There She Goes Lynne Shelby, 2019-06-06. Will they ever share more than a stage kiss? A delightful romantic read set amidst the drama, hopes, and dreams of aspiring stage stars, a must for theatre lovers. GRACE LOWRIE, author of Before We Fall, escapes with this charming romance, perfect for fans of Sue Moorcroft and Miranda Dickinson. When aspiring actress Julie Farrell meets actor Zac Diaz, she is instantly attracted to him, but he shows no interest in her. Julie, who has yet to land her first professional acting role, can't help wishing that her life was more like a musical and that she could meet a handsome man who'd sweep her into his arms and tap dance her along the street. After early success on the stage, Zac has spent the last three years in Hollywood but has failed to forge a film career. Now back in London, he is determined to re-establish himself as a theatre actor. Focused solely on his work, he has no time for distractions and certainly no intention of getting entangled in a committed relationship. Auditioning for a new West End show, Julie and Zac act out a love scene, but will they ever share more than a stage kiss? _____ Readers LOVE Lynne's swoon-worthy romances. Bleeding the Little Lambs James Crawford, Innocent people are dying The forces of evil are getting out of line and somebody needs to kick some asses and take some names That s Alexa s job Alexa Hernandez is a Knight of the Right Hand She stands between you and the forces of evil who corrupt your soul and think that you d make a yummy appetizer The Sword of Final Banishment is at her side Angels who won t speak English are watching over her and her mother is being nosy from thousands of miles away

Alexa's got this even if demons and darkness take her work personally. She can hunt them but they'll return the favor. James Crawford's quirky wit and imagination mesh remarkably well in this action-packed clash of angelic and demonic forces. James does a wonderful job painting a vivid picture of the epic struggle between good and evil using rhyming prose to hilarious effect but it is the heart injected into this story that kept me turning pages late at night.
