Iconoclastic Theology F. LeRon Shults, 2015-02-12 F. LeRon Shults explores Deleuze

s fascination with theological themes and shows how his entire corpus can be understood as a creative atheist machine that liberates thinking acting and feeling Thousand Plateaus and Philosophy Henry Somers-Hall,2017-12-20 This volume brings together a team of international specialists on Deleuze and Guattari to provide in depth critical studies of each plateau of their major work A Thousand Plateaus It combines an overview of the text with deep scholarship and brings a renewed focus on the philosophical significance of their project A Thousand Plateaus represents a whole new way of doing philosophy This collection supports the critical reception of Deleuze and Guattari s text as one of the most important and influential works of modern theory Key Features emphasises the philosophical nature of A Thousand Plateaus provides detailed coverage of the text as a whole brings together cutting edge research from some of the leading lights in scholarship on Deleuze and Guattari an ideal companion to a plateau by plateau reading of Deleuze and Guattari s work Back cover

Constructing Identity in and Around Organizations Majken Schultz,2012-01-19 The second volume in the Perspectives on Process Organization Studies series focuses on the notion of identity in particular how individual and organizational identities evolve and come to be constructed through on going activities and interactions Deleuze and Education Inna Semetsky,2013-04-11 These 13 essays address the broad territory of educational theory and philosophy of education Moving from the formal to post formal mode of education the contributors explore education as an experimental and experiential process of becoming grounded in life that represents the becoming Other of Deleuze s thought The Polyphonic Machine Niall H.D. Geraghty,2019-01-29 Focusing on the work of the Argentine authors Cesar Aira Marcelo Cohen and Ricardo Piglia The Polyphonic Machine conducts a close analysis of the interrelations between capitalism and political violence in late twentieth century Argentina Taking a long historical view the book considers the most recent Argentine dictatorship of 1976 1983 together with its antecedents and its after effects exploring the transformations in power relations and conceptions of resistance which accompanied the political developments experienced throughout this period By tracing allusive fragments of Argentine political history and drawing on a range of literary and theoretical sources Geraghty proposes that Aira Cohen and Piglia propound a common analysis of Argentine politics during the twentieth century and construct a synergetic philosophical critique of capitalism and political violence The book thus constitutes a radical reappraisal of three of the most important authors in contemporary Argentine literature and contributes to the philosophical and historical understanding of the most recent Argentine military government and their systematic plan of state terrorism

Posthuman Glossary Rosi Braidotti,Maria Hlavajova,2018-02-22 If art science and the humanities have shared one thing it was their common engagement with constructions and representations of the human Under the pressure of new contemporary concerns however we are experiencing a posthuman condition the combination of new developments such as the neoliberal economics of global capitalism migration technological advances environmental destruction on a mass scale the perpetual war on terror and extensive security systems with a troublesome reiteration of old unresolved problems that mean the concept of the human as we had previously known it has undergone dramatic transformations The Posthuman Glossary is a volume providing an outline of the critical terms of posthumanity in present day artistic and intellectual work It builds on the broad thematic topics of Anthropocene Capitalocene eco sophies digital activism algorithmic cultures and security and the inhuman It outlines potential artistic intellectual and activist itineraries of working through the complex reality of the posthuman condition and creates an understanding of the altered meanings of art vis vis critical present day developments It bridges missing links across disciplines terminologies constituencies and critical communities This original work will unlock the terms of the posthuman for students and researchers alike French XX Bibliography, Issue #65

Sheri K. Dion,2014-09-30 Posthuman Ecologies Rosi Braidotti,Simone Bignall,2018-12-17 The devolved and dispersed character of human agency and moral responsibility in the contemporary condition appears linked with the deepening global trauma of inhumanism as a paradox of the Anthropocene Reclaiming human agency and accountability appears crucial for collective resistance to the unprecedented state of environmental and social collapse resulting from the inhumanity of contemporary capitalist geopolitics and biotechnologies of control Understanding the potential for such resistance in the posthuman condition requires urgent new thinking about the nature of human influence in complex interactional systems and about the nature of such systems when conceived in non anthropocentric way Through specific readings and uses of Deleuze s conceptual apparatus this volume examines the operation of human actioned systems as complex and heterogeneous arenas of affection and accountability This exciting collection extends non humanist concepts for understanding reality agency and interaction in dynamic ecologies of reciprocal determination and influence The outcome is a vital new theorisation of human scope responsibility and potential in the posthuman condition Schizoanalytic Ventures at the End of the World Jan Jagodzinski,2019-03-21 This book provides a thorough application of theoretical ideas from Deleuze and Guattari to a series of examples drawn from contemporary film and new media arts Chapters demonstrate examples of how to do schizoanalysis in philosophically informed cinema studies new media and arts based education Schizoanalysis as proposed by Deleuze and Guattari in distinction to Lacanian psychoanalysis provides an imaginary basis to address the precarity of the contemporary world order from the growing populism with its authoritarian fascist tendencies to the growing concerns regarding climate change within the Anthropocene Part I of this book initiates this understanding through cinematic examples Part II calls for a schizoanalytic pedagogical imagination which is needed to provide insight into the structures of desire as they circulate in media especially videogames and the tensions between analogue and digital technological manifestations Such pedagogy enables an understanding of the new materialism where nonhuman and inhuman AI agencies are taken into account To this end schizoanalytic pedagogy calls for a new earth of transformed values and relationships Why Do Things Break? R.A. Goodrich,Ann M McCulloch,2019-05-16 This study interrogates the breakages that occur in peoples lives such as psychological breakdowns political ruptures and the effects of history evolving ideologically such that the axioms of the past

are overturned and people subsequently lose their sense of identity or purpose The book combines creative writing pieces in which writers draw from personal experiences to demonstrate the impact of breakages with more discursive essays that question artificial breakdowns between disciplines and the imperative that underpins all knowledge its provisional nature in conflict with the human need to categorize and define It focuses on the psychologies that haunt creative autobiographical pieces as well as the plight of broken minds and bodies in the face of trauma historical change and political events It also looks directly at the ideas of thinkers and artists from the past and the impact their work may still have despite shifting paradigms ruptures and re formations Furthermore it queries new formations by directly asking why did former ideas break and why the need for salvaging the past or authenticating the present by identifying precursors

Deleuze and Futurism Helen Palmer, 2014-10-23 This book is an original exploration of Deleuze s dynamic philosophies of space time and language bringing Deleuze and futurism together for the first time Helen Palmer investigates both the potential for creative novelty and the pitfalls of formalism within both futurist and Deleuzian linguistic practices Through creative and rigorous analyses of Russian and Italian futurist manifestos the futurist aspects of Deleuze s language and thought are drawn out The genre of the futurist manifesto is a literary and linguistic model which can be applied to Deleuze s work not only at times when he writes explicitly in the style of a manifesto but also in his earlier writings such as Difference and Repetition 1968 and The Logic of Sense 1969 The way in which avant garde manifestos often attempt to perform and demand their aims simultaneously and the problems which arise due to this is an operation which can be perceived in Deleuze s writing With a particular focus on Russian zaum the book negotiates the philosophy behind futurist nonsense language and how Deleuze propounds analogous goals in The Logic of Sense This book critically engages with Deleuze s poetics ultimately suggesting that multiple linguistic models operate synecdochically within his philosophy

Deleuze and the Humanities Rosi Braidotti, Kin Yuen Wong, Amy K. S. Chan, 2018-03-14 The volume is inspired by Gilles Deleuze s philosophical project which builds on the critique of European Humanism and opens up inspiring new perspectives for the renewal of the field The book gathers leading scholars in the field of Deleuze while also bringing together scholars from Europe and North America the West as well from Asia the East in order to create a lively academic debate and contribute to the growth and expansion of the field It provides both critical and creative insights into some key issues in contemporary social and political thought More specifically the volume hopes to start a critical evaluation of the reception and creative adaptation of Deleuze and of other Continental philosophers in the Austral Asian region with special focus on China
