Ghostly Matters Haunting And The Sociological Imagination:

Ghostly Matters Avery Gordon, 1997 Avery Gordon's stunningly original and provocatively imaginative book explores the connections linking horror history and haunting. She shows how fiction writing can sometimes function as a social force as a repository of memories that are too brutal to debilitate and too horrifying to register through direct historical or social science narratives. George Lipsitz University of California San Diego

Ghostly Matters Avery Gordon, 1997 Christianity, the Sovereign Subject, and Ethnic Nationalism in Colonial Korea Hannah Amaris Roh, 2022-08-12 One of the first philosophical approaches to the study of Korea's ethnic nationalism. Christianity, the Sovereign Subject and Ethnic Nationalism in Colonial Korea traces the impact of Christianity in the formation of Korean national identity, outlining the metaphysical origins of the concept of the sovereign subject. This monograph takes a meta-historical approach and engages the moral questions of Korean historiography amid the fraught politics of narrating colonialism and the postcolonial period. Indebted to Jacques Derrida's philosophy of deconstruction and his framework of hauntology, this monograph unpacks the ethical consequences of ethnic nationalism, exploring how Western metaphysics has haunted imaginations of freedom in colonial Korea. While most studies of modern Korean nationalism and postcolonialism have taken a cultural, literary, or social scientific approach, this book draws on the thought of Jacques Derrida to offer an innovative intellectual history of Korea's colonial period. By deconstructing the metaphysical claims of turn-of-the-century Protestant missionaries and early modern Korean intellectuals, the book showcases the relevance of Derrida's philosophical method in the study of modern Korean history. This is a must-read for scholars interested in Derrida's historiography and Korean history.

The Politics of Haunting and Memory in International Relations Jessica Auchter, 2014-03-21 International Relations has traditionally focused on conflict and war, but the effects of violence, including dead bodies and memorialization practices, have largely been considered beyond the purview of the field. Drawing on Jacques Derrida's notion of hauntology to consider the politics of life and death, Auchter traces the story of how life and death and a clear division between the two is summoned in the project of statecraft. She argues that by letting ourselves be haunted or looking for ghosts, it is possible to trace how statecraft relies on the construction of such a dichotomy. Three empirical cases offer fertile ground for complicating the picture often painted of memorialization: Rwandan genocide memorials, the underexplored case of undocumented immigrants who die crossing the US-Mexico border, and the body ruins nexus in 9/11 memorialization. Focusing on the role of dead bodies and the construction of particular spaces as the appropriate sites for memory to be situated, it offers an alternative take on the new materialisms movement in international relations by asking after the questions that arise from an ethnographic approach to the subject viewing things from the perspective of dead bodies who occupy the shadowy world of post conflict international politics This work will be of great interest to students and scholars of critical international relations security studies statecraft and memory studies Culture, Power And History Stephen J. Pfohl, 2006 This volume brings together theoretical meditations and empirical studies of the intersection of culture power and history in social life Contributors bring a diversity of critical sociological perspectives and subject matters to this important edited book Lorna Simpson: Source Notes Lauren Rosati, 2025-05-19 This revelatory first look at the paintings of Lorna Simpson b 1960 an artist who has worked primarily as a photographer for much of her career examines this significant new development in her practice over the last decade Simpson s recent works midway between photography and painting advance her incisive explorations of gender race and history through bodies that emerge and disappear peering from inky surfaces or dissolving into landscapes of melting ice Her paintings draw on documentary photographs and images from vintage Ebony and Jet magazines combining screen printed collages of found images with washes of colorful ink on fiberglass wood or clayboard The texts in this volume explore how Simpson s fascination with time memory and the indeterminacy of representation propels her experiments in works that are both figurative and abstract portraits and landscapes paintings and photographs Spectral Spaces and Hauntings Christina Lee, 2017-02-17 This anthology explores the spatial dimension and politics of haunting It considers how the appearance of absence emptiness and the imperceptible can indicate an overwhelming presence of something that once was and still is t here At its core the book asks how and why do certain places haunt us Drawing from a diversity of mediums forms and disciplinary approaches the contributors to Spectral Spaces and Hauntings illustrate the complicated ways absent presences can manifest and be registered The case studies range from the memory sites of a terrorist attack the lost home a vanished mining town and abandoned airports to the post apocalyptic wastelands in literary fiction the photographic and filmic surfaces where spectres materialise and the body as a site for re corporealising the disappeared and dead In ruminating on the afteraffects of spectral spaces on human experience the anthology importantly foregrounds the ethical and political imperative of engaging with ghosts and following their traces A Theory of Spectral Rhetoric Seth Pierce, 2021-08-23 This book synthesizes Jacques Derrida s hauntology and spectrality with affect theory in order to create a rhetorical framework analyzing the felt absences and hauntings of written and oral texts The book opens with a history of hauntology spectrality and affect theory and how each of those ideas have been applied The book then moves into discussing the unique elements of the rhetorical framework known as the rhetorrectional situation Three case studies taken from the Christian tradition serve to demonstrate how spectral rhetoric works The first is fictional C S Lewis The Great Divorce The second is non fiction Tim Jennings The God Shaped Brain The final one is taken from homiletics Bishop Michael Curry s royal wedding 2018 sermon After the case studies conclusion offers the reader a summary and ideas future applications for spectral rhetoric Ghosts of Atlanta Rhana Gittens

Wheeler,2024-09-25 The Black community of Atlanta a city once heralded as the Black Mecca of the South is currently under threat of dislocation by cultural gentrification Amid the city s urban renaissance residents face rising property values taxes and rents as well as the more insidious loss of a collective identity and belonging In Ghosts of Atlanta Cultural Gentrification of the Black Mecca author Rhana Gittens Wheeler examines the fading echoes of African American memory and historical narratives in Atlanta As encroaching investors and business owners enter historically Black areas many have sought to rebrand entire neighborhoods making those spaces more palatable to would be gentrifiers and less recognizable to former residents Exploring material sites of meaning including monuments museums art exhibitions and more Gittens Wheeler unearths tensions between the city s proud legacy as a hub of political and economic equality for Black Americans and the unsettling reality of cultural displacement Gittens Wheeler interrogates and critiques recent developments in the city including the Atlanta BeltLine craft breweries and attractions that romanticize the civil rights movement Drawing inspiration from literary giants like Ralph Ellison and Toni Morrison as well as contemporary voices like 2 Chainz and T I Gittens Wheeler weaves together elements of rhetorical criticism archival studies and interviews to confront pressing questions What happens when symbols of cultural memory and identity are uprooted How do residents grapple with the erasure of their narratives forced to feel unwelcome in their own neighborhoods In addressing these questions Gittens Wheeler uncovers the complex dynamics of shared spaces exposing both the pain of displacement and the possibility of redemption A reverberating call to action Ghosts of Atlanta Cultural Gentrification of the Black Mecca demonstrates that Black stories inscribed in space are necessary for bringing a moral reckoning to the heart of America s national identity Reading Aridity in Western

American Literature Jada Ach,Gary Reger,2020-12-14 In literary and cinematic representations deserts often betoken collapse and dystopia Reading Aridity in Western American Literature offers readings of literature set in the American Southwest from ecocritical and new materialist perspectives This book explores the diverse epistemologies histories relationships futures and possibilities that emerge from the representation of American deserts in fiction film and literary art and traces the social cultural economic and biotic narratives that foreground deserts prompting us to reconsider new provocative modes of human nonhuman engagement in arid ecogeographies The Ghosts Within Janna

Odabas,2018-11-09 The ghost as a literary figure has been interpreted multiple times spiritually psychoanalytically sociologically or allegorically Following these approaches Janna Odabas understands ghosts in Asian American literature as self reflexive figures With identity politics at the core of the ghost concept Odabas emphasizes how ghosts critically renegotiate the notion of Asian America as heterogeneous and transnational and resist interpretation through a morally or politically preconceived approach to Asian American literature Responding to the tensions of the scholarly field Odabas argues that the literary works under scrutiny openly play with and rethink conceptions of ghosts as mere exotic ethnic ornamentation Silence and Society Charles Lemert,2025-07-31 Silence and Society addresses the reality that social sciences have ignored the importance of silence in human communication Without communication there is no community and thus no society Yet as classic communication theory explains communication must always deal with noise Increasingly as cyber technologies and media have gained the upper hand in social life so have they become purveyors of empty noise from mindless sitcom television to uninformed talk radio to cable news blather and more The book is organized into three sections each corresponding to a level of social order Each bears a distinctive relation to the general problem of silence and noise in human community Part One Social Facts of Silence presents examples of the ways silence intrudes on vital aspects of human life in personal self understanding in the irony that direction communication requires a third absent party such as Goffman s ego identity in the fact that personal identity is the challenge of dealing with the trouble of deciding who we are in a given social setting Part Two Noise Dreams and Identity Confusions considers a range of community issues from the strange noises of quiet neighborhoods to the way the necessity of social conformity silences individual autonomy to the fact that the dead are ever present in daily language and behavior especially in common religious practices Finally Part Three Waste Death and the Beyond of Time suggests the principal ways the growing global environment aggravates human inequality by forcing the poor into zones of exclusion by increasing the mountain of human waste that in turn wastes human lives by the extent to which global theories and programs for economic development are little more

Reading Hilary Mantel Lucy Arnold,2019-12-12 From the ghosts which reside in Midlands council houses in Every Day is Mother s Day to the resurrected historical dead of the Booker Prize winning Wolf Hall and Bring up the Bodies the writings of Hilary Mantel are often haunted by supernatural figures One of the first book length studies of the writer s work Reading Hilary Mantel explores the importance of ghosts in the full range of her fiction and non fiction writing and their political social and ethical resonances Combining material from original interviews with the author herself with psychoanalytic historicist and deconstructivist critical perspectives Reading Hilary Mantel is a landmark study of this important and popular contemporary novelist

Revolutionary Feminisms Brenna Bhandar,Rafeef Ziadah,2020-08-18 A unique book tracing forty years of anti racist feminist thought In a moment of rising authoritarianism climate crisis and ever more exploitative forms of neoliberal capitalism there is a compelling and urgent need for radical paradigms of thought and action Through interviews with key revolutionary scholars Bhandar and Ziadah present a thorough discussion of how anti racist anti capitalist feminisms are crucial to building effective political coalitions Collectively these interviews with leading scholars including Angela Y Davis Silvia Federici and many others trace the ways in which black indigenous post colonial and Marxian feminisms have created new ways of seeing new theoretical frameworks for analysing political problems and new ways of relating to one another Focusing on migration neo imperial militarism the state the prison industrial complex social reproduction and many other pressing themes the range of feminisms traversed in this volume show how freedom requires revolutionary transformation in the organisation of the economy social relations political structures and our psychic and symbolic worlds The interviews
