Frisina, 2008-04-10 The Daode Jing a highly enigmatic work rooted in ancient Chinese cosmology ontology metaphysics and moral thinking is regularly offered to college and high school students in religion philosophy history literature Asian studies and humanities courses As a result an ever expanding group of faculty with very different backgrounds and training routinely confront the question How should I teach the Daode Jing Written for non specialists who may not have a background in ancient Chinese culture the essays collected in this volume provide up to date information on contemporary scholarship and classroom strategies that have been successful in a variety of teaching environments A classic text like the Daode Jing generates debate among scholars and teachers who ask questions like Should we capitalize on popular interest in the Daode Jing in our classrooms Which of the many translations and scholarly approaches ought we to use Is it appropriate to think of the Daode Jing as a religious text at all These and other controversies are addressed in this volume Contributors are well known scholars of Daoism including Livia Kohn Norman Girardot Robert Henricks Russell Kirkland Hans Georg Moeller Hall Roth and Michael LaFargue In addition there are essays by Eva Wong Daoist practitioner David Hall philosophy Gary DeAngelis mysticism and a jointly written essay on pedagogical strategies by Judith Berling Geoffrey Foy and John Thompson Chinese religion

Mysticism and Meaning: Multidisciplinary Perspectives Alex S. Kohav, 2019 The volume investigates the question of meaning of mystical phenomena and conversely queries the concept of meaning itself via insights afforded by mystical experiences The collection brings together researchers from such disparate fields as philosophy psychology history of religion cognitive poetics and semiotics in an effort to ascertain the question of mysticism s meaning through pertinent up to date multidisciplinary The discussion commences with Editor s Introduction that probes persistent questions of complexity as well as perplexity of mysticism and the reasons why problematizing mysticism leads to even greater enigmas One thread within the volume provides the contextual framework for continuing fascination of mysticism that includes a consideration of several historical traditions as well as personal accounts of mystical experiences Two contributions showcase ancient Egyptian and ancient Israelite involvements with mystical alterations of consciousness and Christianity s origins being steeped in mystical praxis and four essays highlight mysticism s formative presence in Chinese traditions and Tibetan Buddhism as well as medieval Judaism and Kabbalah mysticism A second more overarching strand within the volume is concerned with multidisciplinary investigations of the phenomenon of mysticism including philosophical psychological cognitive and semiotic analyses To this effect the volume explores the question of philosophy s relation to mysticism and vice versa together with a Wittgensteinian nexus between mysticism facticity and truth language mysticism and supernormal meaning engendered by certain mystical states cognitive poetic analysis of mystical poetry and a semiotic scrutiny of some mystical experiences and their ineffability Finally the volume includes an assessment of the so called New Age authors contention of the convergence of scientific and mystical claims about reality The above two tracks are appended with personal contemporary accounts of mystical experiences in the Prologue and a futuristic envisioning as a fictitious chronicle from the time to come of life without things mystical in the Postscript The volume contains fourteen chapters its international contributors are based in Canada Israel United Kingdom and the United States

The Contemplative Foundations of Classical Daoism Harold D. Roth, 2021-05-01 In The Contemplative Foundations of Classical Daoism Harold D Roth explores the origins and nature of the Daoist tradition arguing that its creators and innovators were not abstract philosophers but rather mystics engaged in self exploration and self cultivation which in turn provided the insights embodied in such famed works as the Daodejing and Zhuangzi In this compilation of essays and chapters representing nearly thirty years of scholarship Roth examines the historical and intellectual origins of Daoism and demonstrates how this distinctive philosophy emerged directly from practices that were essentially contemplative in nature In the first part of the book Roth applies text critical methods to derive the hidden contemplative dimensions of classical Daoism In the second part he applies a contemplative hermeneutic to explore the relationship between contemplative practices and classical Daoist philosophy and in so doing brings early Daoist writings into conversation with contemporary contemplative studies To this he adds an introduction in which he reflects on the arc and influence on the field of early Chinese thought of this rich vein of scholarship and an afterword in which he applies both interpretive methods to the vexing question of the authorship of the Inner Chapters of the Zhuangzi The Contemplative Foundations of Classical Daoism brings to fruition the cumulative investigations and observations of a leading figure in the emerging field of contemplative studies as they pertain to a core component of early Chinese thought

Religious and Philosophical Aspects of the Laozi Mark Csikszentmihalyi, Philip J. Ivanhoe, 1999-04-22 Leading scholars examine religious and philosophical dimensions of the Chinese classic known as the Daodejing or Laozi

Comparative Mysticism Steven T. Katz, 2013 This collection of primary texts introduces readers to the mystical literature of the world's great religious traditions Beginning with an introduction by Steven T Katz a leading scholar of mysticism the anthology comprises poetry prayer narrative and other writings from Jewish Christian Muslim Hindu Buddhist Taoist Confucianist and Native American traditions This collection provides readers not only with the primary mystical texts from each religious tradition but with an explanation of the context of the source and tradition Comparative Mysticism shows how the great mystical traditions of the world are deeply rooted in the religious traditions from which they originated The contextual methodological approach taken throughout the anthology also addresses the critical question of what these mystical traditions at their highest level have in common Despite the prevailing view that mystical traditions throughout the world are essentially similar the presentation of the sources in this volume suggests that in fact the various traditions have distinct teachings and different metaphysical goals The writings collected in Comparative Mysticism address the most fundamental and important methodological epistemological and hermeneutical questions regarding the study and interpretation of mysticism and mystical sources across cultures This anthology will be an invaluable resource to students and scholars of mystic tradition for years to come

Transcendence and Non-Naturalism in Early Chinese Thought Alexis McLeod, Joshua R. Brown, 2020-09-03 Contemporary scholars of Chinese philosophy often presuppose that early China possessed a naturalistic worldview devoid of any non natural concepts such as transcendence Challenging this presupposition head on Joshua R Brown and Alexis McLeod argue that non naturalism and transcendence have a robust and significant place in early Chinese thought This book reveals that non naturalist positions can be found in early Chinese texts in topics including conceptions of the divine cosmogony and apophatic philosophy Moreover by closely examining a range of early Chinese texts and providing comparative readings of a number of Western texts and thinkers the book offers a way of reading early Chinese Philosophy as consistent with the religious philosophy of the East and West including the Abrahamic and the Brahmanistic religions Co written by a philosopher and theologian this book draws out unique insights into early Chinese thought highlighting in particular new ways to consider a range of Chinese concepts including tian dao li and you wu
