Document C

Source: Excerpts from two letters written by General Robert E. Lee to Confederate President Jefferson Davis, 1863.

Near Gettysburg, Pa., July 4, 1863.

Mr. PRESIDENT:

It is believed that the enemy suffered severely in these operations, but our own loss has not been light. General Burksdale is killed. Generals Cornett and Armistead are missing.... Generals Pender and Trimble are wounded in the leg, General Hood in the arm, and General Heth slightly in the head. General Kemper, it is feared, is mortally wounded. Our losses embrace many other valuable officers and men....

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

R. E. LEE, General

Camp Orange, Va., August 8, 1863.

Mr. PRESIDENT:

Your letters of July 28 and August 2 have been received, and I have waited for a leisure hour to reply, but I fear that will never come....

I have seen and heard of expression of discontent in the public journals at the result of the expedition... I therefore, in all sincerity, request Your Excellency to take measures to supply my place (replace me). I do this with the more earnestness because no one is more aware than myself of my inability for the duties of my position. I cannot even accomplish what I myself desire. How can I fulfill the expectations of others?

Tucker,2019-03-19 During the crucial three days of combat at Gettysburg the most nightmarish place on the entire battlefield was appropriately named the Devil s Den This jumble of huge boulders situated at the southern end of Houck s Ridge was truly a hell on earth during the decisive afternoon of July 2 1863 The tenacious struggle that raged beyond control at the battle line s southern end was all important because the Devil s Den and Houck s Ridge anchored the left flank of the over extended Union battle line before Federal troops occupied Little Round Top to the east The battle hardened veterans of Lieutenant General James Longstreet s First Corps captured this vital sector the first Union left flank in one of the few Southern successes of the second day after some of the war s most bitter fighting Nevertheless the dramatic story of the successful turning of the first Union left flank has been long overlooked and ignored largely because of the giant historical shadow cast by the more famous struggle at Little Round Top which was only the second and last fight for the southern flank of both armies on July 2 Therefore the important contest for possession of the first Union left flank at the Devil s Den and Houck s Ridge was crucial on the bloody afternoon that decided the fate of America Includes 22 colour and sepia tinted photographs Arms Control and Disarmament Agency United States. The Ivy Leaves, 1993 Hollywood or History Scott L. Roberts, Charles J. Elfer, 2018-07-01 Teaching and learning through Hollywood or commercial film productions is anything but a new approach and has been something of a mainstay in the classroom for nearly a century. Purposeful and effective instruction through film however is not problem free and there are many challenges that accompany classroom applications of Hollywood motion pictures. In response to the problems and possibilities associated with teaching through film we have collaboratively developed a collection of practical classroom ready lesson ideas that might bridge gaps between theory and practice and assist teachers endeavoring to make effective use of film in their classrooms. We believe that film can serve as a powerful tool in the social studies classroom and where appropriately utilized foster critical thinking and civic mindedness. The College Career and Civic Life C3 framework represents a renewed and formalized emphasis on the perennial social studies goals of deep thinking reading and writing. We believe that as teachers endeavor to digest and implement the platform in schools and classrooms across the country the desire for access to structured strategies that lead to more active and rigorous investigation in the social studies classroom will grow increasingly acute. Our hope is that this edited book might play a small

role in the larger project of supporting practitioners specifically K 12 teachers of United States history by offering a collection of classroom ready tools based on the Hollywood or History strategy and designed to foster historical inquiry through the careful use of historically themed motion pictures The book consists of K 5 and 6 12 lesson plans addressing the following historical eras Adapted from UCLA National Center for History in Schools Get Active Dale Basye,Peggy Grant,Stefanie Hausman,Tod Johnston,2015-06-21 Active learning spaces offer students opportunities to engage collaborate and learn in an environment that taps into their innate curiosity and creativity Students well versed in active learning the capabilities that colleges vocational schools and the workforce demand will be far more successful than those educated in traditional classrooms Get Active is a practical guide to inform your thinking about how best to design schools and classrooms to support learning in a connected digital world From classroom redesigns to schoolwide renovation projects and new building construction the authors show the many ways that active learning spaces can improve the learning experience Busted Flush Brad Smith,2007-04-01 Civil War buffs and con men collide in this wickedly funny Hiaasen esque story of old time relics and modern greed Dock Bass is a carpenter turned realtor in upstate New York He has a social climbing wife he doesn t love or even like a job he hates and a rapidly crumbling sense of self respect and self worth Like a lot of people he yearns for a change Like very few he decides to leave his life behind hit the road and go looking for it He finds it in Pennsylvania of all places Summoned to Gettysburg by a law firm he learns that he s inherited an ancient house from a deceased relative whom he never knew existed Renovating the place Dock stumbles upon a treasure trove of Civil War memorabilia squirreled away in an old root cellar including pictures and possibly even a recording of Abraham Lincoln at Gettysburg And in a world where John Kennedy s golf clubs are worth 750 000 what dollar figure does one place on items connected to the greatest American president at the venue of his most inspiring and memorable speech Plenty Dock soon finds out as he s forced to defend his new find from the onslaught of collectors history buffs and media hounds descending on his doorstep Fortunately like Honest Abe himself he s the right man for the fight independent funny loyal and stubborn as a Missouri mule When the scallywags and opportunists including an easy on the eyes television reporter with one hell of an attitude start crawling out of the woodwork he ll need all of that And maybe a little more CQ ,1994 Public School Equity: Educational Leadership for Justice (Equity and Social Justice in Education) Manya Whitaker,2022-02-01 Equality is not equity tolerance is not inclusion and access is not opportunity Efforts to address inequities within our schools tend to ignore the underlying beliefs that sustain injustices and focus instead on short lived policies and practices This book takes a different approach to eradicating educational disparities Drawing on more than forty interviews with teachers principals and district leaders Manya C Whitaker offers educators guidance for leading a school or district grounded in social justice that centers teachers not just teaching practices and that focuses on the belief systems that shape decision making The chapters walk educational leaders through a strategic approach to long term change from school planning for family and community
