Memoirs from Beyond the Grave: 1768-1800 François-René de Chateaubriand, 2018-02-20 Written over the course of four decades Fran ois Ren de Chateaubriand's epic autobiography has drawn the admiration of Baudelaire Flaubert Proust Barthes and Sebald Here in the first books of his massive Memoirs spanning the years 1768 to 1800 Chateaubriand looks back on the already bygone world of his youth He recounts the history of his aristocratic family and the first rumblings of the French Revolution He recalls playing games on the beaches of Saint Malo wandering in the woods near his father's castle in Combourg hunting with King Louis XVI at Versailles witnessing the first heads carried on pikes through the streets of Paris meeting with George Washington in Philadelphia and falling hopelessly in love with a young woman named Charlotte in the small Suffolk town of Bungay The volume ends with Chateaubriand's return to France after seven years of exile in England In this new edition the first unabridged English translation of any portion of the Memoirs to be published in more than a century Chateaubriand emerges as a writer of great wit and clarity a self deprecating egotist whose meditations on the meaning of history memory and morality are leavened with a mixture of high whimsy and memorable gloom Marrow and Bone Walter Kempowski, 2020-03-24 A moving darkly funny road trip novel about World War II returning to one s birthplace and coming to terms with tragedy West Germany 1988 just before the fall of the Berlin Wall Jonathan Fabrizius a middle aged erstwhile journalist has a comfortable existence in Hamburg bankrolled by his furniture manufacturing uncle He lives with his girlfriend Ulla in a grand decrepit prewar house that just by chance escaped annihilation by the Allied bombers One day Jonathan receives a package in the mail from the Santubara Company a luxury car company commissioning him to travel in their newest V8 model through the People's Republic of Poland and to write about the route for a car rally Little does the company know that their choice location is Jonathan s birthplace for Jonathan is a war orphan from former East Prussia whose mother breathed her last fleeing the Russians and whose father a Nazi soldier was killed on the Baltic coast At first Jonathan has no interest in the job or in dredging up ancient family history but as his relationship with Ulla starts to wane the idea of a return to his birthplace and the money to be made from the gig becomes more appealing What follows is a darkly comic road trip a queasy misadventure of West German tourists in Communist Poland and a reckoning that is by turns subtle satiric and genuine Marrow and Bone is an uncomfortably funny and revelatory odyssey by one of the most talented and Classical Weekly ,1923 Gerald Murnane Professor Anthony Uhlmann nuanced writers of postwar Germany FAHA.2020-03-02 Gerald Murnane Another World in This One coincides with a renewed interest in his work It includes an important new essay by Murnane himself alongside chapters by established and emerging literary critics from Australia and internationally Together they provide a stimulating reassessment of Murnane's diverse body of work Handbook of Research on Children's and Young Adult Literature Shelby Wolf, Karen Coats, Patricia Enciso, Christine Jenkins, 2011-04-27 This multidisciplinary handbook pulls together in one volume the research on children's and young adult literature which is currently scattered across three intersecting disciplines education English and library and information You'll Enjoy It When You Get There Elizabeth Taylor, 2014-09-23 AN NYRB CLASSICS ORIGINAL Elizabeth Taylor science is finally beginning to gain the recognition due to her as one of the best English writers of the postwar period prized and praised by Sarah Waters and Hilary Mantel among others Inheriting Ivy Compton Burnett's uncanny sensitivity to the terrifying undercurrents that swirl beneath the apparent calm of respectable family life while showing a deep sympathy of her own for human loneliness Taylor depicted dislocation with the unflinching presence of mind of Graham Greene But for Taylor unlike Greene dislocation began not in distant climes but right at home It is in the living room playroom and bedroom that Taylor stages her unforgettable dramas of alienation and impossible desire Taylor's stories many of which originally appeared in The New Yorker are her central achievement. Here are self improving spinsters and gossiping girls war orphans and wallflowers honeymooners and barmaids mistresses and murderers Margaret Drabble's new selection reveals a writer whose wide sympathies and restless curiosity are matched by a steely penetration into the human heart and mind York Herald Tribune Books ,1929 Other Men's Daughters Richard Stern, 2017-08-29 Until the day of Merriwether s departure from the house a month after his divorce the Merriwether family looked like an ideally tranguil one we read on the first page of Other Men's Daughters It is the late 1960s and the streets of Cambridge Massachusetts are full of long haired hippies decked out in colorful garb but Dr Robert Merriwether who teaches at Harvard and has been married for a good long time hardly takes note Learned curious thoughtful and a creature of habit Merriwether is anything but an impulsive man and yet over the summer while Sarah his wife is away on vacation he meets a summer student Cynthia Ryder and before long the two have fallen into bed and in love Richard Stern's novel is an elegant and unnerving examination of just how cold and destructive a thing love the origin of so much story and disorder can be The Nation .1887 Appalachian Children's Literature, 2010-04-13 This comprehensive bibliography includes books written about or set in Appalachia from the 18th century to the present Titles represent the entire region as defined by the Appalachian Regional Commission including portions of 13 states stretching from southern New York to northern Mississippi The bibliography is arranged in alphabetical order by author and each title is accompanied by an annotation most of which include composite reviews and critical analyses of the work All classic genres of children's literature are represented Incest in contemporary literature Miles Leeson, 2018-08-06 This is the first edited collection of essays which focuses on the incest taboo and its literary and cultural presentation from the 1950s to the present day It considers a number of key authors and artists rather than a single author from this period The collection exposes the wide use of incest and sexual trauma and the frequency this appears within contemporary literature and related arts Incest in contemporary literature discusses the impact of this change in attitudes on literature and literary adaptations in the latter half of the twentieth century and early years of the twenty first century Although primarily concerned with fiction the collection includes work on television and film Authors discussed include Iain

Banks A S Byatt Angela Carter Simone de Beauvoir Ted Hughes Doris Lessing Ian McEwan Iris Murdoch Vladimir Nabokov Andrea Newman and Pier Pasolini and Sylvia Plath Representing Children in Chinese and U.S. Children's Literature Ms Rebecca Morris, Professor Claudia Nelson, 2014-11-28 Bringing together children's literature scholars from China and the United States this collection provides an introduction to the scope and goals of a field characterized by active but also distinctive scholarship in two countries with very different rhetorical traditions. The volume's five sections highlight the differences between and overlapping concerns of Chinese and American scholars as they examine children's literature with respect to cultural metaphors and motifs historical movements authorship didacticism important themes and the current status of and future directions for literature and criticism Wide ranging and admirably ambitious in its encouragement of communication between scholars from two major nations Representing Children in Chinese and U.S. Children's Literature serves as a model for examining how and why children's literature more than many literary forms circulates internationally

The representation of visual practices in the imaginative realm of fiction opens up a zone in which established orders of the sayable and visible may be revised and transformed In 12 chapters the book examines narrative fiction by writers such as Michael Ondaatje Derek Walcott Salman Rushdie David Dabydeen and NoViolet Bulawayo who employ word image relations to explore the historically fraught links between visual practices and the experience of modernity in a transcultural context Against this conceptual background the examination of verbal visual relations will illustrate how Anglophone fiction models alternative modes of re presentation that reflect critically on hegemonic visual regimes and reach out for new more pluralized forms of exchange
