

The background of the book cover is an abstract painting. It features a central figure with a face, rendered in a style reminiscent of Vincent van Gogh's 'Olympia' or similar post-impressionist portraits. The figure is surrounded by various colors and textures, including a prominent blue and white area on the right side. The overall composition is complex and layered, with a mix of warm and cool tones.

Gilbert Simondon's Psychic and Collective Individuation David Scott, 2014-07-28 One of the most innovative and brilliant philosophers of his generation but largely neglected until he was brought to public attention by Gilles Deleuze Gilbert Simondon presents a challenge to nearly every category and method of traditional philosophy Psychic and Collective Individuation is undoubtedly Simondon's most important work and its influence clearly felt in Stiegler and DeLanda has continued to grow David Scott provides the first full introduction to this work which will inspire as well as instruct philosophers working in Continental thought philosophy of science social theory and political philosophy

Psychoanalysis, Catastrophe & Social Action Robin McCoy Brooks, 2021-09-28 Winner of the IAJIS Book Award 2023 for Best Applied Book This fascinating volume uses psychoanalytic theory to explore how political subjectivity comes about within the context of global catastrophe via the emergence of collective individuations through trans subjectivity Serving as a jumping off point to address the structural linkage between collective catastrophe subject group and political transformation trans subjectivity is the central tenet of the book conceptualized as a psyche social dynamic that initiates social transformation and which may be enhanced in the clinical setting Each chapter investigates a distinct manifestation of trans subjectivity in relation to various real world events as they manifest clinically in the analytic couple and within group processes The author builds her conceptual arguments through a psyche social reading of Kristeva's theory of signifiante sublimation Lacan's 1945 essay on collective logic Heidegger's secular reading of the apostle Paul's Christian revolution and i ek Badiou and Jung's conception of the neighbor within a differentiated humanity The book features clinical illustrations an auto ethnographic study of the emergence of an AIDS clinic an accounting of trans subjectivity in Black revolutionary events in the U S and an examination of some expressions of care that arose in response to the COVID 19 pandemic Psychoanalysis Catastrophe Social Action is important reading for psychoanalysts psycho dynamic based therapists psychologists group therapists philosophers and political activists

E-Co-Affectivity Marjolein Oele, 2020-04-01 E Co Affectivity is a philosophical investigation of affectivity in various forms of life photosynthesis and growth in plants touch and trauma in bird feathers the ontogenesis of human life through the placenta the bare interface of human skin and the porous materiality of soil Combining biology phenomenology Ancient Greek thought new materialisms environmental philosophy and affect studies Marjolein Oele thinks through the concrete living places that show the receptive responsive power of living beings to be affected and to affect She focuses on these localized interfaces to explain how affectivity emerges in places that are always evolving creative porous and fluid Every interface is material but is also more than its current materiality in cocreating place time and being After extensively describing the effects of the milieu and community within which each example of affectivity takes place in the final chapter Oele adds a prescriptive ethical lens that formulates a new epoch beyond the Anthropocene one that is sensitive to the larger ecological communal concerns at stake

The Future of Humanity Pavlina Radia, Sarah Fiona Winters, Laurie Kruk, 2019-08-12 What is the future of humanity What does it mean to be human in the posthuman age What responsibility does humankind have towards others and their environments How are the stories that humans tell themselves implicated in the very power asymmetries and eco political challenges that they bemoan Taking a cross disciplinary approach to the posthuman age the essays in this collection speak to the multifaceted geographies and counter geographies of humanity probing into the possible futures we face as planetary species Some of these include ecological issues generated by centuries of neglecting our environment s power asymmetries stemming from economic and cultural globalization violence and its affective politics informed by cultural ethnic and racial genocides religious disputes social inequities produced by consumerism gender normativity and the increasing impact of digital and AI artificial intelligence technology on the human body as well as historical socio political not to mention ethical relations

The Work of Difference Audrey Wasser, 2016-03-01 The Work of Difference addresses a fundamental ontological question What is literature And at the heart of this question it argues is the problem of the new How is it that new works or new forms are possible within the rule governed orders of history language use or the social How are new works in turn recognizable to already existing institutions Tracing the relationship between literature and the problem of newness back to a set of concerns first articulated in early German romanticism this book goes on to mount a critique of romantic tendencies in contemporary criticism in order ultimately to develop an original theory of literary production Along the way it offers new readings of major modernist novels by Samuel Beckett Marcel Proust and Gertrude Stein

Philosophy After Nature Rosi Braidotti, Rick Dolphijn, 2017-06-23 The significant changes that have dominated the social and the scientific world over the last thirty years have brought about upheavals and critical re appraisals that have proved quite positive in fostering 21st century thought This interdisciplinary collection of state of the art essays offers innovative and thought provoking insights concerning contemporary philosophical and cultural reflection on the nature culture interaction Starting from the assumption that the binary opposition between the two terms has been replaced by a continuum of the two the volume explores both the terms of this new interaction and its implications Technology occupies a central place in the shift towards a nature cultural continuum but it is not the only factor The consequences of economic globalization notably the global spread of digital mediation also account for this change of perspective Last but not least the climate change issue and a renewed urgency around the state of the environmental crisis also contribute to bring the natural much closer to home Digital mediation has by now become a standard way to live and interact The electronic frontier has altered dramatically the practice of education and research especially in the Humanities and social sciences with direct consequences for the institutional practice and the methodology of these disciplinary fields

This book aims to explore the implications of these complex shifts for the practice of critical thinking      Theatre and the Virtual Zornitsa Dimitrova, 2022-03-20 Theatre and the Virtual lays out a set of conceptual instruments for the articulation and engendering of the forces of theatrical potentiality Creating a passage towards a reconstitution of the given a theatre of the virtual opens bodies in motion to a region of an ongoing genesis of forces The outcome regimes of constraint are abandoned through a radical practice of ecological attunement Violence is eschewed through an onto ecology of touch Closed systems are repotentialised to become co constitutive of their environments A logic of spectrality settles in not so much entities as atmospheres not so much a being as a style of being not so much a body as multitudinous milieus of response This is the task of a theatre of the virtual to safeguard the possibility of the extra epistemological and uphold one's right to offer accounts of oneself from outside of being all the while creating a fractured record of the wondrous mutations of a moving gesturing body This book will be of great interest to students and scholars in theatre philosophy new materialisms environmental humanities gesture and the ontology of response      The Films of Apichatpong Weerasethakul Anik Sarkar, Jayjit Sarkar, 2024-01-15 Delving into Apichatpong Weerasethakul's films this book uncovers a plethora of conceptual paradigms Apichatpong's films frequently utilize rural Thailand as a backdrop showcasing daily life interactions rituals and customs all infused with a Southeast Asian essence This utilization of local imagery provides a national quality to his works allowing a global audience to explore both urban and rural aspects of Thai society along with discourses on history culture politics and practices Beyond the surface the films also address universal and intricate themes transcending cultural boundaries The book delves into a range of lesser explored aspects regarding the films and filmmaking of Apichatpong developing fresh perspectives on the representation of nonhumans hybrid forms transmedia plot technique production among others With meticulous analyses of his key works this interdisciplinary study unveils the threads that bind Apichatpong's creative practice innovative techniques and philosophical insights An essential read for cinephiles scholars and seekers of cinematic depth this book uncovers the vibrant tapestry of meaning within Apichatpong's enigmatic film worlds      Moments of Rupture: The Importance of Affect in Medical Education and Surgical Training A. O. Mahendran, 2019-07-09 Surgery is a craft specialty doing in response to what is seen felt and anticipated The potent odours and the raw images of flesh elicit strong sensations and responses in the here and now or thisness haecceities of practice These experiences trigger a world of affects and senses that can disturb or rupture familiar or established ways of thinking and knowing This book attempts to articulate these emotional complexities of learning and practice by exploring affective encounters with the uncertainty of medical events Employing a practice based inquiry grounded in philosophical notions of affect and related concepts real stories of actual practice are analysed and theorised to examine how events of clinical practice come to matter or become meaningful to surgeons potentially disclosing new or modified capacities to see think understand and act The philosophical writings of Alfred North Whitehead Gilles Deleuze Gilbert Simondon and Brian Massumi inform the exploration The critical discussions of this book are relevant for healthcare professionals medical educators practitioners and researchers interested in its main exploration the affective conditions that emerge from disturbances in practice and their power to shape construct and transform how professionals understand their practice and function within it      Using Gramsci Michele

Filippini, 2016-11-20 Thought of as one of the world's greatest political theorists Antonio Gramsci's writings push readers to interpret and change the world In Using Gramsci Michele Filippini enlarges upon his seminal works disentangling it from the prevailing orthodoxy in Gramscian analysis The book explores his work on ideology the individual collective organisms crisis and temporality in addition to the more traditional areas of his thought such as hegemony and civil society Through this close examination the use value of Gramscian theoretical instruments to a broad range of disciplines including political science education language cultural studies postcolonial studies anthropology and geography becomes apparent Filippini's approach explicates and emphasises the importance of one of the most popular and enduring Marxist figures      Sound and Affect

Judith Lochhead, Eduardo Mendieta, Stephen Decatur Smith, 2021-04-23 There is no place on earth that does not echo with the near or distant sounds of human activity More than half of humanity lives in cities meaning the daily soundtrack of our lives is filled with sound whether it be sonorous harmonious melodic syncopated discordant cacophonous or even screeching This new anthology aims to explore how humans are placed in certain affective attitudes and dispositions by the music sounds and noises that envelop us Sound and Affect maps a new territory for inquiry at the intersection of music philosophy affect theory and sound studies The essays in this volume consider objects and experiences marked by the correlation of sound and affect in music and beyond the voice as it speaks stutters cries or sings music whether vocal instrumental or machine made and our sonic environments whether natural or artificial and how they provoke responses in us Far from being stable correlations of sound and affect are influenced and even determined by factors as diverse as race class gender and social and political experience Examining these factors is key to the project which gathers contributions from a cross disciplinary roster of scholars including both established and new voices This agenda setting collection will prove indispensable to anyone interested in innovative approaches to the study of sound and its many intersections with affect and the emotions

Holism Christian McMillan, Roderick Main, David Henderson, 2019-12-06 Holism Possibilities and Problems brings together leading contributors in a ground breaking discussion of holism The terms holism and holistic arouse strong emotional responses in contemporary culture whether this be negative or positive and the essays in this interdisciplinary collection probe each in its own way the possibilities and problems inherent in thinking holistically Christian McMillan Roderick Main and David Henderson bring together established academics and emerging scholars across subject areas and disciplinary approaches to reveal the multiplicity and complexity of issues involved in holism Divided into four parts the chapters determine key strands of thinking explicitly or implicitly underpinning contemporary holistic thought including what ethical conclusions might most reasonably be drawn from such thought Accessible and diverse this extensive volume contains
