Accountability for public money - progress report Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Committee of Public Accounts, 2012-04-17 This report is a follow up to the Committee's report on Accountability for Public Money HC 740 session 2010 11 ISBN 9780215559029 an issue at the core of the relationship between Parliament and government Accounting Officers remain accountable to Parliament for funds voted to their departments but the policy intention is that local bodies will have significant discretion over the services they deliver In the Government's response Accountability Adapting to Decentralisation Sir Bob Kerslake drew a distinction between those services that government delivers directly and those that it may fund but are delivered in more decentralised arrangements He proposed that Accounting Officers set out in Accountability System Statements the arrangements they have in place to provide assurance about the probity and value for money of funds spent through devolved systems All departments are expected to produce Statements by summer 2012 Departments have made a genuine effort to develop arrangements which reconcile accountability and localism but the Statements so far are unwieldy and considerably more needs to be done to improve their clarity consistency and completeness There is concern that accountability frameworks must drive value for money and critically are sufficiently robust to address the operational or financial failure of service providers Departments are placing increasing reliance on market mechanisms such as user choice to drive up performance and value for money but there are limits to what these mechanisms can achieve The Treasury needs to take ownership of the system and ensure that the Comptroller and Auditor General has the necessary powers and rights of access to examine the value for money of funds spent through devolved systems OPPAGA Progress Report Florida. Campbell, Margo Orlin, 2014-04-25 Used as both a core textbook in PT programs and as a clinical reference Physical Therapy for Children 4th Edition provides the essential information needed by PTs both student and professional when working with children. Like the previous bestselling editions the 4th edition follows the practice pattern categories of the Guide to Physical Therapist Practice and uses the IFC model of the disabling process as it presents up to date evidence based coverage of treatment. In this latest edition Suzann Campbell DeLapp Robert J Palisano and Margo N Orlin have added more case studies and video clips additional chapters and Medline linked references online and Evidence to Practice boxes to make it easy to find and remember important information. Provides comprehensive foundational knowledge in decision making screening development motor control and motor learning the impairments of body function and structure and the PT management of pediatric disorders. Reflects a family centered care model throughout to help you understand how to involve children and their caregivers in developing and implementing intervention plans. Emphasizes an evidence based approach that incorporates the latest research for the best outcomes. Follows the practice pattern guidelines of the Guide to Physical Therapist Practice 2nd Edition which sets the standard for physical therapy practice. Features the International Classification of Function Disability and Health ICF of the World Health Organization WHO as the model for the disabling process emphasizing activity rather than functional limitations and participation rather than disability in keeping with the book's focus on prevention of disability.

Provides extensive case studies that show the practical application of material covered in the text and are often accompanied by online video clips illustrating the condition and its management Makes it easy to access key information with plenty of tables and boxes that organize and summarize important points Clearly demonstrates important concepts and clinical conditions you ll encounter in practice with over 800 illustrations Takes learning to a deeper level with additional resources on the Evolve website featuring Over 40 video clips that correspond to case studies and demonstrate conditions found in each chapter Helpful resources including web links Questions and exercises you ll find helpful when preparing for the pediatric specialist certification exam Zero to Three ,1997
