Northcott,2015-06-18 People are born in one place Traditionally humans move around more than other animals but in modernity the global mobility of persons and the factors of production increasingly disrupts the sense of place that is an intrinsic part of the human experience of being on earth Industrial development and fossil fuelled mobility negatively impact the sense of place and help to foster a culture of placelessness where buildings fields and houses increasingly display a monotonous aesthetic At the same time ecological habitats and diverse communities of species are degraded Romantic resistance to the industrial evisceration of place and ecological diversity involved the setting aside of scenic or sublime landscapes as wilderness areas or parks However the implication of this project is that human dwelling and ecological sustainability are intrinsically at odds In this collection of essays Michael Northcott argues that the sense of the sacred which emanates from local communities of faith sustained a parochial ecology which over the centuries shaped communities that were more socially just and ecologically sustainable than the kinds of exchange relationships and settlement patterns fostered by a global and place blind economy Hence Christian communities in medieval Europe fostered the distributed use and intergenerational care of common resources such as alpine meadows forests or river catchments But contemporary political economists neglect the role of bounded places and spatial limits in the welfare of human and ecological communities Northcott argues that place based forms of community dwelling and exchange such as a local food economy more closely resemble evolved commons governance arrangements and facilitate the revival of a sense of neighbourhood and of reconnection between persons and the ecological places in which they dwell Environmental Values in Christian Art Susan Power Bratton, The Celtic Way of Prayer Esther De Waal,2014-04-25 Esther de Waal s classic guide to Celtic spirituality shows how its rich literary traditions and earthy realism can speak to the toughness and challenges of our own world Avoiding sentimentality she presents a spirituality that can be lived with honesty commitment and truthfulness The Globalization of God Dara Molloy,2015-11-10 Roman Catholicism was the first multinational corporation Preaching was the forerunner of advertising Roman Catholicism created the template for the spread of commercial globalisation through multinational corporations For global Christianity to succeed all local expressions of Christianity had to be suppressed These included Celtic Christianity For 800 years the Roman church tried to break the independent spirit of Celtic Christianity Despite being defeated in 1014 at the Battle of Clontarf the Irish Vikings through their urban bishops were key actors in the imposition of Roman episcopal structures of church throughout Ireland in the 12th century There was an invasion of Norman monks to Ireland which began in 1142 twenty five years before the military invasion in 1167 The ecclesiastical colonisation of Ireland meant that a Roman episcopal and diocesan structure replaced the Celtic monastic structure Norman colonisers destroyed Celtic monasteries and replaced them with imported European religious orders Cistercian monasteries in Ireland were required to have French abbots and sometimes these were imposed by force no Irishman was allowed to become a bishop or attain any ecclesiastical high office St Malachy of Armagh betrayed his own Celtic heritage and was a key figure in bringing about the ecclesiastical colonisation of Ireland Monotheism is the mythical container for globalization Humans will fail to return to a sustainable way of living on this planet until the mythological container of monotheism is replaced by new bioregional spiritualities that go beyond both monotheism and polytheism Ecocriticism and the Island Pippa Marland,2022-12-19 Islands have long been the subject of cultural fascination but in recent decades they have exerted an increasingly powerful centrifugal force sending writers to the outer edges of the British Irish archipelago in search of inspiration and insight Drawing on contemporary ecocritical approaches island studies and emergent archipelagic perspectives Ecocriticism and the Island explores a wide selection of island themed creative non fiction Through a combination of textual analysis and where possible original interviews and archival research Pippa Marland offers new insights into the work of Tim Robinson Brenda Chamberlain Christine Evans W G Sebald Stephen Watts Amy Liptrot Kathleen Jamie Adam Nicolson Robert Macfarlane and David Gange In assessing the ways in which these authors negotiate existing cultural tropes of the island while offering their own distinctive articulations of islandness this book represents an important intervention into island literary studies At the same time it contributes to the development of an archipelagic strand of ecocriticism one that offers a valuable perspective on human environmental relationships in an Anthropocene context Belonging to Borders Bonnie B. Thurston,2011 The author invites the reader to share her contemplative immersion in the world of Celtic culture and spirituality Thurston s poetry exposes us to the unyielding harshness of early medieval life in what is now Scotland Ireland and Wales and to the robust and original spirituality Anglicanism Andrew Wingate,1998-07-01 A collection of essays by 81 contributors from all parts of the Anglican Communion on issues of faith worship spirituality and theology the Church and ministry mission within a diversity of faiths and cultures Church and society and Anglican identity Prophecy, Miracles, Angels, and Heavenly Light? James Bruce,2007-09-01 For the first time we see through the theological mind of Adomnan the mission of Columba to bring the Kingdom of God to Pict and Scot The question is was Adomnan simply following fashion miracles proved sanctity and thereby authorized the cult and its politically minded promoters or did he also have a more sophisticated understanding of the nature and function of these authority providing marvels that he systematizes uniquely prophecy miracles of power visions This book surveys approaches to the marvelous tracing the intriguing recent growth in scholarly open mindedness and shows Plummer s 1910 hypothesis of the origin of Irish saga to be inadequate Adomnan identifies the phenomena firmly as signs of the inbreaking eschatological Kingdom of God Directed by the Spirit of prophecy in miracles of transforming power with angels and glimpses of the glory of God s presence the conditions of the new earth are made tantalizingly present in sixth century Scotland The Spirit bringing the Kingdom is the mission of the church How this is present in his Life recasts the missionary identity of Columba from a new perspective and poses questions for the task of the church today
