Edited with Translation... by Gerard Murphy, 1956 Prayerful Ireland Helena Connolly, 2018-12-11 Ireland's faith inheritance has made us who we are as witnessed by the ruined monasteries and intricate high crosses dotted around our countryside by the holy wells and Mass rocks that are often hidden from sight and by the shrines and holy places throughout the country Ireland has changed dramatically and traditional devotions are no longer part of our everyday lives Nevertheless there is an underlying desire for something more and that desire has led many to rediscover the riches of our past the pilgrim paths that crisscross our country These ancient paths frequently traverse some of the most beautiful scenery in Ireland from Kerry to Donegal from Wicklow to Galway There is beauty and mystery within these landscapes which the early monks celebrated wonderfully in their poetry and which drew them to God and to prayer Now once again people are finding in the silence of a valley or the rippling of a stream or the simplicity of a holy well an opening to mystery and an invitation to prayer They are learning that these ancient paths can be our paths as well
