(Re)Thinking "Art" Steve Shipps,2008-03-10 Re Thinking Art A Guide for Beginners is a primer that considers the term art what it means and why it matters Rather than being about any particular sort of art visual or otherwise the book addresses the idea of art in all in all its messy complexity and offers meaningful access to the vast array of human products to which it refers Written by an award winning teacher as a response to students ongoing challenge What is art anyway and why should I care Aims to bring readers into a meaningful relationship with art and teaches them to think critically and creatively about it and by extension about anything else Provides an ideal introduction to the field for students and anyone interested in art today Offers a jargon free common sense basis from which to approach the theories that dominate the art world today for readers who may wish to pursue them further LIVING WITH ART-FOURTH EDITION. RITA. The Teresa and Alvin S. Lane Collection ,1995 Creating Spaces of Hope Caroline Seymour-Jorn, 2020-12-15 An exploration of how young artists imagine and maintain hope in post revolutionary Egypt Creating Spaces of Hope explores some of the newest most dynamic creativity emerging from young artists in Egypt and the way in which these artists engage contest and struggle with the social and political landscape of post revolutionary Egypt How have different types of artists studio artists graffiti artists musicians and writers responded personally and artistically to the various stages of political transformation in Egypt since the January 25 revolution What has the political or social role of art been in these periods of transition and uncertainty What are the aesthetic shifts and stylistic transformations present in the contemporary Egyptian art world Based on personal interviews with artists over many years of research in Cairo Caroline Seymour Jorn moves beyond current understandings of creative work primarily as a form of resistance or political commentary providing a more nuanced analysis of creative production in the Arab world She argues that in more recent years these young artists have turned their creative focus increasingly inward to examine issues having to do with personal relationships belonging and inclusion and maintaining hope in harsh social political and economic circumstances She shows how Egyptian artists are constructing spaces of hope that emerge as their art or writing becomes a conduit for broader discussion of social political personal and existential ideas thereby forging alternative perspectives on Egyptian society its place in the region and in the larger global context Conceptual Revolutions in Twentieth-Century Art David W. Galenson, 2009-09-28 Galenson combines social scientific methods with qualitative analysis to produce a new interpretation of modern art Living with art Rita Gilbert,1992 The Magazine of Art Marion Harry Spielmann, 1903 The Oxford Dictionary of Art and Artists Ian Chilvers, 2009 The Third Hand Charles Green, 2001 The lone artist is a worn cliche of art history but one that still defines how we think about the production of art Since the 1960s however a number of artists have challenged this image by embarking on long term collaborations that dramatically altered the terms of artistic identity In The Third Hand Charles Green offers a sustained critical examination of collaboration in international contemporary art tracing its origins from the evolution of conceptual art in the 1960s into such stylistic labels as Earth Art Systems Art Body Art and Performance Art During this critical period artists around the world began testing the limits of what art could be how it might be produced and who the artist is Collaboration emerged as a prime way to reframe these questions Green looks at three distinct types of collaboration the highly bureaucratic identities created by Joseph Kosuth Ian Burn Mel Ramsden and other members of Art the close knit relationships based on marriage or lifetime partnership as practiced by the Boyle Family Anne and Patrick Poirier Helen Mayer Harrison and Newton Harrison and couples like Christo and Jeanne Claude Gilbert George or Marina Abramovic and Ulay who developed third identities effacing the individual artists almost entirely These collaborations Green contends resulted in new and at times extreme authorial models that continue to inform current thinking about artistic identity and to illuminate the origins of postmodern art suggesting in the process a new genealogy for art in the twenty first century
