The Warfare between Science & Religion Jeff Hardin, Ronald L Numbers, Ronald A. Binzley, 2018-10-15 A very welcome volume of essays questioning the presumption of irreconcilable conflict between science and religion. British Journal for the History of Science The conflict thesis the idea that an inevitable irreconcilable conflict exists between science and religion has long been part of the popular imagination. The Warfare between Science and Religion assembles a group of distinguished historians who explore the origin of the thesis its reception the responses it drew from various faith traditions and its continued prominence in public discourse. Several essays examine the personal circumstances and theological idiosyncrasies of important intellectuals including John William Draper and Andrew Dickson White who through their polemical writings championed the conflict thesis relentlessly. Others consider what the thesis meant to different religious communities including evangelicals liberal Protestants Roman Catholics Eastern Orthodox Christians Jews and Muslims. Finally essays both historical and sociological explore the place of the conflict thesis in popular culture and intellectual discourse today. Based on original research and written in an accessible style the essays in The Warfare between Science and Religion take an interdisciplinary approach to question the historical relationship between science and religion and bring much needed perspective to an often bitter controversy. Contributors include Thomas H Aechtner Ronald A Binzley John Hedley Brooke Elaine Howard Ecklund Noah Efron John H Evans Maurice A Finocchiaro Frederick Gregory Bradley J Gundlach Monte Harrell Hampton Jeff Hardin Peter Harrison Bernard Lightman David N Livingstone David Mislin Efthymios Nicolaidis Mark A Noll Ronald L Numbers Lawrence M Principe Jon H Roberts Christopher P Scheitle M Alper Yal inkaya
