

Prayers of Thanksgiving and Intercession

For the first showings of the morning light and the emerging outline of the day thanks be to you, O God.

For earth's colours drawn forth by the sun its brilliance piercing clouds of darkness and shimmering through leaves and flowing water thanks be to you.

Show to me this day amidst life's dark streaks of wrong and suffering the light that endures in every person.
Dispel the confusions that cling close to my soul that I may see with eyes washed by your grace that I may see myself and all people with eyes cleansed by the freshness of the new day's light.

Pray for the coming day and for the life of the world

CELTIC BENEDICTION

closing Prayer

O Sun behind all suns
O Soul within all souls grant me the grace of the dawn's glory grant me the strength of the sun's rays that I may be well in my own soul
and part of the world's healing this day
that I may be well in my own soul
and part of the world's healing this day.

WEDNESDAY MORNING PRAYER

Celtic Benediction Morning And Night Prayer

J. Philip Newell

Celtic Benediction Morning And Night Prayer:

Celtic Benediction J. Philip Newell, 2000-10-12 This lavishly illustrated daily prayer book draws on the great spiritual insights and wisdom of the Celtic church offering prayers and Scripture readings for every morning and evening of the week Each day Celtic Benediction invites readers to meditate on a different aspect of the creation story from Genesis On Sunday the theme is light In the morning the prayers and readings lead us to seek the light of the life of God in all his creatures At night we meditate on the light that no darkness can overcome as we bring the world and its needs to God And so on through each day of the week water the fruitful earth the animal world humanity playful rest and all that God has made draw us into intimate prayer Related Scripture readings are also given for each day of the year making this a book to use constantly Illustrated throughout with colored panels from the Lindisfarne Gospels Celtic Benediction offers contemporary Christians a unique devotional experience to treasure for a lifetime

Celtic Benediction J. Philip Newell, 2023-03-31 This beautifully illustrated daily prayer guide which offers simple outlines for morning and night prayer draws on the insights of Celtic spirituality to attune us living as God's children in today's world Original prayers and sensitively chosen Bible texts for meditation enable us to recover what the Celts knew instinctively that God is present throughout his creation and that as human beings we are made in his image and carry within us the seeds of holiness and the potential of glory

Celtic Christian Spirituality, 2011-06-01 The forgotten truths of Celtic Christianity provide a portal into a spiritual way of experiencing the world The Celtic Christians beheld the world around them and perceived the divine life of God as upholding every aspect of the material universe Their prayers and poems their liturgies and theological interpretations give Christians a sense of faith that is confident in a merciful and infinitely creative healing God In this introduction to Celtic Christian spirituality Mary Earle presents primary texts from the Celtic Christian tradition selections from the works of Pelagius Eriugena and St Patrick as well as prayers and poems from Wales the Outer Hebrides and Ireland These essential writings direct humanity to read the book of creation as well as the Bible and call us to remember that matter matters Earle's engaging facing page commentary explores how faithful Christians and spiritual seekers can take inspiration from this lively tradition's ways of embodying and living the gospel Topics include Creation Daily life and work Incarnation Pilgrimage Blessing Social justice Prayer

Confronting Religious Denial of Science Catherine M. Wallace, 2016-07-05 Confronting Religious Denial of Science Christian Humanism and the Moral Imagination traces the cultural backstory of contemporary conflicts between biblical literalists who oppose evolution and New Atheists who insist that religion is so pernicious it should be outlawed if not exterminated That's a clash of fundamentalisms It's a zero sum game derived from high Victorian misunderstanding of both religion and science The God whom science supposedly replaces is the Engineer Almighty sitting at his keyboard controlling every event on earth But that's not a viable concept of God Far better Wallace argues to understand Christianity in Clifford Geertz's terms as a system of symbols that both constitutes a worldview and according to David Sloan

Wilson encourages prosocial behavior That reframing makes it possible to reclaim what biblical scholars have said for decades the miracles of Jesus were confrontational symbolic actions They contradicted the political status quo in colonial Palestine not the laws of biology Prayer she explains is not magical thinking It s a creative highly disciplined introspective process most familiar to many people in forms like mindfulness meditation Wallace offers an intriguing exploration of issues that believers seldom discuss in ways that make sense to the religiously unaffiliated Beginning Again Mary C.

Waddle encourages us to find meaning inside sometimes despite the contentious times we live in He helps readers see through spiritual insecurity and distraction to see God in new places in the sky in writing in walking in music in memory in Gospel reading the bread and wine worship the very name Jesus and get beneath social habits or routine theological assumptions in order to find a fresh core of epiphany

Improvising Church Mark Glanville, 2024-02-13 Though the post Christian cultural turn can be disconcerting it is also a uniquely exciting time to reimagine churches Building on the dynamic traditions of jazz music and Christian community biblical scholar and jazz musician Mark Glanville unfolds a biblical practical and inventive vision for building the churches we long for

An Open Place Daniel Schrock, Marlene Kropf, 2012-11 Written from an ecumenical standpoint as a practical aid for moving those experienced in individual spiritual direction toward group practices This book responds to the movement to expand spiritual direction beyond the classic one on one model Group spiritual direction has the potential to offer the rich experience of individual spiritual direction to a much wider audience yet very little has been written to provide guidance for starting such groups This book responds to that challenge It outlines ways that a diverse and ecumenical group of spiritual directors worked to initiate groups in multiple contexts It examines the many variables among directors directees even meeting spaces that affect and enliven this ministry And it summarizes pitfalls success and discoveries

Leading into the World Paul Galbreath, 2014-09-24 The call to care for creation is a central part of our discipleship as followers of Jesus Christ However language and imagery of the earth is often absent in our worship services This book helps reconnect our commitment to creation care with our life of discipleship The process includes helping congregational members name ways that they are involved in caring for creation and encouraging them to see ways that these practices are related to Christian faith and in doing so nurturing the life of our communities while fostering our identity as those who care for the earth Central to the process of reconnecting holy discipleship with earth stewardship is the development and rediscovery of biblical imagery and language that will support our care of creation and shape our prayers As our actions are more closely connected to the language of our prayers praying and acting will inform and enrich each other This book also includes custom liturgies that highlight earth care prayerfully prepared for the major festivals of the church year

Lessons in Simply Being Carol O. Eckerman, 2012-02-24 Lessons in Simply Being is the memoir of a recovering control addict who finds meaning in life after the collapse of all she had clung to Plunged into despair she calls upon the skills honed in her thirty four years as a behavioral scientist and professor at Duke University She searches for order change and meaning as she walks through much of what she most feared divorce aloneness physical disability her mother's dementia and dying and her children's struggles with cancer She discovers a mysterious loving presence that permeates her world even its darkest corners As she moves deeper into this unknown faith territory and lives what she had never imagined possible love trumps fear A troubled mother daughter relationship transforms into one of mutual mothering She moves toward understanding forgiveness and intimacy with the man whose actions triggered her despair Her dives into tumult awaken her to the peace within and to a single new lesson to live by simply be She is discovering her place within the flow of Spirit that permeates all of life An Invincible Summer Within Padraic O'Hare,2022-10-04 An Invincible Summer Within is a book of sessions of contemplation meditation practice It is for anyone who wants to be happy and good for beginners or experts religious believers or secular humanists It is for young adults the pious and the nones and adults for professors students campus ministers dancers carpenters lawyers plumbers teachers corporate workers all who seek to be happy and good It is for use alone or in circles of contemplation meditation practice To be happy and good a person needs to acquire slowly patiently gently over the course of their lives the skill set of regular access to their inner lives where their true distinct from false self resides in a great landscape of stillness simplicity and presence listening awake mindful This regular access is encounter with a Source within us which mitigates fear regret anxiety anger pain chaos and resentment This book provides practice achieving this regular access The Book of Nature Barbara Mahany,2023-03-21 We live inside a nautilus of prayer if only we open our senses and perceive what is infused all around Throughout millennia and across the monotheistic religions the natural was often revered as a sacred text By the Middle Ages this text was given a name The Book of Nature the first best entry point for encounter with the divine The very act of reading the world of focusing our attention on each twinkling star and unfurling blossom humbles us and draws us into sacred encounter As we grapple to make sense of today s tumultuous world one where nature is at once a damaged and damaging source of disaster as well as a place of refuge and retreat we are called again to examine how generously it awaits our attention and devotion standing ready to be read by all Weaving together the astonishments of science the profound wisdom and literary gems of thinkers poets and observers who have come before us and her own spiritual practice and gentle observation Barbara Mahany reintroduces us to The Book of Nature an experiential framework of the divine God s first revelation came to us through an ongoing creation one that through stillness and attentiveness to the rumblings of the heavens the seasonal eruptions of earth the invisible pull of migration of tide and of celestial shiftings draws us into sacred encounter We needn t look farther for the divine Common Spaces Between Us Melynn Rust,2020-01-09 Polarization occurring in the United States today is not only a social concern it s also a spiritual condition of the heart How can we connect with others in the midst of our differences when deep in our hearts we might harbor shadows such as judgment or fear In Common Spaces Between Us Melynn Rust explores this question by inviting readers into the diverse college campus community where she served as chaplain and where much to her surprise and chagrin she found herself struggling at times to connect with students amid differences She was skeptical of Muslim students requesting bidets in the chapel bathrooms She balked at visiting a student in the hospital psychiatric unit She was afraid to publicly stand up for LGBTQ students She butted heads with students who shared her religion but not her beliefs She had presumed she inherently would live out her values to honor the dignity and equality of all yet in her interactions with others she kept bumping into her own shadows stifling connection Ultimately she discovered that true connection happens when we embody practices that recognize honor and nurture the good in both ourselves and others in the common spaces between us Receiving This Life Kara K.

Root,2023-12-19 Amid a frantic pace of life that often leaves us feeling disconnected and ungrounded Receiving This Life helps the reader engage with life and become attuned to their belonging to God and each other Kara K Root empowers the reader to embrace life as sacred and receive it as a gift The book offers reflections on living a life of presence and receptivity that seeks meaning and responds to God's promptings It invites and models a stance of attunement that orients us toward receiving life's ordinary holy moments as a gift returning us to our deepest belonging It includes prayers and liturgies that can be used by individuals families or congregations over and over again Receiving This Life is a natural follow up to Root's first book The Deepest Belonging pairing prayers and liturgies with further devotional essays on many of the topics covered there such as death disillusionment sabbath hope and connections between human beings Shared Imagination Mary Ann

Archer,2018-05-22 Using imagination in meditation can connect people to the Divine and to each other and can deepen the spiritual experiences of daily life Shared Imagination delves into that notion offering a creative and experiential channel to the Divine and describing the surprising ways this process can blossom in people's lives The work centers on personal stories of spiritual encounters as told with permission by the women and men who have entered the world of prayerful imagining These encounters or shared imaginations arose in a variety of settings individual and group meditation meetings recounted dreams shared spiritual experiences imaginative conversations with God letters written to holy people of the past and some mystical traveling conversations The stories illustrate the interlacing of an individual's imagination with that of the Divine Instructions on how to form and facilitate an imaginative meditation group are interspersed between the stories and detailed in three appendices Arising from author Mary Ann Archer's experiences as a professional musician and spiritual director this collection of personal spiritual narratives presents an exploration of the use of imagination in meditation for a clearer connection with the Divine Transfiguration Rob Marshall,2023-11-30 In fifty pithy and engaging daily reflections from

Ash Wednesday to Easter and beyond Rob Marshall leads us on a pilgrim journey to the Mountain of the Transfiguration The story of Jesus displaying the overwhelming glory of God to three chosen disciples is one of the most potent yet mysterious stories in the gospels and a prelude to all that will occur in Jerusalem Popular broadcaster Rob Marshall explores the many layers of the Transfiguration and relates them to ordinary human experiences journeying prayer revelation tiredness sleep fear doubt waiting questioning listening suffering vision and much more Mountaintop encounters with the divine are transformative but like the disciples we are not meant to stay there Instead we return to the realities of daily life changed forever by glimpsing the glory of the God Transfiguration will help you take the power of divine revelation into your ordinary daily Christian life Treating Trauma in Christian Counseling Heather Davediuk Gingrich,Fred C.
