Confronting Religious Judgmentalism Catherine M. Wallace,2016-05-23 Come to church or go to hell That s religious bullying It s judgmentalism And it s a theological distortion a distortion insisting that shame and self loathing are morally appropriate In Christian humanist tradition God is not some cosmic judge eager to smite all of us for our sinfulness God is compassion We are cherished by God beyond our wildest imagining We are called to radical hospitality not to crass judgmentalism So where does this religious judgmentalism come from It is the heritage of medieval theocracy a violent vindictive God of command and control was far more useful politically than a God of compassion hospitality and forgiveness It comes from literal minded misreading of the story of Adam and Eve and the forbidden fruit a story about shame not disobedience And it comes from political success in exploiting deep seated liabilities in the American soul we spend our lives trying to prove ourselves a hopeless task There s an alternative In the Christian humanist tradition authentic moral judgment is rooted in conscience as a creative process Morality is an art demanding both rigorous consideration of the facts and thoughtful introspection Conscience properly understood and thoughtfully practiced is an antidote to shame incessant self criticism and chronic self doubt embed container position relative padding bottom 56 25% height 0 overflow hidden max width 100% embed container iframe embed container object embed container embed position absolute top 0 left 0 width 100% height 100%
