Bloom, 2003 London 1921 The world's greatest wax sculptor watches in horror as flames consume his museum and melt his uncannily lifelike creations Twelve years later he opens a wax museum in New York Crippled disfigured and driven mad by the fire he resorts to body snatching and murder to populate his displays preserving the bodies in wax In a thousand years you will be as lovely as you are now he assures one victim In The Mystery of the Wax Museum 1933 director Michael Curtiz perfectly captures the macabre essence of realistic wax figures that have excited the darker aspects of the public's imagination ever since Madame Tussaud established her famous museum in London in 1802 Artists too have been fascinated by wax sculptures seeing in them and in the unique properties of wax itself an eerie metaphoric power with which to address sexual anxiety fears of mortality and other morbid subjects In Waxworks Michelle E Bloom explores the motif of the wax figure in

European and American literature and art In particular she connects the myth of Pygmalion to the obsession with wax statues of women in the nineteenth century fetishization of prostitutes and female corpses and as depicted in such wax fictions as Dickens's The Old Curiosity Shop 1841 Filmmakers too have sought inspiration from wax museums and Bloom analyzes works from the silent era to such waxwork themed Hollywood horror films as Mad Love 1935 and House of Wax 1953 Bringing her discussion to the present Bloom examines the work of contemporary artists who use the medium of wax in ways never imagined by Madame Tussaud As extravagant new wax museums open in Las Vegas Times Square and Paris Waxwork offers a provocative cultural history of this enduring and disturbing art form

The The Bequest Chronicles: Book 1 Robert M. Fitzpatrick, 2023-09-07 The adventure is set in South Western France in the aftermath of the Battle of Waterloo It begins in the small town of La Garenne home to the Ducs of Garenne and their ancestors for more than six hundred years La Garenne was a place where nothing much ever happened Even the French Revolution had passed by the town That is until the suspicious death of a national hero a man from the town known to all and the subsequent death of his mentor the Duc de Garenne There was also the unexplained disappearance of a famous hunting dog Hugo Hound once owned by both of these men Then the nation was gripped by the news that a patrol of gendarmes from La Garenne had vanished off the face of the earth at least according to their local commandant A young officer was dispatched from Paris to investigate and discovered that all these events had a common link the dog Hugo Hound To his bewilderment his orders are changed by the Head of Gendarmerie in Paris He must now also find Hugo Hound He finds himself protecting not only Hugo but Hugo's companions including talking bears and lions He also meets once again Catherine whom he had helped rescue from the chaotic aftermath of Waterloo She and her cousin are far more involved with his task than he could ever have imagined On a voyage across France to the safety of the Pyrenees once home to these special beings he and his charges are pursued by evil in the form of a Werewolf once the leader of the lost patrol and the renegade son of the late Duc de Garenne brother to Catherine

Sleepless Marie Darrieussecq, 2023-09-05 A restless inquiry into the cultural and psychic sources of insomnia by one of contemporary French literature's most elegant voices Plagued by insomnia for twenty years Marie Darrieussecq turns her attention to the causes implications and consequences of sleeplessness a nocturnal suffering that culminates at 4 a.m. and then defines the next day Insomniac mornings are dead mornings she observes Prevented from falling asleep by her dread of exhaustion the next day Darrieussecq turns to hypnosis psychoanalysis alcohol pills and meditation Her entrapment within this spiraling anguish prompts her inspired ingenious search across literature geopolitical history psychoanalysis and her own experience to better understand where insomnia comes from and what it might mean There are those she writes in Rwanda whose vivid memories of genocide leave them awake and transfixed by complete horror there is the insomnia of the unhoused who have nowhere to put their heads down The hyperconnection of urban professional life transforms her bedroom from a haven to a dormant electrified node Ranging between autobiography clinical observation and criticism Sleepless is a

Turns of the Global, The Anna Maria Guasch, 2019-11-26 When we talk about the geographical ecological ethnographic historical documentary and cosmopolitan turns in relation to the work of practitioners of contemporary art what exactly do we mean Are we talking about a reading strategy About an interpretive model as would be derived from the linguistic turn of the 1970s or rather about a stratigraphic structure that could be read across multiple cultural practices Do we wish to read one system by means of another system in a way that one nurtures the other so that it can open us up to other forms of being Or is it rather about a generative movement in which a new horizon emerges in the process leaving behind the practice that was its point of departure The recurrence of turn in place of style ism or tendency would ultimately respond to a clear urgency of the contemporary global world a movement characterised by aesthetic pluralism by the simultaneousness of various modi operandi and by a great multiplicity of languages that constantly change their state while having many features in common And turn would also allow within the space of the contemporary of here and now a great diversity of stories from all around the world that should be confronted simultaneously in an intellectual outlook that is continuous and disjunctive essential to understanding the present as a whole

Death, Disability, and the Superhero José Alaniz, 2014-10-15 The Thing Daredevil Captain Marvel The Human Fly Drawing on DC and Marvel comics from the 1950s to the 1990s and marshaling insights from three burgeoning fields of inquiry in the humanities disability studies death and dying studies and comics studies Jos Alaniz seeks to redefine the contemporary understanding of the superhero Beginning in the Silver Age the genre increasingly challenged and complicated its hypermasculine quasi eugenicist biases through such disabled figures as Ben Grimm The Thing Matt Murdock Daredevil and the Doom Patrol Alaniz traces how the superhero became increasingly vulnerable ill and mortal in this era He then proceeds to a reinterpretation of characters and series some familiar Superman some obscure She Thing These genre changes reflected a wider awareness of related body issues in the postwar U S as represented by hospice death with dignity and disability rights movements The persistent highlighting of the body's imperfection comes to forge a predominant aspect of the superheroic self. Such moves originally part of the Silver Age strategy to stimulate sympathy, enhance psychological depth and raise the dramatic stakes, developed further in such later series as The Human Fly, Strikeforce Morituri and the landmark graphic novel The Death of Captain Marvel, all examined in this volume. Death and disability, presumed routinely absent or denied in the superhero genre, emerge to form a core theme and defining function of the Silver Age and beyond.

The Logic of Innovation Johanna Gibson, 2016-03-03

The Logic of Innovation examines not merely the supposed problem of the efficacy and relevance of intellectual property and the nature of innovation and creativity in a digital environment but also the very circumstances of that inquiry itself. Social life has itself become a sphere of production but how might that be understood within the cultural and structural transformation of creativity, innovation and property? Through a highly original, interlocutory and therapeutic approach to the issues in play, the author addresses the concepts of innovation and the digital by means of an investigation through literature and the imagination of new scenarios for language, business and legal reform. The book undertakes a complex inquiry into innovation and property through the wonder of Alice's journeys in Wonderland and through the Looking Glass. The author presents a new theory of familiar production to account for the kinship that has emerged in both informal and commercial modes of innovation and foregrounds the value of use as crucial to the articulation of intellectual property within contemporary models of production and commercialization in the digital.
