldview More than just theoretical Christ and Culture Revisited is a practical guide for helping Christians untangle current messy debates about living in the world

Right With God D. A. Carson, 2002-09-10 Right with God is a study of what the Bible has to say about justification along with reflections as to how this teaching ought to work out in a variety of contexts around the world In addition to the essays on particular parts of the Bible Paul Matthew Luke Acts John James the book includes an essay assessing recent thought on justification and another attempting to put together a synthesis of biblical perspectives on this important theme One chapter relates justification and personal Christian living another weighs the relationship between justification and social justice yet another evaluates the treatment of justification in Roman Catholicism and in various interfaith dialogues For some readers however the most innovative chapters will be those discussing the relevance of the Christian doctrine of justification by faith in Hindu Islamic and Buddhist contexts The contributors have been drawn from evangelical communities around the world

How long, O Lord? (2nd edition) D A CARSON, 2020-05-21 My soul is in anguish How long O Lord how long Psalm 6 8 Personal tragedy and heartache Accident illness and infirmity Drought earthquake tsunami Terrorist atrocities War genocide poverty famine All we have to do is live long enough and we will suffer in one way or another In this new edition of an excellent widely appreciated study Don Carson addresses the issue of evil and suffering with sensitivity pastoral concern and biblical insight He helps Christians prepare for the day when they have to experience a frowning providence and face it with faith and hope because of an unshakable trust in the providence of God

God with Us D. A. Carson, 2009-09-01 The virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son and they will call him Immanuel which means God with us Matthew 1 23 NIV God with Us No phrase could better describe the life and ministry of Jesus as chronicled by the apostle Matthew Through the pages of Matthew's Gospel we get a glimpse of Jesus the Messiah the promised Son of God Read God with Us and encounter the living Christ face to face To Follow Jesus from his humble beginnings in a stable to His baptism by John and His triumphant victory over the temptations of Satan To Listen as He explains God and His kingdom to His disciples Blessed are the poor in spirit The kingdom of Heaven is like a king who prepared a wedding banquet for his son Love your neighbor as yourself To Marvel at the power Jesus displays power to heal to save to bring new life To Follow the Son of God to the cross and beyond This thorough yet practical study of Matthew's Gospel is a must for any Christian who desires a complete understanding of who Jesus Christ is why He came to earth how He is related to the Old Testament and how His life death and resurrection can energize daily life

Hermeneutics, Authority, and Canon D. A. Carson, John Woodbridge, 2005-03-09 Among the many recent discussions of the nature and authority of Scripture I would judge this to be one of the most valuable Particularly in those essays that deal with the actual phenomena of the text of Scripture it displays a level of sophistication and of sympathetic awareness of alternative views that has too often been lacking In contrast to the backs to the wall tone of some conservative defenses of inerrancy these authors write for the most part with the confidence of those who have a coherent and well grounded position to offer The volume will I believe both help to commend Evangelical doctrine to those who suspect it of blind obscurantism and also contribute significantly to mutual understanding among Evangelicals who are too ready to polarize over their different assessments of what it means to honor Scripture as the Word of God R T France Vice Principal London Bible College These thought minded essays are the channel through which conservative scholars must steer for competent interaction with current critical theories for helpful direction in focusing the battle over Scripture and for reflection of conflict areas that Evangelicals must themselves resolve This work rises above the shallow shadow boxing over inerrancy and engages central concerns with academic ability and dignity It puts on the agenda issues that Evangelical leaders must now wrestle Does the Bible contain different kinds of truth Is all divine revelation rational Is the canon really post apostolic No reader will agree with all that is said some will loudly disagree here and there But all students will be stimulated and serious readers edified at the frontiers of current debate Carl F H Henry Lecturer at Large World Visio Teach Us to Pray D. A. Carson, 2002-09-16 In almost 500 years of evangelical praying there has never been a book like this Teach Us to Pray is in effect four books in one It begins with a detailed analysis of the biblical theology of prayer surveying each part of the Scriptures in turn Next comes an investigation of prayer and spirituality within Hinduism Buddhism Islam historic Christianity Puritanism and a different Christian contemporary tradition Roman Catholicism In addition expert commentators offer Lessons in Prayer from the Worldwide Church featuring Korea China Latin America and Africa Finally a group of Christian leaders write about prayer in their individual experience adding a personal dimension to this comprehensive book This is a full library on the subject of prayer conserving the best insights of the past and breaking new ground with penetrating original thinking

Worship: Adoration and Action D. A. Carson, 2002-09-10 Anxious that current interest in and discussion of worship are too much preoccupied with mere mechanics Dr Carson joined with an international group of scholars to produce this final volume of the five Tyndale Consultations First a biblical theology of worship is explored by the Japanese Yoshiaki Hattori and the Australian David Peterson From this foundation there follow reflections upon the practice of worship in nine different contexts denominational including Anglicanism and Lutheranism cultural South America and the Two Thirds World and also the charismatic movement and student groups In the final part the Croat theologian Miroslav Volf concludes that worship is the outworking of God centredness in individual and corporate experience The opinions expressed although at times in disagreement with one another are an indication of the wealth of diversity within the worldwide church For the Love of God D.
