Gilles Deleuze: Image and Text Eugene W. Holland, Daniel W. Smith, Charles J. Stivale, 2009-06-04 Gilles Deleuze Image and Text focuses on the intersection between Deleuzian philosophy and the arts Deleuze combined exceptionally rigorous insight into important Western philosophers with an extraordinary sensitivity to literature music painting and film He was intensely interested in the medium of thought which is by no means limited to philosophy alone it also takes place in science mathematics literature painting and cinema to name just some of the genres of thought to which Deleuze most often refers His own thinking emerged almost as often in conversation with artists and literary writers as in engagement with other philosophers and his philosophy cannot be fully grasped without an understanding of his engagement with the arts This significant and timely collection of essays from an international team of leading Deleuze scholars brings together interpretations and commentaries from Deleuzian perspectives on subjects such as literature painting music and film The book represents diverse modes of engagement with Deleuze's philosophical concepts and problems and demonstrates the central role the arts play in any understanding of his philosophical ideas

Gilles Deleuze Eugene W. Holland, Daniel Warren Smith, Charles J. Stivale, 2009 Gilles Deleuze Image and Text focuses on the intersection between Deleuzian philosophy and the arts Deleuze combined exceptionally rigorous insight into important Western philosophers with an extraordinary sensitivity to literature music painting and film He was intensely interested in the medium of thought which is by no means limited to philosophy alone it also takes place in science mathematics literature painting and cinema to name just some of the genres of thought to which Deleuze most often refers His own thinking emerged almost as often in conversation with artists and literature

Comics Beyond Text and Image Benjamin Fraser, 2025-08-08 Comics Beyond Text and Image conceptualizes comics as bodies exploring the substance and the many movements and expressions of comics first and foremost in terms of corporeality The book centers on the metaphor of the comics body as a way of opening up our understandings of what comics do It begins from the position that narrative in comics is corporeal expressed in and through the visual bodies into which the page can be divided analytically and from the interaction of the human body with the comics body Drawing on the philosophy of Baruch Spinoza the author argues for the primary role of visual narration over textual narration develops a theory of the comics text as a cohesive and variegated cartography and shows how thought is expressed in the extensive space of the comics page This theory is then applied in snapshots of individual comics works that each in their own way continue the philosophical discussions of embodiment This book moves beyond traditional modes of narration or narrative and will appeal to students and scholars of comics studies as well as to those thinking about visual narrative more broadly and to scholars of Spinoza and Deleuze of this complex continent as seen mostly from within and with self reflective insights from literary socio historical and cinematic perspectives By following the marginal route created by the essays the volume juxtaposes as in a mosaic a range of artistic discourses produced in many European languages Each of these discourses highlights a different perception of belonging or not belonging to Europe and each of these discourses brings to the fore in its respective society a fresh perspective on new European territories seen not as the other but rather as contiguous tiles in a mosaic of idiosyncrasies Lying one next to the other these territories engage in dialogue poetically harmoniously or dissonantly in an attempt to create through their juxtaposition an enigmatic poetic discourse of the margins Anywhere or Not at All Peter

What do photographs want Do they need any accompaniment in today s image saturated society Can writing inflect photography or vice versa in such a way that neither medium takes precedence Or are they in constant inexorable battle with each other Taking nine case studies from the 1990s French speaking world from France North Africa and the Caribbean this book attempts to define the interaction between non fictional written text caption essay fragment poem and photographic image Having considered three categories of intermediality between text and photography the collaborative the self collaborative and the retrospective the book concludes that the dimensions of their interaction are not simple and two fold visibility versus alongside textuality but threefold and therefore complex Thus the photo text as defined here is concerned as much with orality the demotic the popular the vernacular as it is with visual and written culture That text image collaborations give space to the spoken spectral traces of human discourse suggests that the key element of the photo text is its radical provisionality Didi-Huberman and the image Chari Larsson, 2020-09-29

Philosopher and art historian Georges Didi Huberman is one of the most innovative and influential critical thinkers writing today This book is the first English language study of his writing on images An image is a form of representation but what are the philosophical frameworks supporting it The book considers how Didi Huberman takes up this question repeatedly over the course of his career Placing his project in relation to major historical and intellectual contexts it shows not only how he modifies dominant disciplinary traditions but also how the study of images is central to a new way of thinking about poststructuralist inspired art history

The Poetics of Visuality Justin J. White , 2024-11-14 Justin J White explores the nature of images in ancient Israel through a reconceptualization of the relationship between image and text He proposes that in ancient Israel texts evoked images as a core part of their rhetoric Rather than conceptualizing texts and images as ontologically or functionally distinct media he argues that both media are mixed media even while neither medium is reducible to the other In order to make this argument he focuses on the visual aspects of textual rhetoric what he terms the poetics of visuality He builds his argument across three text specific axes of visual rhetoric ekphrasis the visual imagination and material agency He makes the claim that each of these three axes are endemic to Israelite literature and mutually contribute to the formation of a robust ontology of visual representation in ancient Israel Photo-textualities Marsha Bryant, 1996 This anthology investigates books that juxtapose photographs and written language photo texts considering a variety of examples from America Britain Canada and France Ranging from Nathaniel Hawthorne's The Marble Faun to Michael Ondaatje's postmodern novel Coming Through Slaughter and Edward Said's postdocumentary After the Last Sky the contributors analyses address photo textuality's implications for representation and its cultural contexts A truly interdisciplinary collection Photo Textualities features contributors who work in literary studies English romance languages as well as contributors who work in media studies film graphic arts Photo Textualities invigorates critical inquiry with its range of literary and photographic genres including photo texts that elude genre classification Besides documentary and biography nonfiction literary genres include autobiography and travelogue The range of photographic genres extends to landscapes portraiture documentary tourist snapshots and media images as well as to the standard photo textual forms of published album and photo essay

Kinematic Rhetoric Joddy Murray,2020-04-24 Joddy Murray in Kinematic Rhetoric puts forward a theory of rhetoric that adds the elements of movement sound image affect and duration to traditional accounts of digital visual and multimodal rhetorics His concept of time affect images provides a complex and nuanced theory for composing that builds upon his earlier concept of nondiscursive texts By turning to Deleuze s work on cinema Murray presents the time affect image which generates and amplifies affectivity through duration and motion and is the key concept in this rhetorical theory Motion he argues creates meaning that is independent of the content and like all images carries with it the potential for persuasion through the affective domain Iphigenias at Aulis Sean Alexander Gurd,2018-07-05 How should a literary scholar approach a text characterized not by stability but by variation and flux This book offers a radical new perspective on the limits and the accomplishments of the modern traditions of textual criticism in classics Sean Alexander Gurd takes as his starting point the case of a single Greek tragedy by Euripides one of his last According to ancient accounts the Iphigenia at Aulis was produced at the city Dionysia the great festival of Athenian tragedy sometime after Euripides died between 407 and 405 BCE Whether the text performed then was entirely the work of Euripides and whether the version that appears in the manuscripts reflects either that performance or its defunct author s design are unknown But since the mid eighteenth century the mysteries and conflicting evidence concerning Iphigenia at Aulis have given rise to an array of different attempts to reconstruct the original and every generation has seen a version of the play that is radically different from those that came before Gurd pioneers a literary philology comfortable with this textual multiplicity capable of reading Iphigenias at Aulis in the plural Regarding the dossier of successive editions of Iphigenia at Aulis as a symbol for the condition of modern textual reason Gurd shows lovers of classical literature exactly how contingent the texts they read really are Towards a New

Anthropology of the Embodied Mind: Maine de Biran's Physio-Spiritualism from 1800 to the 21st Century

,2023-11-13 This exploration in the history of ideas examines the groundbreaking notion of the embodied mind in its analysis by the French philosopher and politician Maine de Biran 1766 1824 and in its afterlife consciousness is generated through frequent interaction between the voluntary and the spiritual The conscious active self is constituted in its sovereign autonomy as free and undivided by an inner act of willful resistance a physical effort towards its own body and the world For the first time a multidisciplinary group of senior and junior researchers from Japan USA and Europe investigate origins and discursive cross fertilization of this concept around 1800 an intermediary stage between 1870 and 1945 and its influence upon existentialism phenomenology and deconstructivism during the postwar period and beyond from 1943 to 2010
