Christ as Centre and Circumference John Warwick Montgomery, 2012-07-23 Endorsements Dr Montgomery s latest book is one that every serious reader interested in clear Christian thinking should have on a table near her most comfortable reading chair It is filled with a wide variety of bite sized essays that are absolutely delightful knowledgeable fun witty and unexpected If you have never read the work of J W Montgomery before you are in for a treat This is a book that brings together his best writing from the past with his latest essays It s a Christian feast of ideas that celebrates our Lord and His unfailing Word Craig J Hazen Ph D Director MA Program in Christian Apologetics Biola University What makes J W Montgomery tick What has driven him over a massively productive career to such wide ranging interests as computers and Chemnitz legal theory and apologetics human rights and Christology Dawkins and Duchamp The answer is clear the gospel of Jesus Christ and its defense articulation and application to the real world in which the Word became flesh died and rose again as the Savior Many of our best confessional era theologians both Lutheran and Reformed were Renaissance men but that s rarely the case today Dr Montgomery is a glaring exception and this book is a wonderful display of that full scope of his remarkable insights While being an ardent defender of the Lutheran confession he is far from parochial Even in places where one might disagree the clarity logic and relentless rigor of his arguments will kindle fires in hearths that we didn t even know we had and make us better advocates for the gospel Dr Michael Horton J Gresham Machen Professor of Systematic Theology and Apologetics Westminster Seminary California About the Contributor s John Warwick Montgomery is Professor Emeritus of Law and Humanities University of Bedfordshire England Distinguished Research Professor of Philosophy and Christian Thought Patrick Henry College Virginia U S A and Director International Academy of Apologetics Evangelism and Human Rights Strasbourg France He holds ten earned degrees besides a Doctorate in Philosophy from the University of Chicago the Doctorat d Universit from Strasbourg France and the LL M and LL D from the University of Cardiff Wales UK A frequent contributor to Christianity Today Dr Montgomery has been honored by inclusion in Who s Who in America Who s Who in France and The Dictionary of International Biography He is the author of some thirty books in the areas of theology philosophy and church history He pleads cases before the European Court of Human Rights and has received the Patriarch s Medal of the Romanian Orthodox Church for his efforts in behalf of religious liberty He is an ordained Lutheran pastor

Websites Religion on Trial Craig A Parton,2015-06-25 Craig Parton argues that religions fail the simplest tests of admissibility for their respective claims and few religions bother to make testable assertion relying instead at best on subjective and existential appeal This work challenges the prevailing viewpoint that all religions are making the same or even similar allegations More troubling than this prevailing view is that the religions of the world remain diametrically opposed on the issues of the nature of humanity the reality of evil the nature of history and the way of salvation The author succeeds in sorting out the clashing claims of religions and in bringing insight and clarity to matters normally thought to be solely in the domain of philosophers and theologians Legitimizing Human Rights Angus J.L. Menuge,2016-04-22 When does the exercise of an interest constitute a human right The contributors to Menuge s edited collection offer a range of secular and religious responses to this fundamental question of the legitimacy of human rights claims The first section evaluates the plausibility of natural and transcendent foundations for human rights A further section explores the nature of religious freedom and the vexed question of its proper limits as it arises in the US European and global contexts The final section explores the pragmatic justification of human rights how do we motivate the recognition and enforcement of human rights in the real world This topical book should be of interest to a range of academics from disciplines spanning law philosophy religion and politics

The Restructuring of Global Value Chains Yunshi Mao, 2022-05-26 This book discusses the feasible breakthrough of emerging economy enterprises in participating in the international division of labor led by developed countries and gradually standing at the top end of the value chain based on a deep understanding of the practice and upgrading opportunities of Chinese enterprises. On the basis of re-understanding the theory of global value chains, this book puts forward and expounds the concept of restructuring the global value chain. This book analyzes the background, motivations, paths, and effects of enterprises in emerging economies to reconstruct the global value chain and develops a theoretical system to explore the deep-seated logic behind enterprise upgrading. This book concludes that the transformation and upgrading of Chinese enterprises are the most critical initiatives in seeking a new balance in the world economy. This book involves dozens of manufacturing enterprise cases in Chinese mainland and Taiwan. It is of great value to the research and policy study of enterprise upgrading and the participation in global competition.

China and the Transformation of Global Capitalism Ho-fung Hung, 2009-09-15 This volume explains China's economic rise and liberalization and assesses how this growth is reshaping the structure and dynamics of global capitalism in the twenty-first century. China has historically been the center of Asian trade, economic, and financial networks, and its global influence continues to expand in the twenty-first century. In exploring the causes for and effects of China's re-surging power, this volume takes a broad, long-term view that reaches well beyond economics for answers. Contributors explore the vast web of complex issues raised by China's ascendancy. The first three chapters discuss the global and historical origins of China's shift to a market economy and that transformation's impact on the international market system. Subsequent essays explore the ability of large Chinese manufacturers to counter the might of transnational retailers, the effect of China's rise on world income distribution and labor, and the consequences of a stronger China for its two most powerful neighbors, Russia and Japan. The concluding chapter questions whether China's growth is sustainable and if it will ultimately shift the center of global capitalism from the West to the East.

Blockchain Applications in Food Supply Chain Management Chen Zhang, Yu Gong, Steve

Brown,2023-03-31 This book contributes to blockchain applications in food supply chain management from both theoretical and practical perspectives By using the case study research method it empirically investigates why and how food companies implement blockchain technology Moreover it proposes a conceptual framework based on the case findings and extant literature The book provides empirical evidence to verify academic findings such as critical success factors and barriers Furthermore it identifies the implementation process to answer the how question Uniquely it applies the innovation process model and the practice based view PBV to studies on food supply chains and blockchain Thus building on the original model and theory it enriches the theory on blockchain implementation making it a valuable asset for all researchers and practitioners interested in blockchain adoption and food supply chain management 曹建雄,2005
