Do Muslim Women Need Saving? Lila Abu-Lughod, 2013-11-12 Do Muslim Women Need Saving is an indictment of a mindset that has justified all manner of foreign interference including military invasion in the name of rescuing women from Islam It offers a detailed moving portrait of the actual experiences of ordinary Muslim women and of the contingencies with Abusing Religion Megan Goodwin, 2020-07-17 Why do Americans presume to know what s really going on in marginal religions Sex abuse happens in all communities but American religious outsiders often face disproportionate allegations of sexual abuse Abusing Religion argues that sex abuse in minority religious communities is an American problem The Fear of Islam, Second Edition Todd H. Green, 2019-09-03 The Fear of Islam not merely a religious one investigates the context of Western views of Islam and offers an introduction to the historical roots and contemporary anxiety regarding Islam within the Western world Tracing the medieval legacy of religious polemics and violence Green orients readers to the complex history and issues of Western relations to Islam from early and late modern colonial enterprises and theories of Orientalism to the production of religious discourses of otherness and the clash of civilizations that proliferated in the era of 9 11 and the war on terror In this second edition Green brings the reader up to date examining the Islamophobic rhetoric of the 2016 US presidential election and the ongoing success of populist and far right parties in Europe Green provides updated data on the rise of anti Muslim legislation for example the Muslim ban in the United States and a wave of full face veil bans in Europe as well as the rise in anti Muslim hate crimes on both sides of the Atlantic since 2015 This important book is essential reading for anyone who wants to better understand current views of Islam and to work toward meaningful peace and understanding between religious communities Muslim Women and Agency: an Australian Context Ghena Krayem, Susan Carland, 2021-11-01 Muslim women's freedom or assumed lack thereof has long been a Western obsession Almost never do we ask what does agency look like to Muslim women Who or what do they think constrains them and how do they challenge that Focussing on the little researched area of the Australian Muslim community this book brings together for the first time diverse accounts from Australian Muslim researchers leaders and community workers to interrogate how Muslim women understand experience and fight for agency Academic and activist personal and political this ground breaking book features the people at the centre of the debate Contributors are Feda Abdo Amira Aftab Mahsheed Ansari Fadi Baghdadi Susan Carland Tasneem Chopra Mehreen Farugi Derya Iner Balawyn Jones Souha Korbatieh Ghena Krayem Mehal Krayem and Ayah Wehbe Sensible Politics William A. Callahan, 2020-01-08 Visual images are everywhere in international politics But how are we to understand them In Sensible Politics William A Callahan uses his expertise in theory and filmmaking to explore not only what visuals mean but also how visuals can viscerally move and connect us in affective communities of sense The book s rich analysis of visual images photographs film art and visual artifacts maps veils walls gardens cyberspace shows how critical scholarship needs to push beyond issues of identity and security to appreciate the creative politics of social ordering and world ordering Here sensible politics isn t just sensory but looks beyond icons and ideology to the affective politics of everyday life It challenges our Eurocentric understanding of international politics by exploring the meaning and impact of visuals from Asia and the Middle East Sensible Politics offers a unique approach to politics that allows us to not only think visually but also feel visually and creatively act visually for a multisensory appreciation of politics Muslim Women and Misogyny Samia Rahman, 2024-06-06 Muslim women are among the most fetishised and objectified groups in society today Much is assumed and imagined about their lives and it is all too easy to succumb to orientalist myths For too long Muslim women have been reduced to two dimensional stereotypes empowered heroines rejecting patriarchal religious teachings or victims of a misogyny believed to run deep within Islam But why is this neatly packaged view so pervasive Are oppression and subjugation actually so central to Muslim women s lives How is this misogyny influenced by white supremacy and Islamophobia And where do the biggest threats to Muslim women s freedom and safety really come from In this bold new book Samia Rahman explores the relationships between misogyny and Muslim women's experiences in Britain today untangling complex issues such as Muslim feminism representation toxic masculinity marriage and sexuality Based on extensive interviews with both women and men from Islamic communities she offers a powerful much needed response to the misappropriation of female Muslim voices revealing the many faces of Muslim Interrogating the Language of "Self" and "Other" in the History of Modern Christian womanhood within the UK Mission Man-Hei Yip, 2020-08-05 This book offers a critical analysis of the use of language in mission studies Language and Christian missionary activity intersect in complicated ways to objectify the other in cross cultural situations Rethinking missiological language is both urgent and necessary to subvert narratives that continue to fetishize the other as cultural stereotypes The project takes a step forward to reconceptualize otherness as gift and such an affirmation should create a pathway for human flourishing and furthermore open new avenues for missiological exploration to address issues arising from a world dominated by bigoted discourses lies and hate speech Tangled in Terror Suhaiymah Manzoor-Khan, 2022-03-20 Lyrical and uncompromising Suhaiymah writes to disrupt gal dem Islamophobia is everywhere It is a narrative and history woven so deeply into our everyday lives that we don't even notice it in our education how we travel our healthcare legal system and at work Behind the scenes it affects the most vulnerable at the border and in prisons Despite this the conversation about Islamophobia is relegated to microaggressions and slurs Suhaiymah Manzoor Khan reveals how Islamophobia not only lives under the skin of those who it marks but is an international political project designed to divide people in the name of security in order to materially benefit global stakeholders It can only be truly uprooted when we focus not on what it is but what it does Tangled in Terror shows that until the most marginalised Muslims are safe nobody is safe Young British Muslims Sadek Hamid, 2016-12-08 Young British Muslims continue to generate strong interest in public discourse However much of this interest is framed in negative terms that tends to associate them with criminality religious extremism or terrorism Focusing instead on other aspects of being young Muslim and British this volume takes a multidisciplinary approach that seeks to normalise the subjects and focus on their everyday lived realities Structured into three sections the collection begins by contextualising the study of young British Muslims before addressing the sensitive social issues highlighted in the media and finally focusing on a variety of case studies which investigate the previously unexplored lived experiences of these young people With contributions from scholars of religion media and criminology as well as current and former practitioners within youth and social work contexts Young British Muslims Between Rhetoric and Realities will appeal to scholars who have an interest in the fastest growing most profiled minority demographic in the UK
