The Girl from Montana Grace Livingston Hill, 1922 There was a kind of tremulous courage in her face She had a duty to perform and she was resolved to do it without delay She shaded her eyes with her hand from the glare of the sun set a firm foot upon the threshold and with one wild glance around to see whether all was as she had left it entered her home and stood for a moment shuddering in the middle of the floor

The Girl from Montana Grace Livingston Hill, 2014-12-10 The late afternoon sun was streaming in across the cabin floor as the girl stole around the corner and looked cautiously in at the door There was a kind of tremulous courage in her face She had a duty to perform and she was resolved to do it without delay She shaded her eyes with her hand from the glare of the sun set a firm foot upon the threshold and with one wild glance around to see whether all was as she had left it entered her home and stood for a moment shuddering in the middle of the floor A long procession of funerals seemed to come out of the past and meet her eye as she looked about upon the signs of the primitive unhallowed one which had just gone out from there a little while before The girl closed her eyes and pressed their hot dry lids hard with her cold fingers but the vision was clearer even than with her eyes open She could see the tiny baby sister lying there in the middle of the room so little and white and pitiful and her handsome careless father sitting at the head of the rude home made coffin sober for the moment and her tired disheartened mother faded before her time dry eyed and haggard beside him But that was long ago almost at the beginning of things for the girl
