Early Film Noir Greed Lust And Murder Hollywood Style:

Early Film Noir William Hare, 2010-07-27 The name is French and it has connections to German expressionist cinema but film noir was inspired by the American Raymond Chandler whose prose was marked by the gripping realism of seedy hotels dimly lit bars main streets country clubs mansions cul de sac apartments corporate boardrooms and flop houses of America Chandler and the other writers and directors including James M Cain Dashiell Hammett Jane Greer Ken Annakin Rouben Mamoulian and Mike Mazurki who were primarily responsible for the creation of the film noir genre and its common plots and themes are the main focus of this work It correlates the rise of film noir with the new appetites of the American public after World War II and explains how it was developed by smaller studios and filmmakers as a result of the emphasis on quality within a deliberately restricted element of cities at night The author also discusses how RKO capitalized on films such as Murder My Sweet and Out of the Past two of film noir's most famous titles and film noir's connection to British noir and the great international triumph of Sir Carol Reed in The Third Man

Film Noir Homer B. Pettet, 2014-11-11 Explores the development of film noir as a cultural and artistic phenomenon This book traces the development of what we know as film noir from the proto noir elements of Feuillade's silent French crime series and German Expressionism to the genre's mid twentieth century popularization and influence on contemporary global media By employing experimental lighting effects oblique camera angles distorted compositions and shifting points of view film noir's style both creates and comments upon a morally adumbrated world where the alienating effects of the uncanny the fetishistic and the surreal dominate What drew original audiences to film noir is an immediate recognition of this modern social and psychological reality Much of the appeal of film noir concerns its commentary on social anxieties its cynical view of political and capitalist corruption and its all too brutal depictions of American modernity This book examines the changing often volatile shifts in representations of masculinity and femininity as well as the genre's complex relationship with Afro American culture observable through noir's musical and sonic experiments Key features Traces the history of film noir from its aesthetic antecedents through its mid century popularization to its influence on contemporary global media Discusses the influence of literary and artistic sources on the development of film noir Includes extensive bibliographies filmographies and recommended noir film viewing Concludes with a reflective chapter by Alain Silver and James Ursini on their own influential studies and collections on film noir criticism

Historical Dictionary of Film Noir Andrew Spicer, 2010-03-19 Film noir literally black cinema is the label customarily given to a group of black and white American films mostly crime thrillers made between 1940 and 1959 Today there is considerable dispute about what are the shared features that classify a noir film and therefore which films should be included in this category These problems are partly caused because film noir is a retrospective label that was not used in the 1940s or 1950s by the film industry as a production category and therefore its existence and features cannot be established through reference to trade documents The Historical Dictionary of Film Noir is a comprehensive guide that ranges from 1940 to present day neo noir It consists of a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography a filmography and over 400 cross referenced dictionary entries on every aspect of film noir and neo noir including key films personnel actors cinematographers composers directors producers set designers and writers themes issues influences visual style cycles of films e.g. amnesiac noirs the representation of the city and gender other forms comics graphic novels television and videogames and noir's presence in world cinema It is an essential reference work for all those

Classic French Noir Deborah Walker-Morrison, 2018-10-18 French film noir has long been seen as a phenomenon distinct from its Hollywood counterpart This book an innovative departure from conventional noir scholarship now adopts a biocultural approach to exploring the French genre through the years 1941-1959 Chapters reveal noir as a product of the social and cultural factors at play in occupied liberated and post war France marked by malaise at military defeat Nazi collaboration and the impact of industrialisation Furthermore the book uncovers the evolutionary mechanisms of sexuality and reproduction beneath the national context that drive gendered behaviour on screen During this period for example the emerging urgent demand for population growth coupled with the severe shortage of eligible males rendered the mating game particularly perilous for traditional women beginning to enter the workplace This explains the cynical yet seductive behaviour of the femme fatale Deborah Walker Morrison focuses on the dangerous often deadly desires of an array of male and female character types moving past the celebrated fatal femme to tragic heroines psychopathic narcissists fatal hommes and gangster anti heroes The book re examines productions by directors such as Henri Georges Clouzot Jacques Becker and Jules Dassin and pulls together strands of sociological biological psychological and evolutionary science to create an illuminating study of the intense human passions underlying the cut throat world of noir

Russia and its Other(s) on Film S. Hutchings, 2008-04-25 Russia's interactions with the West have been a perennial theme of Slavic Studies and of Russian culture and politics Likewise representations of Russia have shaped the identities of many western cultures No longer providing the Evil Empire of 20th American popular consciousness images of Russia have more recently bifurcated along two streams that of the impoverished refugee and that of the sinister mafia gang Focusing on film as an engine of intercultural communication this is the first book to explore mutual perceptions of the foreign Other in the cinema of Russia and the West during and after communism The book s structure reflects both sides of this fascinating dialogue Part 1 covers Russian Soviet cinematic representations of otherness and Part 2 treats western representations of Russia and the Soviet Union An extensive Introduction sets the dialogue in a theoretical context The contributors include leading film scholars from the USA Europe and Russia Siren City Robert Miklitsch,2011-02-01

Hailed for its dramatic expressionist visuals film noir is one of the most prominent genres in Hollywood cinema Yet despite the boom in sound studies the role of sonic effects and source music in classic American noir has not received the attention it deserves Siren City engagingly illustrates how sound tracks in 1940s film noir are often just as compelling as the genre s vaunted graphics Focusing on a wide range of celebrated and less well known films and offering an introductory discussion of film sound Robert Miklitsch mobilizes the notion of audiovisuality to investigate period sound technologies such as the radio and jukebox phonograph and Dictaphone popular American music such as hot black jazz and big numbers featuring iconic performers such as Lauren Bacall Veronica Lake and Rita Hayworth Siren City resonates with the sounds and source music of classic American noir gunshots and sirens swing riffs and canaries Along with the proverbial private eye and femme fatale these audiovisuals are central to the noir aesthetic and one important reason the genre reverberates with audiences around the world Wilde in the Dream Factory Kate Hext,2024-03-13
