in fruitful negotiations It presents various techniques to help you resolve any conflict with anyone ABOUT THE AUTHOR Roger Fisher 1922-2012 was an American at Harvard Law School With his wife founded the Harvard Negotiation Project William Ury an anthropologist who works as a negotiator for the United Nations worldwide Bruce Patton a Harvard lecturer and former partner in an international consulting firm that helps companies improve their negotiations INTRODUCTION Think of the world as it was just a few decades ago decisions were made almost exclusively by one person whoever was in charge Back then the world was a flat hierarchy that everyone knew the flow of power was dictated by the man at the top The world has become much more multicultural and increasingly diverse The rules of the game are changing and the world is becoming more democratic In the past participate in company decisions even the least powerful employees were encouraged to participate in company decisions unlike before because the hierarchy can no longer find untouchable areas of influence in the company Arguing with friends but which must see very different results haggling over prices with suppliers or negotiating international arms embargoes
The new world of negotiation is more complex and more challenging than ever before But the good news is that the tools you need to get to Yes are available every day of your life You will learn to negotiate well with everyone based on the principles of
